How to use this book

Who is this book for?

This book will help you to prepare for the Cambridge Assessment English A2 Key exam. The exam is also known as the KET exam. The exam was updated for 2020 and this book was written for the new exam. This book will be useful if you are preparing for the exam for the first time or taking it again. The book has been designed so that you can use it to study on your own, however, you can also use it if you are preparing for the A2 Key exam in a class.

The book contains:

- Tips for success – important advice to help you to do well in the exam
- About A2 Key – a guide to the exam
- How to prepare for the test – advice to help you to succeed in each paper
- Practice tests – eight complete practice tests
- Mini-dictionary – definitions of the more difficult words from the practice tests
- Audio scripts – the texts of what you hear in the Listening and Speaking parts
- Sample answer sheets – make sure you know what the answer sheets look like
- Answer key – the answers for Reading and Listening
- Model answers – examples of good answers for the Writing and Speaking parts
- Speaking: Additional practice by topic – more sample questions to help you prepare for the Speaking test
- Audio – all the recordings for the practice tests as well as model answers for Speaking are available online at www.collinselt.com/audio

Tips for success

- Register for the test early – If you are studying on your own, use the Cambridge Assessment English website to find your local exam centre. Register as early as you can to give yourself lots of time to prepare.
- Start studying early – The more you practise, the better your English will become. Give yourself at least two months to revise and complete all the practice tests in this book. Spend at least one hour a day studying.
- Time yourself when you do the practice tests. This will help you to feel more confident when you do the real exam.
- Do every part of each practice test. Don't be afraid to make notes in the book. For example, writing down the meaning of words you don't know on the page itself will help you to remember them later on.

Using the book for self-study

If you haven't studied for the A2 Key exam before, it is a good idea to do all the tests in this book in order. If you have a teacher or friend who can help you with your speaking and writing, that would be very useful. It is also a good idea to meet up with other students who are preparing for the exam or who want to improve their English. Having a study partner will help you to stay motivated. You can also help each other with areas of English you might find difficult.

Begin preparing for the A2 Key exam by getting to know the different parts of the exam, what each part tests and how many marks there are for each part. Use the information in the About the A2 Key section to find out all you can. You can also download the A2 Key Handbook from the Cambridge Assessment English website for more details.

You need to know how to prepare for each of the parts of the exam in the best way possible. The How to prepare for the test section in this book will be useful. Try to follow the advice as it will help you to develop the skills you need.

In the practice tests in this book, you will see certain words highlighted in grey. These are the more difficult words and you can find definitions of these in the Mini-dictionary at the back of the book. The definitions are from Collins COBUILD dictionaries. It's a good idea to download the Cambridge A2 Key Vocabulary List from the Cambridge Assessment English website. This is a list of words that you should understand at A2 level. Look through the list and make a note of the words you don't know. Then look up their meaning in a dictionary. You could use the Collins COBUILD online dictionary: www.collinsdictionary.com Knowing these words will help you to do better in the exam. Search 'A2 Key Vocabulary List 2020'.

Preparing for the Writing and Speaking parts

When you are ready to try the practice tests, make sure you answer the questions in the Writing parts as well as the Speaking parts. You can only improve your skills by practising a lot. Practise writing to a time limit. If you find this difficult at first, start by writing a very good answer of the correct length without worrying about time. Then try to complete your writing faster until you can write a good answer within the time limit. Learn to estimate the number of words you have written without counting them. Study the model answers at the back of the book. This will give you a clear idea of the standard your answers need to be. Don't try to memorise emails, notes or stories for the Writing part or answers to the questions in the Speaking part. If you work your way through the book, you should develop the skills and language you need to give good answers in the real exam.

The Speaking part in this book has accompanying audio so that you can practise answering the examiner's questions. You will be Candidate B, so if you hear the examiner ask Candidate B a question, this means you should answer by pausing the audio on your computer and answering the question. In Part 2 of the Speaking paper, you are expected to have a conversation with Candidate A. Again, you will be Candidate B and will respond to Candidate A's statements or questions. This experience will not be 100% authentic as Candidate A cannot respond to your statements or questions, however, this book and the audio have been designed to give you an excellent opportunity to practise answering questions through the eight practice tests. Once you have finished the Speaking part, you can listen to the model answers for Candidate B that have been provided for you. Another option is that you record your answers and then compare these with the model answers.

Please note that there are two versions of the Speaking Test audio:

- The first version contains the pauses for you to practise answering the questions in the Speaking tests. This is when you have to answer the questions for Candidate B. The scripts for this audio can be found from page 167 onwards in your book. For example, you'll see on page 169 that Test 1 Speaking audio track is labelled 'Track 06'. Look for Track 06 when you search for the audio online.
- The second version of the audio contains the Model Answers for the Speaking tests. These are for you to listen to, to see how a good student might answer the questions in the Speaking test. The scripts for this audio can be found from page 207 onwards in your book. You'll see that these audio files are labelled with an 'a' at the end, for example Track 06a, etc. Look for Track 06a when you search for the audio online.

At the back of the book you'll find more sample questions for the Speaking test. These provide another opportunity to practise answering questions that an examiner might ask you. There are 16 topics and all the questions have been recorded. Try answering these questions as fully as possible. Don't just give a 'yes/no' answer but try to give a reason or an example in your answer. Finally, read as much as possible in English; this is the best way to learn new vocabulary and improve your English.

About A2 Key

The Cambridge A2 Key exam is a pre-intermediate-level English exam delivered by Cambridge Assessment English. It is for students who need to show that they can deal with everyday English at a pre-intermediate level. In other words, you have to be able to:

- understand simple written information such as signs and notes
- write in simple English on everyday subjects
- show you can follow and understand a range of spoken materials such as announcements when people speak reasonably slowly
- show you can take part in different types of interactions using simple spoken English.

The exam is one of several offered by Cambridge Assessment English at different levels. The table below shows how A2 Key fits into the Cambridge English Qualifications. The level of this exam is described as being at A2 on the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR).

	CEFR	Cambridge English Scale	Cambridge qualification
Proficient user	C2	200–230	C2 Proficiency (CPE)
	C1	180–199	C1 Advanced (CAE)
Independent user	B2	160–179	B2 First (FCE)
	B1	140–159	B1 Preliminary (PET)
Basic user	A2	120–139	A2 Key (KET)

The A2 Key qualification is for students studying general English or those students in higher education. It is an ideal first exam for those new to learning English and gives learners confidence to study for higher Cambridge English Qualifications. Cambridge Assessment English also offers an A2 Key for Schools qualification. Both tests use English in everyday situations. The only difference is that Cambridge English: Key for Schools is for candidates who are at school. If you are a school-age learner, it would be better for you to take the A2 Key for Schools test and use the Collins Practice Tests for A2 Key for Schools to prepare for the exam.

There are three papers (or tests) in A2 Key:

- Paper 1: Reading and Writing (1 hour)
- Paper 2: Listening (approximately 30 minutes)
- Paper 3: Speaking (8–10 minutes)

Timetabling

You take the Reading and Writing and Listening papers on the same day. You will take the Speaking test several days before or after the other papers. If you are studying on your own, you should contact your exam centre for dates. The exam is paper based. You can also take the exam on computer in some countries. For more information, see: https://www.cambridge-exams.ch/exams/CB\_exams.php.

Paper/Test 1 Reading and Writing (1 hour)

Candidates need to be able to understand simple written information such as signs and newspapers and produce simple written English.

The Reading and Writing paper has seven parts. Reading parts 1–5 have 30 questions and there is one mark for each question. Writing parts 6 and 7 have only one question each. Students should spend about 40 minutes on the Reading parts and about 20 minutes on the Writing parts of this test.

The Reading section has five parts.

Part 1 has six short emails, notices, signs or text messages. There are three sentences next to each one. You have to choose which sentence matches the meaning of the email, notice, sign or text message. (Total marks: 6)

Part 2 has seven questions and three short texts on the same topic. You have to match each question to one of the texts. (Total marks: 7)

Part 3 has a longer text, for example, a simplified newspaper or magazine article. There are five multiple-choice questions with three options, A, B and C. (Total marks: 5)

Part 4 has a short text with six numbered spaces. You decide which of the three words provided belongs in each gap. (Total marks: 6)

Part 5 has a short text with six gaps. You have to fill in six gaps in a text or texts using single words. (Total marks: 6)

The Writing section has two parts: Parts 6 and 7 of the Reading and Writing paper.

In Part 6, you write a short email or note. This should be 25 words or more. (Total marks: 15)

In Part 7, you write a short story using picture prompts. This should be 35 words based on three picture prompts. (Total marks: 15)

In each part, marks are awarded in the following ways:

- five marks if you include all the necessary information
- five marks if you organise your message so a reader can follow it easily
- five marks if you use a good range of grammar structures and vocabulary.

Paper/Test 2 Listening (30 minutes)

Candidates need to show they can follow and understand a range of spoken materials, such as announcements, when people speak reasonably slowly.

The Listening paper has five parts and there are 25 questions in total.

Part 1 has five short dialogues, for example, conversations at home or in a shop, and five questions. For each question, you have to listen and choose the correct answer from three options: A, B or C. The options are pictures. (Total marks: 5)

Part 2 has a longer text. You listen and write the missing information (prices, times, telephone numbers) in the gaps. You should write only one word, or a number, or a date, or a time for your answer. (Total marks: 5)

Part 3 has a longer informal conversation. You listen and choose the correct answer to a question from three options: A, B or C. The questions include opinions and attitudes of the speaker. (Total marks: 5)

Part 4 has five short conversations. You listen and choose the best answer from the three options: A, B or C. (Total marks: 5)

Part 5 has a longer conversation between two people who know each other. You match each of five items in the first list with five of the eight items in the second list. (Total marks: 5)

Paper/Test 3 Speaking (8-10 minutes)

Candidates take the Speaking test with another candidate or in a group of three. They are tested on their ability to take part in different types of interaction: with the examiner, with the other candidate and by themselves.

The Speaking paper has two parts.

In Part 1 the examiner asks you some questions about your name, where you live, your daily life, etc. and then the examiner asks you a longer 'Tell me something about ...' question. You respond to the examiner. (Time: 3-4 minutes)

About A2 Key

In Part 2, the examiner gives you five pictures on a particular topic, e.g. hobbies. You talk together with the other student and discuss the activities, things or places in the pictures. After you have spoken for 1–2 minutes, the examiner continues the conversation by asking you questions related to the pictures. Then the examiner asks you two more questions on the same topic. [Time: 4–6 minutes]

Marks and results

After the exam, all candidates receive a Statement of Results. Candidates whose performance ranges between CEFR Levels A1 and B1 (Cambridge English Scale scores of 100–150) also receive a certificate.

The Statement of Results shows the candidate's:

- score on the Cambridge English Scale for their performance in each of the four language skills (reading, writing, listening and speaking).
- score on the Cambridge English Scale for their overall performance in the exam. This overall score is the average of their scores for the four skills.
- grade – this is based on the candidate's overall score.
- level on the CEFR – this is also based on the overall score.

The certificate shows the candidate's:

- score on the Cambridge English Scale for each of the four skills.
- overall score on the Cambridge English Scale.
- grade.
- level on the CEFR.
- level on the UK National Qualifications Framework (NQF).

For A2 Key, the following scores will be used to report results:

Cambridge English Scale Score	Grade	CEFR Level
140–150	A	B1
133–139	B	A2
120–132	C	A2
100–119	Level A1	A1

Grade A: Cambridge English Scale scores of 140–150

Candidates sometimes show ability beyond Level A2. If a candidate achieves a Grade A in their exam, they will receive the Key English Test certificate stating that they demonstrated ability at Level B1.

Grades B and C: Cambridge English Scale scores of 120–139

If a candidate achieves a Grade B or Grade C in their exam, they will receive the Key English Test certificate at Level A2.

CEFR Level A1: Cambridge English Scale scores of 100–119

If a candidate's performance is below Level A2, but falls within Level A1, they will receive a Cambridge English certificate stating that they demonstrated ability at Level A1.

Scores between 100 and 119 are also reported on your Statement of Results, but you will not receive a Key English Test certificate.

For more information on how the exam is marked, go to: <http://www.cambridgeenglish.org>

Working through the Practice Tests in this book will improve your exam skills, help you with timing for the exam, give you confidence and help you get a better result in the exam.

Good luck!

How to prepare for the test

Reading

» READING CHALLENGE 1: 'I don't know a lot of the words that I see in the texts or in the questions.'

SOLUTION: Build your vocabulary. Start by downloading the Cambridge A2 Key Vocabulary List from the Cambridge Assessment English website. This is a list of words that you should understand. Look through the list and make a note of the words you do not know. Then look up their meaning in a dictionary. If you know these words, you will do better in the exam.

SOLUTION: Use a learner's dictionary when you study. Dictionaries such as the Collins COBUILD Intermediate Learner's Dictionary have clear definitions, example sentences, information about grammar and illustrations to help you to build your vocabulary. At the back of this book, there is a Mini-dictionary with definitions of difficult words. The definitions come from Collins COBUILD dictionaries.

SOLUTION: Use 'key' words and phrases (e.g. for instance, but) that come before and after unknown words to help you guess their meaning. Read the sentence with the unknown word carefully. In the table below there are some ideas for how key words and phrases can help you to understand a word. The unknown word is underlined.

Guessing the meaning of unknown words
Ideas	Key words and phrases	Examples
If you don't know a word, look for examples near the unknown word. If you understand the examples, you can use them to guess the meaning of the unknown word.	such as including like for instance for example	We went on lots of different excursions. For instance, we went walking in the mountains, we visited a famous castle and we went on a boat trip.
If you don't know a word, look for key words that show the writer is contrasting two ideas. The unknown word might have the opposite meaning to the idea in the sentence before or after it.	but However, ... Unlike X, Y ... On the other hand, X ...	They wanted to have the barbecue outdoors but it was raining so they had lunch inside the house.

SOLUTION: Prefixes and suffixes can help you to guess the meaning of unknown words. A prefix is one or more letters, e.g. un-, dis-, that go at the beginning of a word, e.g. unhappy, disorganised. A suffix is one or more letters, e.g. -ful, -ation, -y, -ment, that go at the end of a word, e.g. useful, enjoyment. If you learn the meanings of common English prefixes and suffixes, you will be able to guess the meaning of many unknown words. For example, the prefixes un- and dis- give a word a negative meaning.

» READING CHALLENGE 2: 'I need a long time to find all the answers in Parts 2 and 3.'

SOLUTION: Read the text quickly using skimming and scanning skills to find the answers. Skimming is when you read a text quickly, paying attention only to the most important ideas. In this way, you can often quickly find the part that of the text that gives you the answer. This will save you a lot of time. In the table below there is some information on where to find important ideas.

Part of the text	Skimming strategy
Title	Read the title; this sometimes gives you an idea of what the text is about.
Introduction	Read the last one or two sentences of the introductory paragraph. They often include the main idea of the text.
Main paragraphs	Read the first and last sentence of a paragraph. They usually include the main idea of the paragraph.

Scanning is when you read a text quickly in order to find specific key words or ideas. After you have read a question, make a note of any key words or ideas such as names or numbers. Then scan the text, looking for those key words or ideas.

You do not need to understand every word when you skim or scan a text. The most important thing is to find the information you need in order to answer the questions quickly and correctly. To practise skimming and scanning, find an article in a newspaper or magazine. First, skim the article and write down the most important ideas on a piece of paper. Then scan it for key words or ideas such as names or numbers. The more you practise skimming and scanning, the better you will become, so try to practise every day.

SOLUTION: Time yourself when you do practice tests. You should not spend more than 40 minutes on Parts 1–5 of the Reading and Writing paper. While you work on the questions, make sure you look at your watch occasionally. Do not spend too long on any one question; if you cannot answer it, carry on to the next question and go back to it later. This will help you to not get stuck on a question and waste your time.

» READING CHALLENGE 3: 'None of the multiple-choice answer options "feel" right.'

SOLUTION: Make sure you understand the question types in each part of the paper and the skills you need to answer them. The same question types appear in every Reading and Writing paper. If you know what each part of the paper tests, you will be able to answer the questions with more confidence.

SOLUTION: Decide which answer options are clearly incorrect. If you have to choose between only two options, and not three, you have a greater chance of being right.

SOLUTION: If you find that you are spending too much time on one question and you are not sure of the answer, move on to the next question or the next part. If you have time, you can return to it later. Some people find it easier to answer difficult questions once they have had time to think about them.

» READING CHALLENGE 4: 'I find it hard to decide what the missing word is in Part 5.'

SOLUTION: In Reading Part 5 some gaps need a 'grammar' word. These are words such as determiners (e.g. a, the, much, many), prepositions (e.g. on, at, in) and conjunctions (e.g. and, but, because). Make a list of all the types of grammar words you find in practice tests and make sure you understand how they are used.

SOLUTION: Some gaps need words that are part of an expression. For example, a text might need the expression spend time, and the word spend is missing. Focus on the words around a gap and decide if the missing word is part of an expression. Learn expressions and phrases, not just single words.

Writing

» WRITING CHALLENGE 1: 'I'm not sure how much time to spend on each question.'

SOLUTION: You will have about 20 minutes for Writing Parts 6–7. On the day of the exam, wear a watch. While you work, keep an eye on the time. You can use this guide while you write.

Part 6: Total time: 10 minutes
1 minute	Read the instructions and the short text carefully. Think about what kind of text you have to write, and to whom. Then underline the three messages or pieces of information you have to communicate.
7 minutes	Write a draft of your message on rough paper first. Then write your final answer on the answer sheet.
2 minutes	Check your spelling and watch out for mistakes in your grammar. Make sure you have included all three messages or pieces of information.
Part 7: Total time: 10 minutes
1 minute	Read the instructions carefully. Identify the three main events of the story. Think about the kind of information that is needed.
7 minutes	Write a draft of the story on rough paper before writing the final answer on your answer sheet.
2 minutes	Check your spelling and watch out for mistakes in your grammar. Make sure you have included information about all three pictures.

SOLUTION: Practise writing within a time limit before the real exam. Start by giving yourself 15 minutes more than the time limit in the exam and slowly cut this down until you can finish writing a few minutes early. You will need this time to read through your work to check for mistakes.

» WRITING CHALLENGE 2: 'I'm not sure how to improve my vocabulary for the exam.'

SOLUTION: The Part 6 question might ask you to thank someone, to suggest something or to apologise about something. Make sure you record useful words and phrases to do these things. In the table below there are some examples. Add new ones as you learn them.

Function	Expressions
Thanking	Many thanks for ... Thanks very much for ...
Suggesting	Why don't you ...? What about ...? Try ... It would be a good idea to ...
Apologising	I'm sorry but ... Apologies but ...

» WRITING CHALLENGE 3: 'I don't know how to write good notes or emails.'

SOLUTION: It is easy to begin and end an informal note or email. You can usually begin with Dear ... or Hi/Hello .... You can usually end with Write soon or See you soon. But the most important thing is to communicate the three messages or pieces of information.

SOLUTION: In Parts 6 and 7, you should write the correct number of words. For Part 6 do not write fewer than 25 words and don't write more than 35. For Part 7 do not write fewer than 35 words and don't write more than 45 words. This way you won't include points that are irrelevant. Count the words when you finish writing and read your message carefully. Write a draft of your answer on rough paper first before writing your final answer on the answer sheet. Check your spelling, punctuation and grammar.

» WRITING CHALLENGE 4: 'I don't know how to write a good story for Part 7.'

SOLUTION: If you have trouble thinking of something to write about in a story, use question words to help you think of ideas. Ask yourself questions beginning with where, when, who and why. Imagine you have to write a story with the opening sentence: 'It was late and I was lost.' Ask yourself questions: Where were you? When was it? Who was with you? Why were you there? If you answer these questions, you will set the scene for your story. Then ask yourself: What happened? If you give details of what happened, you will describe the events.

How to prepare for the test

SOLUTION: Ideas for your story can come from your own life. Give yourself a minute to think whether the opening sentence describes something that has happened to you or a friend. If you can't think of something that happened to you, use your imagination – the story doesn't have to be true!

SOLUTION: You have to be able to use past tenses well when writing a story, particularly the past simple and past continuous. Practise using these tenses by keeping a diary. Every evening write what happened during the day. For example: I woke up this morning at about 7.00. I got out of bed and went into the bathroom. While I was having a shower, I heard the phone ring. Keep it simple. Focus on making sure the verb forms are correct and using the two tenses correctly.

SOLUTION: You will get extra marks if you show you can use adjectives and adverbs correctly. Remember: an adjective is used to describe a noun. An adverb gives information about a verb. For example: There was a loud knock at the door and I got up quickly to see who it was. Be careful: if you use too many adjectives and adverbs, your writing will seem unnatural.

» WRITING CHALLENGE 5: 'I'm not good at spelling.'

SOLUTION: Learn as many words in the Cambridge English: Key Vocabulary List on the Cambridge Assessment English website as you can, and revise the spelling as often as possible. Use a good dictionary to look up new words.

SOLUTION: Practise your spelling by testing yourself or by asking a friend or a family member to test you. Make a list of your common spelling mistakes and always check your writing for these.

» WRITING CHALLENGE 6: 'I don't have good handwriting.'

SOLUTION: Make sure your handwriting is easy to read. It does not matter if you use capital letters all the time and you do not have to join the letters together within words. But you should be confident that other people can understand your handwriting. Ask a friend to read some of your work and then tell you if it is clear or if any letters or words are difficult to read.

Listening

» LISTENING CHALLENGE 1: 'I don't know a lot of the words that I hear in the audio recordings or see in the questions.'

SOLUTION: The instructions for the Listening test are always the same. If you do the practice tests in this book, you will know what you have to do in the real exam. You will also hear each recording twice so if there is a word you do not understand the first time, listen for it the second time.

SOLUTION: After the instructions for Parts 2, 3 and 5 there will be a pause to give you the chance to read the questions. This is very useful. By reading the questions first, you will get an idea about what the people will say, and you can even guess what the answers might be. You will also have time to find the key words before you listen. Then when you listen, you will be able to listen for the right answers.

SOLUTION: Build your vocabulary. Start by downloading the Cambridge English: Key English Test Vocabulary List from the Cambridge Assessment English website. This is a list of words that you should understand. Look through the list and make a note of the words you do not know. Then look up their meaning in a dictionary. Knowing these words will help you to do better in the test.

» LISTENING CHALLENGE 2: 'I don't always understand the speakers because they talk too fast.'

SOLUTION: Listen as much as possible to native English speakers. The more you listen, the better you will understand the English used in the test. Try the following:

- Watch TV programmes or films. The programmes do not have to be educational – comedies and dramas have good examples of natural spoken English. If you find this difficult, watch English-language films with subtitles. Listening can be easier when you can read to check understanding.

- Join an English-language club. Your local library or community centre might have one. If you join one, you will be able to practise speaking English and have the chance to hear native speakers.
- Join an online language community. There may be native speakers of English who want to learn your language and will be happy to practise talking to you using online tools like Skype.

SOLUTION: Download English-language podcasts or radio programmes that you can store on your computer. At first, practise listening for only a minute or two at a time. As you get better, listen for longer. Listen as many times as you need to until you understand the main ideas.

» LISTENING CHALLENGE 3: 'I find it difficult to do the matching task in Part 5.'

SOLUTION: You will hear the information in the same order as the things in the first list. Do not choose an option just because you hear a word that you can see in the second list. The speakers often mention the things in the second list but give the correct answer a little later.

» LISTENING CHALLENGE 4: 'In Part 3, none of the options "feel" right. Sometimes more than one option seems to be correct.'

SOLUTION: Correct answer options say the same thing as the audio recording but they often use different words, in other words, they paraphrase the recording. Here is an example:

You hear this: My house is near the museum.

The question: Where is her house?

Incorrect answer option: Her house is opposite the museum.

Correct answer option: Her house is close to the museum.

Learn to recognise paraphrasing.

SOLUTION: Decide which answer options are clearly incorrect. Usually, you can ignore an option that has:

- information that is the opposite of the facts in the recording.
- information that does not answer the question.

SOLUTION: Do not spend too much time answering any one question. If you are not sure about an answer, choose the option you like best and move on to the next question. If you spend too long worrying about the correct answer, you might not hear the answer to the next question. You will not lose marks for choosing an incorrect answer.

Speaking

» SPEAKING CHALLENGE 1: 'I'm not sure how much I have to say when I answer the examiner's questions in Part 1.'

SOLUTION: This part is just a simple conversation between you and the examiner. It is a chance for them to learn something about you. You do not have to give very long answers but you should say more than 'Yes' or 'No'.

SOLUTION: When you answer Part 1 questions, give a reason for your answer or an example. If the examiner asks Do you enjoy studying English? say why you do or do not enjoy it. For example: Yes, I do, because I like listening to English music and I have English friends who don't speak my language.

If the examiner says Tell me about your family, do not just reply I have a brother. When you hear the words Tell me ... you should answer using at least three sentences. For example: I have a brother. His name is Pablo and he's two years younger than me. My dad is 42 years old and he's a mechanic. My mum is 40 and she's a teacher.

How to prepare for the test

» SPEAKING CHALLENGE 2: 'I'm not very good at asking and answering the questions in Part 2.'

SOLUTION: Practise making Yes/No questions and Wh- questions (questions with question words) as much as possible. Write down the questions first and ask a teacher or friend to correct them. Then practise making questions without writing them down. If you make a mistake, repeat the question until you say it correctly.

SOLUTION: Make sure you know the meaning of common question words (e.g. Who? What? Where? When? Why? Which? How? How much? How many? How long?) and practise their pronunciation. Write questions for each question word and use different tenses. Pay special attention to tenses that are often needed in Part 2: the present simple, present continuous, will and going to. Questions with can, should, must and have to are also common.

SOLUTION: Listen to the other candidate's questions carefully and answer using a full sentence. Remember to use the same tense as the question. For example:

Question: How much does a child's ticket cost?

Answer: A child's ticket costs five pounds.

» SPEAKING CHALLENGE 3: 'I'm worried that the other candidate will speak better English than me.'

SOLUTION: Do not worry about this and just do your best. The examiners will mark you and the other candidate separately. Prepare for the Speaking paper by practising with friends who speak good English.

SOLUTION: Think carefully before you answer a question. If you do not understand a question, ask the examiner or the other candidate to repeat it. You can do this in a number of ways. For example: Could you repeat the question, please? or I'm sorry. I didn't hear/understand your question. Please repeat it.

» SPEAKING CHALLENGE 4: 'I'm worried that the examiners won't understand me. My pronunciation is bad.'

SOLUTION: At the beginning of Part 1, the examiner will ask you questions using everyday simple English. Some students might feel nervous at the beginning of the Speaking test so these questions will hopefully help you to relax a little. Breathing slowly and not feeling nervous will hopefully help you to speak clearly.

SOLUTION: Having an accent is not a problem. The important thing is to speak clearly so that people can understand you. Ask your friends to listen to a recording of you speaking English. Ask them if it is easy to understand what you are saying. What words do they have difficulty understanding? Practise saying the words you have the most trouble with.

SOLUTION: Some speakers have trouble with certain sounds. For example, some speakers sometimes add e to English words beginning with s, e.g. 'eschool'. Other speakers pronounce the letter w as a v. Find out if speakers from your country have a particular ways of speaking English and practise that area.

SOLUTION: Listen to as much English as possible. When you listen to native English speakers, focus on their pronunciation. You could also listen to English-language radio programmes while you work or watch English-language television in your free time. Start copying the pronunciation you hear to sound more like a native speaker.

SOLUTION: Practise speaking English with native English speakers. To find native English speakers in your area, try going to tourist attractions in your city. You could also join an English-language club at the local library or community centre. Or you could find someone online to practise with.

SOLUTION: If you want people to understand you when you speak, you have to stress words correctly. If you stress the wrong syllable, people might not understand you. For example, in the nouns below, the underlined syllable is stressed:

- celebration
- advertisement
- photography

In the verbs below, a different syllable is stressed:

- celebrate
- advertise
- photograph

Knowing how to pronounce words with more than one syllable is important and you should use a good dictionary to check the stress of any new words.

» SPEAKING CHALLENGE 5: 'I don't know what to do if I make a mistake and if I should correct myself.'

SOLUTION: Correcting yourself when you make a mistake is a good way of showing the examiner that you do know the correct word or item of grammar.

SOLUTION: Practise speaking English as much as you can before the exam. One way to do this is to speak to yourself when you are alone. The advantage is that you will be relaxed so you will be less worried about making mistakes. Talk about what has happened during the day, what your plans are for the rest of the week or your opinion of anything that is in the news.

Talking about Sport

Alan

I started playing tennis when I was five years old, but I was never very good at it. My parents really wanted me to do well and paid for me to have lessons outside school, but I always preferred football. I'm good enough to be in a top local team. With tennis, I could never hit the ball where I wanted it to go – it was always too high or too far. Finally, my parents let me stop going to tennis lessons and I've spent my time playing football since then.

Rod

My favourite sport has always been rugby. I've tried other sports and I was good at tennis. I won a tennis competition at school and my sports teacher told me that I was an excellent tennis player. But I didn't enjoy it as much as rugby because I like being part of a team. So I stopped playing tennis when I was about thirteen. My teacher and parents thought I should continue with it, but I preferred rugby.

Ben

I've always played a lot of sport. It's an important part of my life, and since I left school I do a wide variety of different types of sports – golf, rugby, tennis and football. I'm quite good at all of them, but I can't really say that I enjoy one of them more than the others. I'm probably best at rugby because I'm a big person, and it is hard to stop me when I'm running fast.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

A very clever family

The Smiths are possibly the cleverest family in the country, and now the youngest member, ten-year-old Charlotte, has won a national spelling competition to add to the family's successes. Charlotte is the youngest ever winner of the National Young Spelling Bee Competition – the youngest winner before her was her older sister, Helen, who won it when she was eleven.

Charlotte and Helen's older brother, Mark, is also very clever. He finished school early and went to university at the age of fifteen, three years before most young people start their university studies. The children's parents, Charles and Vivien, are both teachers and say their children's success comes from working hard, playing hard and following strict rules about homework and bedtimes.

'Other people think that Charles and I don't let the children have any time to relax and play, and that we're always making them do their homework. But it's not true!' says Vivien. 'We have lots of fun time in the family. But there's a time for fun and there's a time for work, and we make sure the children understand that work comes before play.'

When Charlotte took part in the spelling competition the whole family, including her grandparents, went to watch her. Helen took off a day from school – the first day in her life that she missed going to school. 'I felt bad about missing school,' Helen said, 'but I think it was important to Charlotte that I was there.'

		Nikos	Rami	Marcus
7	Who says a place is good if you like outdoor sports?	A	B	C
8	Who says there are things to do at night time?	A	B	C
9	Who says a place is not for people who like swimming?	A	B	C
10	Who likes a place because it is rarely cold there?	A	B	C
11	Who doesn't have a home in the countryside?	A	B	C
12	Who says a place isn't noisy?	A	B	C
13	Who lives near a number of other villages?	A	B	C

Homestay holidays

Nikos

Homestay holidays are becoming very popular, and people everywhere are offering their homes as hotels. My home is in a village in northwest Greece, but it is not for people who enjoy beach holidays. The village is in the mountains and there are 45 other villages in the area. If you are fit, you can walk from one village to the other. The mountain views are fantastic, and you cross old bridges and go past forests where bears live.

Rami

Our home is near the centre of Sydney, Australia's largest city. It is perfect for a homestay holiday. Sydney is a friendly place, with lots of cafés, restaurants and clubs, which are open until long after midnight and where people can enjoy themselves. However, it is noisy at night and there is a lot of traffic during the day. The best thing about Sydney is the weather. It is good all year; it rains in the winter, but it is too warm to snow.

Marcus

Our house is by the sea in the southwest of England, a 15-minute drive from the village of Porthcurno. It is a great place for a relaxing homestay holiday. There are lots of beaches and rivers, and it is very quiet. You can spend a lot of time reading and going for walks. There is a special open-air theatre nearby, on the side of the cliffs. As you watch a show, you can look out to sea. Our area is also great if you enjoy surfing, kayaking and mountain biking.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Light pollution: One city turns off its lights

On the evening of 26 September 2019, the streets of Geneva in Switzerland went dark. This usually happens when there is a problem with the electricity, but this time the lights were turned off to allow people to go outside and look at the stars. This is often impossible in a city because of light pollution.

Light pollution is when light from streetlamps or buildings makes the night less dark. There are many reasons why this is a problem. Animals sleep less because they think it is still daytime. Birds that fly to warmer countries in the autumn need to see the moon and stars to find their way, but light pollution makes this difficult. Insects and birds in cities often fly towards lights at night, crash into buildings and die.

Light pollution is also bad for us. It can stop us sleeping and give us headaches. Also, we don't see the same sky that people in the past did. This means we almost never see one of the greatest sights in the world: the millions of stars in our galaxy, the Milky Way. Hundreds of thousands of people have never seen it in their lives.

However, it is not difficult to do a few things to reduce light pollution: we can all turn lights off when we don't need them and we can cover our windows with curtains. If there is less light pollution, we will once again be able to enjoy the beauty of the night sky.

- 14 The lights were switched off in Geneva on 26 September
- A because there was no electricity in the city.
  - B so that people could go out of their houses.
  - C to make it easier for people to see the stars.
- 15 Light pollution is a problem
- A when the night is too dark.
  - B when it isn't light enough at night.
  - C when there is too much light at night.
- 16 Light pollutions is bad for some birds because
- A they get lost more easily.
  - B they never sleep.
  - C they can't see so they crash into buildings.
- 17 The writer of the article thinks that
- A people today should learn more about the past.
  - B it is a pity that people today can't enjoy the night sky.
  - C a hundred thousand people have never seen the stars.
- 18 The writer says that
- A there aren't many things we can do to stop light pollution.
  - B it is easy to do something to improve the situation.
  - C we can enjoy looking at the stars if we cover our windows.

Explorers

Gerald

When I was a boy, my parents worked in Africa for two years. We visited lots of exciting places there and I have loved travelling and exploring since then. I usually choose to travel alone because it is easier to meet people that way. I often stay with the new friends I make on my journeys, and finding out about new cultures is my favourite part of exploring.

Simone

My favourite places are in the cold parts of the world. There are some areas, covered in snow and ice, where almost no one has ever been before. I usually go on foot because there are no roads. I plan my trips very carefully – I like to be well prepared and I take lots of special equipment with me. I sometimes go for days and weeks without seeing other people – I like the opportunity that gives me to think about my life and to make plans.

Frank

I do most of my exploring by boat. It can take me weeks to get somewhere I could drive to in a day, but it is all about the journey. I always take someone else because my boat needs two people and I don't think I would like to go alone. There usually aren't many people at all in the places that I explore, so I don't often meet new people. My boat is quite small so I can get to places that other, bigger boats can't get to. That makes travelling even more interesting.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Businessperson of the Year

Henrietta Dawson, a businessperson from Portsmouth, is the new Businessperson of the Year. Henrietta heard she had won the prize at a dinner in London last night.

'I can't believe I won the title!' Henrietta said when she found out. 'There are hundreds of good, hard-working businesspeople out there, so when people tell you that you're the best it's just fantastic.'

Henrietta runs three companies that make food and drink to sell to hotels and restaurants in and around her hometown. 'I couldn't have done it without my parents and husband. They've given me a lot of help,' Henrietta said.

Henrietta's mother was also a successful businessperson and taught her daughter that anything is possible if you work hard. Henrietta is also lucky because her husband, Pete, put his own career on hold to look after their two young children.

Henrietta is the first woman to win the title. Last year's winner, Tom Lawson, who runs a successful tourism company, was at the dinner too. 'The competition is an important way to get people interested in starting their own businesses,' he told the audience. 'Of course, not everyone wants to do it, but you don't need to come from a rich family to be a successful businessperson.'

Henrietta could one day be a rich woman. But she isn't one yet; the money she makes goes back into her businesses, not into her pocket.

- A has food and drink companies in Portsmouth.
- B sells hotels and restaurants in her hometown.

- B has become a rich woman.

A love of dancing

Paul

My mum was a professional dancer, and I had my first ballet lesson when I was six. I hated it and never went again. Mum was disappointed, but then she suggested that I should try modern dance. It was a brilliant idea. I loved it. When I left school, I joined a modern dance company. Unfortunately, a few years later I had a bad accident. Now my right leg isn't strong enough for me to dance, but I'm training to be a dance teacher.

Mark

My love for dance began when I was four. My big sister took ballet lessons, and when she practised at home, I watched and copied her. I asked my mum and dad if I could have ballet lessons too. They were surprised, but they agreed. Soon I was better than my sister. I studied ballet and modern dance, and when I left school I was offered a place in a modern dance company. One day I want to be a star and dance in musicals.

Samuel

I became interested in dance when one of my friends started going to modern dance lessons. As a joke, I went to a class with him one day. To my surprise, I enjoyed it and the teacher said I was good. I started going to class three times a week, so I didn't have time for football anymore. Some people at school laughed at me. They aren't laughing now. I am a dancer with a famous dance company. Dance is my life.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

Copenhill

Most tourists to Copenhagen want to see its famous sights: the statue of the Little Mermaid in the harbour, the Tivoli Gardens, old palaces and museums. The Danish capital is also famous for its beautiful modern buildings, and in 2019 another building was completed in the city: the Amager Resource Centre (ARC), also known as Copenhill. It has many visitors, but it is unusual because it is not a hotel, a bank, an office block, a museum or a shopping centre. It is a waste resource centre. This means that 400,000 tons of rubbish are brought inside the building every year. There, it is burned to heat 150,000 homes and make electricity for 550,000 people.

However, Bjarke Ingels, the architect who designed Copenhill, wanted the 90-metre-high building to do more than burn rubbish. It is the only place in the country where people can go skiing. The roof is like a mountain with a 400-metre ski slope. It is not white, but green: bright green in the middle and dark green at the sides. Ingels chose green because white would get dirty too quickly. Visitors can also go snowboarding, running or walking on Copenhill, and after an enjoyable day of activity they can relax in the café. The outside of the building also has the world's highest climbing wall: 85 metres!

The idea that a building can have many very different uses is exciting, and it will be interesting to see what Copenhagen will offer visitors in the future.

14 Which statement is true?

- A Old buildings in Copenhagen are not as beautiful as modern ones.
- B Tourists prefer Copenhagen's old buildings to its modern ones.
- C Visitors to Copenhagen can enjoy a variety of different sights.

15 Copenhill

- A is in the centre of the city.
- B is near a shopping centre.
- C is a popular place.

16 The ski slope

- A is inside the Copenhill building.
- B is 90 metres in length.
- C is on the roof of the building.

17 The ski slope isn't white because

- A white is difficult to keep clean.
- B green is Ingels' favourite colour.
- C bright green is used in the middle.

18 Visitors to Copenhill

- A can enjoy different activities there in the future.
- B can have something to drink there.
- C can climb the highest building in the city.

Archeologists believe that people carried some stones 32 kilometres, but it is possible that the bigger ones came from 225 kilometres (23) ..... in Wales. They (24) ..... that people carried the stones to a river and put them on simple boats. They then took them to the stone circle.

My City

Amy

I live in New York and I love it! It has over eight million people who speak 800 different languages. 60 million visitors come here every year. My favourite way to get around is on foot, especially to places such as Times Square, one of the most famous and popular tourist sights. You get the feel of New York here. From there it's only a ten-minute walk to Hell's Kitchen, where you can get delicious food from all over the world.

Bao

I'm from Shanghai, the biggest city in China. 24 million people live here. It's the second most popular city for tourists in China. The Bund is a great place to visit; you can see historical buildings and modern futuristic buildings, and you can enjoy the view if you take a boat tour along the river. I love going to Chenghuanmiao Old Street, where you can eat food prepared on the street. Both local people and visitors love it!

Nigel

I was born in London and I don't think I'll ever leave! It's the economic, shopping, cultural and financial centre of the UK, and millions of tourists come here every year. London is famous for its red buses and tourists love using them to get around. Many companies offer bus tours around the most interesting places to visit. You can also see the city if you take a boat tour through the centre of the city. My favourite place is Soho because there are lots of restaurants and exciting things to do and see there.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Star makes Simon's restaurant the best in town

One, two or even three Michelin stars are given to restaurants with exceptionally good food, and chef Simon Jones has just won one for his restaurant, The Tiger. It is the first time that a restaurant in Moreton has got a Michelin star and Simon is delighted. He is very proud of it, and he is having a party for friends, family and customers. 'I'm so pleased with the star,' Simon says. 'It shows how much we have improved in the past ten years since we started the business.'

Michelin stars are not easy to win and Simon hopes it will help his business. The Tiger is a fish and seafood restaurant, which makes the star even more special. The restaurant is over 80 kilometres from the sea, so the fish and seafood have to travel a long way by train every day.

Simon's wife, Angela, has been at the restaurant since its beginning. She and Simon met when she got a job doing the washing-up. Five years ago, she left the kitchen and now she takes bookings and shows customers to their tables.

'It's great news, and not only for us!' Angela says. 'Hopefully, the Michelin star will bring a lot of new visitors into the area. If our business grows, there will be more jobs in the town for local people and they won't have to leave to find work.'

Simon and Angela play an active part in local life, visiting schools to share their business experience and offering work experience to school children.

13	Who was in danger because of the bad weather?	A	B	C

Bad weather

Liza

I live in the north of Finland. We're used to snow there, but one year we had a very bad snowstorm. When we woke up one morning the snow was nearly as high as the house. It covered our car and our garden, and we couldn't open our front door. We didn't have any electricity, and it was dark and cold. Luckily, we were prepared, and we had a radio with batteries, a torch and warm clothes. For me it was like an adventure, but my mum and dad were very worried.

Hannah

My family and I often go sailing, but last summer we had a bad experience. The day began well. It was a hot and sunny so we decided to take the boat out. An hour later the weather changed very suddenly. The wind became stronger, clouds covered the sun, it started to rain and the sea became very rough. I thought we were going to die. Luckily, after a few hours the storm passed, but it was the scariest day of my life.

Paula

My village is near the sea, and a few winters ago something very strange happened. The wind became very strong and big waves started crashing over the harbour edge onto the road. Overnight, the temperature dropped so low that the seawater turned into ice. The next day the sea looked like a giant ice rink. There was also ice on the roads and the cars. Luckily nobody was hurt, but it was the strangest weather I've ever experienced.

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Too much plastic

by Paula Jones

Plastic is everywhere: in our streets, in the countryside, in rivers, in seas and in oceans. In the UK, over 13 billion plastic bottles are used every year. The good news is that more and more people are recycling plastic and there are also some clever ways to use it.

Roads are usually made of asphalt, but in some countries like the USA and the UK, engineers have started to use plastic to make new roads. First, they collect the plastic, wash it and dry it. Then they cut it into small pieces and heat it to about 170°C. After that, they mix it with hot asphalt and use it to make the road surface. This way of making roads is more difficult than the usual way, but the plastic and asphalt mixture is harder and better than asphalt only.

How about wearing a pair of trainers made from recycled plastic bottles? Some well-known sports companies use six to eleven plastic bottles to make one pair of trainers. This means that fewer plastic bottles are thrown away, and they end up on people's feet, not in the ocean!

Plastic can be recycled in other clever ways too. It is used to make rubbish bins, toys, tables and chairs, sleeping bags, backpacks and hundreds of other things. One clothes company cuts it into very small pieces to make clothes. Believe it or not, the England women's national football team wears a kit made from recycled bottles!

- 14 What is happening in the UK that is good news?
- A Plastic can be used in clever ways.
  - B Over 13 billion plastic bottles are used every year.
  - C There are a lot of clever people there.
- 15 Which of these sentences is true?
- A Roads are made of plastic all over the world.
  - B Engineers usually make plastic roads in the UK and the USA.
  - C In the past, roads weren't made of plastic.
- 16 Asphalt and plastic roads
- A are not easy to make.
  - B are better when they are heated to 170°C.
  - C are not as hard as roads that have only asphalt.
- 17 Some famous companies
- A make sports shoes using rubbish.
  - B throw away fewer plastic bottles than others.
  - C use six to eleven plastic bottles to make one shoe.
- 18 The writer says that you can use plastic to make
- A footballs.
  - B camping equipment.
  - C rubbish bins and jewellery.

Lloyd

I've worked as a full-time artist for five years. After leaving art college, I did some part-time jobs working as a waiter and washing dishes in a restaurant. But then I started to sell some paintings so I gave up my other jobs. Most of my paintings are of city street scenes – they are full of people just living their lives. People buy my paintings because they can see places they know in them.

Emma

I'm still very early on in my career as an artist. I trained as a doctor and my art is slowly changing from a hobby to a job. I work with wood and metal. I'm interested in showing my feelings through my work. It's very personal to me. Maybe that's why I don't sell very much. I still work as a doctor two days a week. My parents are very proud of me, especially my mother, who draws a lot.

Amna

My parents wanted me to be a doctor, like them, but I had no interest in studying medicine. I first became interested in art when I was at school. I came first in a competition and I was given a painting set, and I have never looked back! I was lucky enough to get a place at university on a course which helped me improve my painting skills. They're actually quite good now. I've managed to earn enough money from my art for the past two years, so I don't need to do other work.

Little girl saves mother

A little girl from Newton has become the most famous person in town. Frances Brown, who is starting school next year, called 999 when her mother, Lisa, fell down the stairs. The emergency services immediately sent an ambulance to her house.

'She's an amazing little girl!' said a doctor. 'She knew that she had to call 999 to speak to someone who could help. She gave her name and her address, and she described what the problem was. She said her mother had just got out of bed and had fallen down the stairs. She said that her mum was sleeping, but there was something wrong. She looked after her mum until help arrived.'

When the ambulance arrived at the Browns' house, they found out that Lisa, aged 30, is expecting her second child. The doctors kept Lisa in hospital for 24 hours to check that she was all right before allowing her to go home the next morning.

When Lisa found out what her daughter did she told friends and family. Then the local newspaper heard the story. Frances's father, Liam, aged 32 and a teacher at the local school, said: 'Frances's quick thinking saved her mother's life. Lisa is careful around the house, but accidents happen.'

Lisa is going to have a baby in two months, and she thinks this is why she fell down the stairs. 'I'm so big now that I can't see my feet!' she said. 'I can't wait to give Frances a baby brother.'

Three teachers tell us why they love their jobs

A Claudia

My mum and dad were teachers so it's not surprising that I became one. I saw how happy they were in their jobs and I always thought teaching was a possibility for me. But I didn't think it would be such hard work. During term time there is absolutely no time for any personal evening activities in the week. Luckily, we get good holidays and I love travelling when I get the chance.

B Polly

I did a teacher training course in college and now I work in a school with children aged four to eleven. I love seeing them growing up in front of my eyes! I teach kids in their first year at school. At the beginning of the year they are usually shy and quiet, but I do everything I can to make them feel relaxed and happy. If they aren't happy and relaxed, they aren't going to learn. I'm glad tests aren't important for my pupils.

C Stan

I teach history to children over the age of sixteen. Most of them work very hard because they want to get good marks and get into the university of their choice. I love discussing things with them and helping them understand the links between what has happened in the past and things that are happening now. I never thought I would be a teacher – I only turned to it when I was looking for a job after university – and I love it!

Part 3

Questions 14–18

For each question, choose the correct answer.

School counts the cost of storm

When children and parents arrived at school in the small village of Brownston yesterday morning, they were surprised to see the head teacher standing outside the front of the school. The school gates were closed, because a tree had fallen onto the roof of the school hall and a number of windows were broken. A storm the night before had made school buildings unsafe, so the children were sent home until further notice.

Justine Cram, a mother with two young children at the school, said that she was unhappy with the way the head teacher sent the children home. 'I have to cancel all my work appointments today. My customers won't be pleased, but I have to stay at home to look after my daughters,' she said. 'Children should be in school every day! The head teacher needs to think again about closing. He should find a safe place to teach the children until they can use the buildings again.'

Richard Thomas, the head teacher, explained that he had no choice but to send the children home. 'The storm happened in the early hours of Monday morning, just a few hours before school starts. When I arrived, I immediately decided it was not a safe place for children to be in. I know parents are unhappy that the school is closed, but if their children or members of staff were hurt because of the problems, that would be worse.'

Mr Thomas hopes to open the school again by Thursday.

14 School children and their parents

- A do not usually see the head teacher standing outside the front of the school.
- B surprised the head teacher when they arrived at school.
- C arrived at school at the same time as the head teacher.

15 The children and their parents

16 Justine Cram

- A couldn't go to work because the school was closed.
- B wants to make an appointment to talk to head teacher.
- C thinks the school is safe enough for the children.

17 Mr Thomas believes

- A people should think before closing a school.
- B the storm happened too early in the morning.
- C he was right to send the children home.

18 The school

- A will certainly open again this week.
- B might open on Thursday or Friday.
- C will not open before next Monday.

- Examiner: Who do you play sport with, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, what sports are you good at?

Candidate A: I'm not very good at them, but I like badminton.

Examiner: When do you play sport?

Candidate A: I don't play it very often, but when we go to the beach, I play badminton with my sister.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about your favourite sport.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Part 2

Track 07

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different ways of travelling.
Do you like these different ways of travelling? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.

Do you like these different ways of travelling? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I think driving a car is a good way to travel. You can leave when you want to and go exactly where you want to. What do you think?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: What do you think about travelling by train?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I use the bus a lot in Athens. It's easy to catch the bus. I have a travel card so I don't have to pay every time.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I don't think cycling is a very good idea in a big city. It can be dangerous when there's a lot of traffic. What do you think?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Walking is a good way to travel if you don't have a long way to go. If the weather is fine, it can be nice. How do you feel about walking?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, do you think cars are a cheap way to travel?

Candidate A: No, I don't.

Examiner: Why, Candidate B?

Candidate A: You have to buy a car, and a good car is expensive. You have to put petrol in it and petrol isn't cheap. You also need to repair it sometimes.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think cycling is fun?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these ways of travelling do you like the most?

Candidate A: I like travelling by car the most.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these ways of travelling do you like the least?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, would you prefer to walk or cycle, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer to travel by bus or by train?

Candidate A: If I am going a long way, I prefer to travel by train. I think a train is more comfortable and you have more room on a train.

Examiner: Do you think cars are safe, Candidate A?

Candidate A: Yes, I do.

Examiner: Why?

Candidate A: If you are a careful driver, then a car is safe.

Examiner: Do you think cars are safe, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

TEST 2 LISTENING

Track 08

Key English Test, Listening

There are five parts to the test. You will hear each piece twice.

We will now stop for a moment.

Please ask any questions now, because you must not speak during the test.

Look at Question 1.

1 What might Mark look like now?

Woman: Are you excited to see Mark? When was the last time you saw him?

Man: Four years ago, when he came here as an exchange student.

Woman: He must look different now. Is he still short with short blond hair?

Man: I don't think so – he told me he's grown it, and he'll definitely be taller now!

Now listen again.

2 What will the woman probably study next year?

Man: Are you going to continue studying geography next year?

Woman: Well, it isn't a main subject so I don't have to. I never really enjoyed it, so I'd prefer to do something else. Maths might be more useful if I study business at university. How about you?

Man: I'm not sure either, but I think I want to continue with history.

Now listen again.

3 What is David making for dinner?

Tina: What are you doing, David?

David: Oh, hi, Tina. I've just made dinner. It'll be the last time we eat together before we go home for the holidays. I hope you like burgers and chips.

Tina: Yes! It's my favourite. I can make the salad if you like.

David: Thanks! And if Brian joins us, I'll make an omelette – he doesn't eat meat.

Now listen again.

4 What time does the exam begin?

- Woman: I'm really worried about the exam, Max.
 Max: Me, too. I was up all night studying. I can't wait until three o'clock when it will be over.
 Woman: Well, it's only a half-hour speaking exam. I'm going to get there early, around two o'clock so I can relax before it begins.
 Max: Good idea. I'll come with you.

Now listen again.

5 Where does the woman think she lost her purse?

- Man: Did you find your purse?
 Woman: No, unfortunately, and I had £20 in it and my college ID card.
 Man: Where do you think you lost it?
 Woman: I had it at the library – I remember because I paid for a late book. Then I paid for tickets at the cinema. But it wasn't in my bag when I tried to pay for milk at the supermarket.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 1.

Part 2*Track 09

Now look at Part 2.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time. Look at questions 6–10 now.

You have ten seconds.

You will hear a woman talking about her work experience.

- Jessica: My name's Jessica Chapman and I'd like to tell you about a job I did a few months ago. I worked as an online language teacher. I helped schoolchildren in China to learn English. I talked to them online using special software for two hours every Monday and Wednesday. My students were all young, eight to ten years old and about the same level. The groups I taught were small: three to six students in each lesson. I had an interactive whiteboard on my screen that I could write and draw on. The students could see it on their screens, too. We played games, sang songs and had conversations. I saw an advert for the job in January, and I applied immediately. A month later I got a reply, and I started working in July. I want to be a teacher in the future and this job gave me lots of experience. I really loved it, and I was sad when the job came to an end in September.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

Part 3*Track 10

Now look at Part 3.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have 20 seconds.

You will hear Laura talking to her friend John about her trip to Scotland.

- John: How was Scotland, Laura? Did you visit any universities?
 Laura: Yes, in Aberdeen, Dundee and St Andrews. The last one was in Edinburgh. We wanted to visit Glasgow, too, but there wasn't enough time.
 John: Did you go alone?
 Laura: No. I was going to go with my mum but my dad and brother came, too.
 John: Where did you stay?
 Laura: The hotels were either full or too expensive. Then we learned that visitors can rent rooms in the universities. They were even cheaper than a guest house!
 John: What did you think of the universities?
 Laura: Well, most universities are in large cities and they all have interesting courses. But I preferred St Andrews because it's by the sea and the countryside around it is beautiful. It's one of the oldest universities in the world and Mum loved the buildings.
 John: What about Edinburgh?
 Laura: It's a great city with lots of shops, cafés and museums, but it's expensive to live there as a student.
 John: So have you decided where you want to go?
 Laura: Not yet.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Part 4*Track 11

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16 You will hear a teacher talking to a student. What does he say about her work?

- Mr Davies: Rosie, can I speak to you about your project?
 Rosie: Oh no, Mr Davies! Was it very bad?
 Mr Davies: No, not at all, it was good, better than your last project, but it could be even better. The homework you gave me yesterday was excellent, so I want your next project to be as good as your homework.
 Rosie: All right, I'll try.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a man talking to his friend about a photograph. Who is the woman in the photograph?

- Woman: So, who's that woman in the photo?
 Man: That's Clara. She's my father's youngest sister, my aunt.
 Woman: She's very young!
 Man: Yes, she's only ten years older than me. People usually think she's my cousin.
 Woman: How old was your dad when she was born?
 Man: Sixteen, so really, she's more like a sister to me than to him.

Now listen again.

18 You will hear a man talking to his friend about a jacket. Why did he buy it?

- Woman: Hi Peter. Did you go shopping today?
 Peter: Yes, and I bought a jacket.
 Woman: Another one?! Can I see it?
 Peter: Yes, look. It's for football practice during the winter.
 Woman: Oh, it's great! You could wear it every day, too. Sports clothes are in fashion now.
 Peter: Yes, I could, but I have to dress more smartly when I'm at work.

Now listen again.

19 You will hear a mother talking to her son. Why is she unhappy?

- Woman: Where have you been, Karl?
 Karl: I went to the supermarket for some milk. Dad asked me to get some this morning.
 Woman: OK, but next time take your boots off when you come in. Look at the floor! I'll need to clean it again!
 Karl: Oh, sorry, Mum!

Now listen again.

20 You will hear two friends talking about their day. What did they do first?

- Woman: What a busy day! I'm so tired! It was fun, though, and it's nice to end the day here.
 Man: I enjoyed it, too. The museum was really interesting.
 Woman: Yes, it was, but I'm glad we went there before going shopping.
 Man: And now I want something to eat. I'm hungry!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 4.

Part 5

Track 12

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear Sally talking to James about different documents and books. Which person do they belong to?

- Sally: What are you doing, James?
 James: Hey, Sally. I'm looking through these old documents before I throw them away. They've been in this cupboard for years.
 Sally: I'll help you. ... Oh look! This is Dad's. Remember that year when we arrived at the airport and he couldn't find it because he'd left it at home?
 James: (laughs) Yes, and we nearly missed our flight. ... Is that an old notebook?
 Sally: No... Oh, it's full of Jane's writing. It's her diary, the one she had years ago. She wanted to write in it – her feelings, the things that happened every day. But in the end, she just wrote what she had for dinner!
 James: Well, she's always been interested in food, like Mum.
 Sally: And talking of Mum, look at this!
 James: It's from that old restaurant ... (remembering name) La Strada. She and Dad went there a lot before it closed. I guess she kept it as a souvenir. And hey! Look at this old photo of Granny!
 Sally: Why is her licence here?
 James: Well, she hasn't got a car anymore. Anyway, it's very, very old.
 Sally: Let's keep it. I want the photo for my photo album.
 James: What's in that envelope next to the box with the postcards?
 Sally: Er ... let's see ... it's old bills for electricity and water and things like that.
 James: They're Grandpa's. He never throws anything away.
 Sally: And that? Another diary?
 James: I don't think so. It says 'George Barron' on the cover, and this is George's writing: 'French Vocabulary'! He wasn't very good at French, was he?

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

That is the end of the test.

TEST 2 SPEAKING

Track 13

- Examiner: Good afternoon.
 Can I have your mark sheets, please?
 I'm Hannah Jones. And this is Keith Mantell.
 What's your name, Candidate A?
 Candidate A: My name's Andrea Chiti.
 Examiner: And what's your name, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Where do you come from, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?

Candidate A: I'm a student, too.

Examiner: Where do you come from?

Candidate A: I come from Rome in Italy.

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about jobs.
Candidate A, what job would you like to have?

Candidate A: I'm studying medicine at university, and one day I want to work as a doctor in a big hospital.

Examiner: Why do you want to be a doctor?

Candidate A: Because I think medicine is the most interesting subject to study, and I also want to help people.

Examiner: Candidate B, what kinds of jobs do you think young people want to do?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Would you like to work in an office, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me something about a job that you wouldn't like to do.

Candidate A: I wouldn't like to have a job in an office or a factory. I think it would be very boring, and a job in a factory is also very hard.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about friends.
Candidate B, how often do you see your friends?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And Candidate B, what do you like doing with your friends?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, where do your friends live?

Candidate A: Most of my friends live in the same part of Rome as me and a few live in the countryside outside the city.

Examiner: When do you see your friends?

Candidate A: I usually don't get a chance to see my friends during the week, so I usually see them on Saturday or Sunday.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me something about one of your friends.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Part 2

Track 14

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.

Here are some pictures that show different places to live.

Do you like these different places to live? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.

Do you like these different places to live? Say why or why not.

All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I think it's nice to live in the apartment building and the house.
How about you?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Why do you like houseboats?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Well, I couldn't live on a farm or in a quiet village. In an apartment building, if you live at the top, you have great views!

Examiner: Candidate A, why do you think living in a house is nice?

Candidate A: Because houses usually have a garden and it's nice to have some outside space where you live.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think living on a farm is fun?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these places to live do you like best?

Candidate A: Well, if I have to choose between an apartment building and a house, I will choose the apartment building because they are usually in the centre of a town or city, so there are lots of shops, restaurants and interesting places to visit nearby.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these places to live do you like best?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, do you prefer living in a big home or a small home, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Do you prefer living in a big or small home?

Candidate A: I prefer a big home.

Examiner: Do you prefer living in cities or in the countryside, Candidate A?

Candidate A: I prefer living in cities because you have all the facilities you need, like shops, cafes, cinemas and parks.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Do you prefer living in cities or in the countryside?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER],
 Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Now listen again.

4 What will the friends eat for dinner?

Man: What about dinner?
 Woman: How about going out for fish and chips?
 Man: Great idea, but have we got time? The film starts at eight. Maybe we should just have a sandwich?
 Woman: Or soup? There's some in the fridge from yesterday.

You will hear a speaker giving information to students about staying in university flats.

Woman: Now I'm going to give you some information about university flats. The first type is the cheapest. There are ten students in each flat. A room costs £95 per week. Each term is a different number of weeks. The first term is longer than the others. It's 13 weeks, so it's more expensive: one thousand two hundred and thirty-five pounds. The second term costs nine hundred and fifty pounds, and the final term costs one thousand and forty-five pounds. The second type of flat is £110 a week and you share with three other students. In the first term, flats are available from the fifteenth of September until the twentieth of December. You can't stay in the flats during the university holidays, but you can move back in on the fourth of January for the second term. We have quiet time at night in student flats from Monday to Thursday between ten o'clock at night and half past six in the morning so students can study and sleep.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have twenty seconds.

You will hear Peter talking to his friend Linda about going camping.

- Linda: So, Peter, who are you going camping with?
- Peter: Well, Dave from work can't make it, so Tom, Mike and Jon – you know them, old school friends. I'll do a trip with colleagues another time.
- Linda: How long are you going for?
- Peter: It was going to be three nights – Thursday, Friday, Saturday, but now Jon and Mike have to be back by Saturday afternoon. It's not a bad thing because I also want to do some things around the house. I really need to do some cleaning, and I'm thinking of painting the bathroom.
- Linda: Oh. You're not all in one tent, are you?
- Peter: It's a four-man tent with two sleeping sections, and each is big enough for two people.
- Linda: What you are doing for food?
- Peter: We don't want to spend all our time cooking, and we don't want to take lots of food. So we're planning to eat in cafés and restaurants. We'll take some milk and cereal with us for breakfast. That way we don't have to pay for three meals a day.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Part 4

Track 18

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16 You will hear a woman shopping for shoes. Which pair of shoes does she buy?

- Woman: Have you got these brown shoes in size 7?
- Man: Only in 6 ½ and 7 ½, I'm afraid. These green ones are similar and we've got them in all sizes.
- Woman: What about these black ones?
- Man: We've got those in all sizes, too.

Woman: Black it is. Green shoes don't go with my clothes and the brown ones aren't the right size.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a woman describing something she lost. What did she lose?

- Man: Can you describe it, please?
- Woman: It's brown leather. New, expensive!
- Man: What was in it?
- Woman: I had my purse in my coat pocket, so no money luckily.
- Man: What about keys?
- Woman: Yes! Keys! I can't open my suitcase because the keys are in my handbag.
- Man: Anything else?

Now listen again.

18 You will hear two friends talking. What is Paul going to make?

- Woman: Are you making a cake for the party, Paul?
- Paul: I've already made it! I'm just having a quick lunch.
- Woman: Oh. That sounds like a good idea. Anything for me?
- Paul: I thought you didn't like omelettes!
- Woman: Why not fry the eggs?
- Paul: I've mixed them up already!

Now listen again.

19 You will hear a man talking about his holiday to his friend. What animal did he ride?

- Woman: What was it like?
- Man: Fantastic! You're high up, so it's scary!
- Woman: Are they friendly?
- Man: Not really, and they smell! But they're so strong.
- Woman: They have to be – to live in those hot dry places.
- Man: I've been on an elephant before, but it wasn't as difficult as the camel.
- Woman: I think I'll keep to horses!

Now listen again.

20 You will hear a woman talking to her friend. Why is she upset?

- Woman: ...Then the car wouldn't start, so I called a taxi to Jean's house. And it was late at night.
- Man: Oh no! Of course you're upset. And you went all that way! I'm sure it was very expensive!
- Woman: I've been having problems with my car, so I wasn't surprised. The taxi driver was helpful with my luggage, but Jean was out and I had to wait in the rain!

Now listen again.

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear John and Fiona talking about what to do with the family at the activity centre. What activity will each person do?

- Fiona: Let's all go to the activity centre, John. There'll be something to do for everyone.
- John: Good idea, Fiona. They've got golf for me, and there's a pool. That'll keep Billy happy. What about you? There's tennis.
- Fiona: My leg still isn't right. I think tennis is a bit much for me, but Fred wants to try it again. He didn't like badminton the first time he tried that. I'll take some time out and just watch him – give him some advice.
- John: Keith will definitely want to try out his new boots to see if they can help him score more goals. What do you think Shona will want to do? Table tennis?
- Fiona: Er, she got upset when she lost her bat. So maybe not. Swimming with Billy?
- John: I think they need a break from each other. What about badminton with those other children?
- Fiona: That will probably be all right. She always wants to do something different from everybody else. But horse-riding is out! Do you remember what happened the last time?

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

That is the end of the test.

- Candidate A: I'm scared of snakes, so I don't think a snake is a good pet.
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Candidate A: I don't think a bird is a good pet, either. I think it's cruel to keep birds in a cage. Do you like birds as pets?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think having a dog is fun?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: You can take a dog anywhere with you. For example, you can play with it in the park or on the beach. You can throw things for it, like a ball, and you can have a lot of fun playing games with it.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think cats are fun?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these pets do you like the best?
- Candidate A: I like dogs the best.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these pets do you like the best?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, would you prefer a fish or a bird as a pet, Candidate B?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer a fish or a bird as a pet?
- Candidate A: I'm not sure. I think I'd prefer a fish. Some fish are beautiful, and you can spend hours watching them. And I think they are easier to look after than birds.
- Examiner: Do you think pets are good for children, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: Children can learn a lot from pets. They learn to look after them and they learn to be responsible.
- Examiner: Do you think pets are good for children, Candidate B?
- [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Now listen again.

2 What will they have for dinner?

- Woman: You aren't making sandwiches again for dinner, are you? We need to eat better than that!
- Man: I know, but I'm a terrible cook!
- Woman: Well, there's some fish in the fridge, we've got beans and potatoes ...
- Man: Oh, and here's a tin of tomato soup.
- Woman: No, I'm going to cook us a meal, and we can have the soup tomorrow.
- Man: Great.

Now listen again.

3 Where is Carla's tent?

- Man: Have you put your tent up yet, Carla?
Carla: Yes! It's a really beautiful campsite.
Man: It is. My tent is next to Max's. We're over there, by the river so we can go fishing early in the morning.
Carla: Lucky you! I couldn't find any spaces there or under the trees, so I'm next to Emma by the lake.

Now listen again.

4 What is Louis writing to his friend?

- Mel: You look busy, Louis. Are you writing a letter to your grandparents?
Louis: Oh, hi, Mel! No, nothing like that. I'm just writing to a friend in Singapore.
Mel: Isn't it easier to email him?
Louis: Yes, but I found this cool magazine and I know he'll like it. This is just a note to put in the envelope when I send it.

Now listen again.

5 What did Tom forget to bring to his last exam?

- Girl: Are you ready for the exam, Tom? I hope you've remembered to bring your pen. Not like the last exam!
Tom: Don't worry. Here it is, and I've also got a ruler and a pencil. I've left my calculator in my bag.
Girl: So did I. What a pity we can't use one for this exam!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 1.

You have ten seconds.

You will hear a student giving a presentation about Thomas Edison, the famous inventor.

- Man: Thomas Alva Edison was a famous American inventor. He was born on 11th February, 1847, the seventh child of Samuel and Nancy Edison. Thomas wasn't a good student and he left school after only a few months. But he was interested in science and technology from an early age, and he spent hours reading scientific books and making things. He moved to New York City in 1869, and he soon made a lot of money from his inventions – $40,000. In 1871, he married Mary Stilwell, and in 1876, he opened a laboratory in a village called Menlo Park. A lot of people worked for him and helped him with his inventions. His first great invention there was the phonograph, a machine that could record and play sound. He also invented an electric light bulb that people could use at home. His inventions made him very rich.

His wife died in 1884, but he married again in 1886. He and his second wife moved to West Orange, in New Jersey. There, Edison built another big laboratory and factories. He worked there until he died on the 18 October 1931.

You will hear Emma talking to her friend Fabio about a fashion show.

- Emma: Hi Fabio. Did you go to the college fashion show last week?
Fabio: Hi, Emma! Yes, I did! Did you?
Emma: Yes, I went with some friends, but I didn't see you there. Did you go alone?
Fabio: I was going to go with a friend from college, but he was busy, so I went with my cousin Anna. She's studying fashion design at university.
Emma: When did you go? We were there on Sunday.
Fabio: We actually went twice, once on Friday afternoon and then again on Saturday for the costume show.
Emma: I missed that one. The children's fashion show was interesting, but I didn't like the sports clothes one. My friend Melissa didn't like it, either. She said it was boring.
Fabio: That was Anna's opinion, too, but I thought all the shows were brilliant.
Emma: There's another exhibition next month: Beautiful Plastic. I'm making some earrings and a necklace for it, but people are also making bags, shoes, even clothes. All from plastic.
Fabio: That sounds interesting. I'll be there!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Track 25

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

- 16 You will hear two friends talking about an accident. What did Matt break?

Woman: Hey, Matt! What happened to you?!

Matt: I had a silly accident in the park. I wanted to show my little sister how to play rugby. I was running with the ball when a dog ran in front of me. I fell over him, he bit my leg, I crashed into a tree, banged my head, and broke my arm.

Woman: How terrible!

Matt: Actually, it was funny. As I said, it was a silly accident.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear two people talking about some keys. Where did the man leave them?

Woman: Come on, Mark. We're going to be late!

Mark: I can't find the car keys. They aren't in the hall.

Woman: Have you looked under the sofa? You took your coat off in here last night. Maybe they fell out of your pocket.

Mark: I'll look now.

Woman: Oh, don't bother. Here they are, next to the fridge. You probably put them here when you got the milk out for breakfast.

Now listen again.

18 You will hear two friends talking in a restaurant. What does the woman decide to eat?

Man: I haven't been to this restaurant before. It looks nice. What are you going to have?

Woman: I'm not sure. Maybe a salad.

Man: I'm too hungry for a salad, but the pizzas look amazing!

Woman: Yes, they do, and the cheeseburgers look delicious, but I think I'll go with my first idea. I'd like a glass of lemonade, too.

Now listen again.

19 You will hear a man talking to a friend about his grandparents. What are they doing this weekend?

Woman: So, what are you doing this weekend?

Man: Visiting my grandparents. They're having a party.

Woman: That's nice. Is it someone's birthday?

Man: No, Grandad was 72 in October. This is to meet their new neighbours. They moved to a new house last weekend.

Woman: Did you help them move?

Man: Yes, and my brother and sister helped too.

Now listen again.

20 You will hear a woman talking to a friend about going to the airport. How will she get there?

Woman: My flight is at eight, but the first bus comes at six. It takes more than an hour, so that's too late. ... I'd love to book one, but it's expensive, and anyway, there will be a lot of traffic on the road at that hour. ... Yes, you're right. I'll ask Dad to drive me to the railway station. He won't be happy, though.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 4.

Part 5

Track 26

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear Max talking to Ellie about a barbecue.

What will each person bring?

Max: What time is everyone arriving for the barbecue, Ellie?

Ellie: I told them to come around 2 p.m. I've made meat burgers, and there are vegetable burgers, too, for the vegetarians.

Max: Good idea.

Ellie: George is bringing ice cream and cakes. We all like to eat something sweet after lunch.

Max: I can bring a few melons from the market. It's good to have a healthy option.

Ellie: Thanks, Max, but you don't need to buy any fruit. Jack says he'll bring some strawberries from his mum's garden. But perhaps you can make some lemonade – with real lemons. We can put it on ice so it's nice and cold. Oh, and maybe some orange juice, too?

Max: No problem! I'll do that. What about Sophie?

Ellie: She said she can bring a curry or some salads. I love curry, but on a hot day people prefer something nice and cool!

Max: OK, so what's Oscar bringing?

Ellie: Nothing, but he's going to cook the burgers on the barbecue.

Max: We should also have some sausages. Everyone loves them.

Ellie: OK. I'll ask Oscar to bring some.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

That is the end of the test.

TEST 4 SPEAKING

Part 1

Track 27

Examiner: Good morning.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?

I'm Lucy Clarke. And this is Richard Norton.

What's your name, Candidate A?

Candidate A: My name's Ling Li.

Examiner: And what's your name, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Where do you come from, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?

Candidate A: I'm a student.

Examiner: Where do you come from?

Candidate A: I come from Beijing in China.

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about health and exercise.

Candidate A, what do you do to stay healthy?

Candidate A: I play badminton with my friends once a week and I also walk my dog in the park every morning. I try to eat lots of healthy food, like fruit and vegetables.

Examiner: Do you get sick often?

Candidate A: No, I don't get sick very often, usually a couple of times a year.

Examiner: Candidate B, how often do you exercise?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: When was the last time you had to go to the doctor, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me what you usually do when you don't feel well.

Candidate A: I usually stay at home and rest. I either stay in bed or lie on the sofa and watch TV. I try to drink lots of water and my mum makes me soup.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about technology. Candidate B, what types of technology do you use every day?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: What other technology is important to you in your everyday life, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, is there a type of technology you couldn't live without?

Candidate A: Yes, my digital camera. I study photography at college, so I take my camera with me everywhere. I have a camera on my mobile phone, too, of course, but I don't use it for my photography work.

Examiner: How do you prefer to search for information when you are studying?

Candidate A: I use the internet if I want to find something quickly, but I also go to the library and look for old photographs in books, magazines and journals.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me if there is a time when you prefer not to use technology.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Part 2

Track 28

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.

Here are some pictures that show different types of entertainment. Do you like these different types of entertainment? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.

Do you like these different types of entertainment? Say why or why not.

All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I like going to the cinema to watch the latest films. How about you?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Why do you like that?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I like watching films because it's a good way to forget about your everyday life and worries for a few hours. Sometimes when I'm studying I need a break, so I go to the cinema with my friends and it helps me relax for a while.

Examiner: Candidate A, do you think going to an art exhibition is fun?

Candidate A: Yes, I think it is. It's also interesting to see different types of art. Painting is one of my hobbies, and I sometimes go to art galleries to get ideas for my own work.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think going to the theatre is a pleasant way to spend an evening?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these types of entertainment do you like the least?

Candidate A: Well, I don't really like playing video games. I think they're boring and it isn't good for you to sit in front of a screen for many hours and not get any exercise.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these types of entertainment do you like the least?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, do you prefer spending time with your friends and family or on your own, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A?
Do you prefer spending time with your friends and family or on your own?

Candidate A: Sometimes it's nice to do things with other people because it's more fun to do things together. And they can help you if you have any problems. But sometimes I also like to be by myself and read books or paint.

Examiner: Do you prefer indoor entertainment or having fun outdoors, Candidate A?

Candidate A: I prefer indoor entertainment, like going to the cinema, but I also enjoy going out and meeting new people. I meet lots of people like me when I go to art galleries.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Do you prefer entertainment inside or having fun outdoors?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Track 29

Key English Test, Listening

There are five parts to the test. You will hear each piece twice.

We will now stop for a moment.

Please ask any questions now, because you must not speak during the test.

1 What will they buy Timmy for his birthday?

Man: Timmy's birthday is next week! Shall we get him those football boots he wants?

Woman: He's also asking for jeans ... and a shirt.

Man: He can't have everything! What about asking your parents to give him the boots?

Woman: OK, so we could get the jeans and a shirt.

Man: Just the jeans. There're quite expensive. He can wait for the shirt.

Woman: OK.

Now listen again.

2 What time will they meet?

Ted: Would you like to meet for a coffee later?

Ella: OK. What about eleven?

Ted: Eleven? My doctor's appointment is at ten. That should take about thirty minutes.

Ella: Well, if you come out at half past ten, you've got half an hour to get to the café.

Ted: OK, that should be fine.

Ella: Great. See you then. Usual place.

Now listen again.

3 Where will they go skiing?

Man: ... France has lots of places for skiing

Woman: France? Again! We were there last year. What about a change. Italy? Or Poland? I hear that's cheap.

Man: But France has the best skiing. And I want to use my French.

Woman: If you let me choose the hotel, then OK. If not, then I say Italy.

Man: Agreed. You can choose where we stay.

Now listen again.

4 How will the friends travel?

Man: Shall we get a taxi?

Woman: The last time I tried that I waited for half an hour.

Man: Let's take the car then.

Woman: It's difficult to park in town. Let's jump on a bus.

Man: But there aren't many around at this time of day.

Woman: So what about driving after all? We just have to hope we find a space.

Man: Fine.

Now listen again.

5 How much will the woman pay for the bicycle?

Woman: How much do you want for the bicycle?

Man: Fifty pounds.

Woman: I'm sorry, that's too expensive. Will you take forty?

Man: I won't sell it if I can't get fifty pounds for it.

Woman: I can't afford fifty. Forty-five pounds is my last offer.

Man: That's no good.

Woman: OK, you win! But forty-five pounds would be fairer. Now give me the bike.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 1.

Part 2

Track 30

Now look at Part 2.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time. Look at questions 6-10 now.

You have ten seconds.

You will hear a speaker giving information about a skiing trip.

Woman: Thanks for coming today and showing interest in the skiing trip. Now, I'm going to give you some details. This year we're going to Italy.

The trip starts on the second of January and lasts for ten days, so we'll be away until the twelfth of January. I'm pleased to say that this year trip will be a bit less expensive than last year, when it was £775. The price has come down £45 to £730, and that's because the hotel is cheaper.

That price includes breakfast, the evening meal, the cost of renting skis and ski clothes, and the ski lifts. But you'll need to pay for your own lunch. That's not included, and drinks aren't, either.

There are lessons every morning. The cost is included in the price of the holiday. If you're a beginner, I strongly advise you to take these lessons so that you learn good skiing techniques. Right, are there any questions?

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

Part 3

Track 31

Now look at Part 3.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have twenty seconds.

You will hear Nigel talking to his friend Elizabeth about his course at university.

Elizabeth: Hi Nigel. How's your course?

Nigel: OK, I think. It's harder than I expected but I've got some friends who are doing the same course. I'm glad because we help each other study. But there's no spare time left for my other friends! My best friends are doing other courses.

Elizabeth: Jenny does Business too, doesn't she?

Nigel: Yes. We're working on a project together. But it's only us and Pete at the moment. We need another person in our group.

Elizabeth: What do you have to do in the project?

Nigel: We have to start a company and make money!

Elizabeth: Doing what?

Nigel: We still haven't decided. I'm interested in selling something, maybe through the student shop.

Elizabeth: What sort of thing?

Nigel: Maybe something students use, like pens, notebooks, bags. Jenny's talking about food or drink, but I'm not interested.

Elizabeth: Maybe you should think about it for a few days. You might have clearer ideas then. Selling things to students is hard – they don't have much money, so it must be something that they really want!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Part 4

Track 32

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16 You will hear a woman talking to a friend about an experience. Where did she go?

Woman: It was fantastic! Really! And the story was so exciting. We were close to the stage so we had a great view. The costumes were amazing. I've never been to one before. It's quite hard to follow what's going on because there's only singing, so you have to pay attention.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a man and a woman talking. Where has the man been?

Woman: Oh, you're back. Did you have a good time?

Man: Well, Barney fell into the water and got wet, so then he wanted to come home.

Woman: Is he OK? How did that happen?

Man: He wasn't careful! I told him he was too close to the water. And we didn't catch anything either.

Woman: Oh, that's a pity.

Now listen again.

18 What will they have for breakfast?

Woman: Do you want some cereal for breakfast?

Man: Cereal? We need something to keep us going all day. We can't stop for lunch. What about some eggs, toast and mushrooms?

Woman: Eggs, then, with toast. Mushrooms take too long, and we need to leave soon.

Man: OK, but I'm having a big cooked breakfast tomorrow with eggs, mushrooms, toast and cereal.

Now listen again.

19 You will hear two friends talking. What did Karen want to buy?

Man: Did you get everything you wanted, Karen?

Karen: Nearly. I couldn't find a blouse I liked. I tried on one or two.

Man: Did you try that shop we saw yesterday? Next to the book shop?

Karen: Yes, I did, but they didn't have anything I liked. So I bought a book instead. Then we had a nice lunch – bread and soup.

Man: Good.

Now listen again.

20 You will hear two friends talking. What new piece of furniture has David got?

Woman: Oh, that's nice, David.

David: Do you like it?

Woman: It goes really well in this room.

David: Well, it'll be useful when I invite lots of people to my new flat. We can all sit down together.

Woman: You can have dinner parties!

David: It's big enough for six people. I just need more chairs now.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 4.

Part 5

Track 33

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear Paul and Donna talking about summer jobs. What job does each person have?

Paul: Have you got a job for the summer, Donna?

Donna: Yes, I'm going to work for my parents, serving customers. I'll probably also have to help with the washing-up in the kitchen.

Paul: That'll keep you busy!

Donna: Yes, but it'll be fun.

Paul: What about Clare and Kevin? Have they got jobs?

Donna: Clare's doing her usual job in the countryside – picking fruit and looking after the animals. And Kevin's going to work at his uncle's hotel.

Paul: Again? I wouldn't like to tidy people's rooms and empty their bins! Poor Kevin!

Donna: What about you, Paul?

Paul: I'm back at the language school this summer. We've got some French teenagers arriving on Saturday for an English course.

Donna: Do you know what the others are doing? Tony and Katherine?

Paul: Tony's going to Rome for the summer. His parents have got a small hotel there.

Donna: So he'll be working as a receptionist?

Paul: He usually does. But this year he's going to show tourists around the sights of Rome. You know how he loves talking! And Katherine will be at her local newspaper again, writing articles. What a great job!

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

That is the end of the test.

TEST 5 SPEAKING

Part 1

Track 34

Examiner: Good afternoon.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?

I'm David Wheeler and this is Brenda Jones.

What's your name please, Candidate A?

Examiner: And what's your name please, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Where do you live, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?

Candidate A: I work.

Examiner: Where do you live?

Candidate A: I live in Alfama, south of the city centre.

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about food.

Candidate A, what is your favourite food?

Candidate A: I love my mother's food. She's a very good cook.

Examiner: What do you eat in the morning?

Candidate A: I usually have a cup of coffee with milk. I also have some toast with ham and cheese.

Examiner: Candidate B, what can you cook?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And Candidate B what do you like to eat when you go to a restaurant?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me what you eat at home on a special day.

Candidate A: On special days I sit down with my family and we eat together. We always have a bean dish – we call it feijoada – with meat and fish. There is rice and bread to go with it.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about shopping.

Candidate B, what kind of shopping do you like?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Who do you go shopping with, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, do you prefer small local shops or big shops when you go shopping?

Candidate A: I prefer going to the shopping centre with big shops.

Examiner: How often do you go shopping?

Candidate A: Not very often. I don't like it very much. I prefer to do other things.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about going shopping when you need clothes. Where do you go?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Track 35

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together. Here are some pictures that show different presents for a teenager. Do you like these different presents? Say why or why not. I'll say that again. Do you like these different presents for a teenager? Say why or why not. All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I think a bicycle is a very good present. It's healthy for young people to go out on their bike. What do you think?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I think a laptop is a really good idea for a present for a teenager. I think a teenager would be very happy to get one. Do you agree?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: A mobile phone is a good present for an older teenager, but for a younger one, it might not be a good idea.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Now books, ... Hmm. I think a young teenager might think it's boring to get books.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: You're right. Now, a guitar. I think learning a musical instrument is a fun thing to do, so a guitar is a good idea for a present.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, do you think a bicycle might be a dangerous present?

Candidate A: Not really. If you are careful, then a bike is OK, but I think you should have lessons on how to cycle safely.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think some people might think a laptop is not a good present?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these presents do you think is the best for a teenager?

Candidate A: I think a bicycle is the best present.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these presents do you think is the best?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, would you prefer a laptop or a mobile phone as a present, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer books or a guitar for a present?

Candidate A: I'd prefer a guitar. I can get books from the library, but I've never played a musical instrument, and I'd like to try.

Examiner: Do you like cycling, Candidate A?

Candidate A: Yes, I do.

Examiner: Why?

Candidate A: It's quick and easy to get somewhere. But it's not good if it's raining.

Examiner: Do you like reading, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

1 Where were the sunglasses the last time Mark saw them?

Woman: Mark, have you seen my sunglasses?

Mark: You had them on Saturday at the beach. They were in your backpack.

Woman: I've looked. They aren't there.
 Mark: What about on your desk? You often put things there.
 Woman: Good idea. I'll look now.
 Mark: Oh, and look on the bookcase, too. Maybe you put them there with your keys.

Now listen again.

2 Where did the man see the ad for the concert?

Man: Hey, Sandy, are you going to the concert in the park this year?
 Sandy: I haven't heard anything about a concert!
 Man: That's strange. Tina usually puts ads about local events on the noticeboard.
 Sandy: I'd love to go. Where can we get tickets?
 Man: The ad in the newspaper this morning said we can get them online.
 Sandy: Great. I can't wait.

Now listen again.

3 Who is Simon?

Woman: Thanks for coming to the party, David.
 David: It's nice to be here!
 Woman: Come and meet my brother Simon. He's over there.
 David: Is he the guy with the dark hair and the blue jacket?
 Woman: No, that's my cousin Max. My brother is the one with the dark hair and shirt talking to the tall man with the glasses.
 David: I'll go and say hi.

Now listen again.

4 What job does the woman want help with?

Man: Tanya, do you need any help? I can wash the dirty dishes for you.
 Tanya: Don't worry. I've already put them in the dishwasher.
 Man: How about if I cut up those vegetables next to the cooker?
 Tanya: Ah, great, that would be a big help. Thank you! And the kids can put away the dishes when they come out of the dishwasher.

Now listen again.

5 When might the next bus arrive?

Woman: Excuse me, what time is the next bus?
 Man: It usually comes at twenty-five past three, but the buses are running about twenty minutes late today.
 Woman: Really? So it will be here at quarter to four ... I need to be at the dentist at four.
 Man: Maybe you should take a taxi.
 Woman: I will. It takes about half an hour to get to the dentist by bus.

You will hear a tour guide talking about a boat tour in Venice.

Woman: Welcome aboard! Before we begin our tour, let me tell you a few things about this beautiful city. Venice is built on a number of islands in the Adriatic Sea. No one knows the exact number, but we think there are 118. Between the islands there are 150 canals. Today we are going to travel along the Grand Canal, the city's busiest canal. It's also the longest: almost four kilometres long! You won't see any cars, of course, but there will be lots of different boats. We will pass under four bridges, but there are many more in the city. Venice has 391 bridges, and most of them are very beautiful. You should try and see some of them while you are here. Our boat trip today will take about thirty minutes. We will go past many of the city's famous churches, museums and palaces. We will even go past the fish market! Now, please be seated and we will begin our tour ... [fade]

You will hear Lisa talking to her friend Robin about finding a place to live.

Robin: Where are you going to live while you are at university, Lisa? I'm not sure.
 Lisa: It isn't easy, is it, Robin? A secretary I spoke to told me about some university flats, but I'd also like to look online and visit some other places.
 Robin: What does the university offer?
 Lisa: There are 20 flats in an apartment building in the city centre. Four students share a flat. But I'm not sure about it. It's nine kilometres from the university. And what if I don't like the other students in the flat?
 Robin: What else is there?

Lisa: Two buildings near the university: Howard House and Morgan House. Howard House is more expensive, but there's a canteen, and the price includes meals. Morgan House is cheaper, but you only pay for your room.

Robin: So there's no canteen in Morgan House?

Lisa: That's right. But on each floor, there's a kitchen and four bathrooms – oh, and there are 25 students on each floor.

Robin: So which one do you think is better: Howard House or Morgan House?

Lisa: Well, they sound good, but I want to see them and meet the students who live there.

Robin: Right, because what do you do if you don't like them!

Lisa: That could be a problem ...

16 You will hear two friends talking about the weather. What is the weather going to be like tomorrow?

Man: Do you think it will be warmer tomorrow? I'm so tired of all this rain.

Woman: Yes, I know. I can't wait until summer. It doesn't look sunny on the weather app, and the wind will be quite strong. And it's going to be rainy again at the weekend.

Man: Oh well, at least it won't be wet tomorrow!

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a man talking to a friend on the phone. Why is he angry?

Man: You won't believe it! You know the suit I wore to the meeting last week? I took it to the dry cleaner's and they said they could clean it in an hour, so I went to a café to wait. When I returned, I paid and came home. But when I looked carefully at the suit, it was still dirty! I paid a lot of money for nothing!

Now listen again.

18 You will hear a woman talking to her friend about work. Why is she unhappy?

Man: Do you have any holidays planned, Michelle?

Michelle: No, unfortunately. I have to work on Saturday and Sunday twice this month, and I'm not pleased about that.

Man: So, how many hours a week are you working now?

Michelle: About 20 hours, but I also work a couple of evenings in the week.

Now listen again.

19 You will hear a man talking to his friend about where he lives. What does he say about it?

Woman: Where do you live now, Chris?

Chris: On the other side of town. I share a house with two other people.

Woman: Do you like it there?

Chris: Yes and no. I need thirty minutes to cycle here in the morning – the traffic is terrible.

Woman: So why did you move far from work?

Chris: The city centre was too noisy for me.

Now listen again.

20 You will hear two friends talking about a sports centre. Which sport is the woman going to do?

Man: So, are you going to become a member of the sports centre?

Woman: Yes. Actually, I joined last week. I was quite good at football at school, and I'd love to play with the local team here. But maybe I'll try another ball game, too.

Man: How about volleyball or tennis?

Woman: I've never tried them, but I'll think about it.

Now listen again.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear Charlie talking to his friend Evie about visiting his family. What gift did he buy for each person?

Evie: When are you going home, Charlie?

Charlie: Tomorrow, and I've bought everyone a gift. Look!

Evie: Who are these for?

Charlie: Granny. Her hands get cold in the winter, and these will keep them nice and warm.

Evie: Is the scarf for her, too?

Charlie: No, that's for Grandad. I also got him this – he needs a new one. He lost his wallet last month.

Evie: Nice ... What did you get your mum?

Charlie: I bought her these earrings ... and this bracelet.

Evie: Oh, Charlie, they're beautiful!

Charlie: They're a special gift because it's her birthday tomorrow.

Evie: What about your dad?

Charlie: I got him this. Everyone else in my family listens to music on their phones, but not Dad. He'll also enjoy listening to the news on it in the mornings.

 Evie: And your brother?
 Charlie: Oh, he's football mad. I was going to get him a football shirt, but then I saw this. It's a history of his team and there are some great photos in it.
 Evie: What about your sister?
 Charlie: This. It's bigger than her school bag and she can put all her books and lots of things in it.
 Evie: I love the colours.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.
 That is the end of the test.

 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Part 2

Track 42

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
 Here are some pictures that show different outdoor activities.
 Do you like these different outdoor activities? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
 Do you like these different outdoor activities? Say why or why not.
 All right? Now, talk together.
 Candidate A: I like a few of these. I like to be active and go outside with my friends so I've done many of these activities. How about you?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Candidate A: Do you ever have picnics in the park?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Candidate A: I really enjoy having picnics and eating outside with my family or friends. We usually take food with us in a basket when we go walking in the countryside. When we find a nice place, we sit and eat our food.

Examiner: Candidate A, do you think skateboarding is difficult?

Candidate A: Yes, I think it is. I tried skateboarding when I was younger, but I kept falling off. I think that if you don't wear safety clothes, you could hurt yourself.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think swimming in a lake is dangerous?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, what do you think of music festivals?

Candidate A: I don't like them. They're noisy and there are too many people. I prefer going to concerts indoors.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, do you think going to music festivals is fun?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, which of these activities do you like best?

Candidate A: I think swimming in the lake is the best outdoor activity because it's good exercise. I enjoy swimming and I love to be close to nature.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these activities do you like best?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, do you prefer being by the sea or in the mountains, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I prefer being in the mountains because there is lots of fresh air. I enjoy hiking and exploring the forests and looking at wildlife.

Examiner: Is it better to do sports alone or with other people, Candidate A?

Candidate A: I think it's better to do sports with other people. I like playing team sports because it's more fun to work together to win. I think it's important to spend time with other people.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Is it better to do sports alone or with other people?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?

Man: What time shall I pick you up?

Woman: I've got a late meeting. I won't be finished until six o'clock.

Man: Six? I'll have to wait for half an hour. Can't you leave earlier? At five thirty?

Woman: I could probably leave at quarter to six. Can you wait for 15 minutes?

Man: OK. I might not be there by five thirty, anyway.

Now listen again.

2 Where will they meet?

Man: Where do you want to meet, Anne?

Woman: How about outside the cinema?

Man: But the weather's terrible. Let's meet inside somewhere. I might be late.

Woman: OK, what about the shopping centre next door? You can park the car in the car park there.

Man: Good idea.

Woman: OK, then. Just inside the main entrance.

Now listen again.

3 What sort of holiday will they go on?

Man: We could go to the beach for a few days.

Woman: Or something a bit different. Helen was telling me about her cycling holiday.

Man: Cycling? I cycle quite a lot at home.

Woman: Or sailing. I saw an advertisement for a sailing holiday in Turkey.

Man: You know I don't like boats. I prefer bikes to boats.

Woman: OK, let's do that, then.

Now listen again.

4 What musical instrument will she learn to play?

Woman: I think I'm going to learn the piano.

Man: You can practise on mine. But it's a bit old.

Woman: Thanks!

Man: I've got a guitar too, if you want to use it.

Man: I love the violin. Why don't you try again?

Woman: I want something easier.

Now listen again.

5 What date is the man's appointment with the dentist?

Woman: Can you come on the fourteenth?
 Man: Yes, but only after two o'clock.

 Woman: All day?
 Man: Yes.
 Woman: How about eleven o'clock in the morning?
 Man: Perfect.

Part 2

Track 44

Now look at Part 2.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time. Look at questions 6–10 now.

You have ten seconds.

You will hear a speaker giving information to university students about evening language classes.

Woman: Welcome to the University Language Centre. I'd like to give you some basic information about our evening language classes.
 We offer evening classes in English, Italian, French, Russian and Spanish. Classes are in the afternoons or evenings, and they start in the first week of October. Courses are six weeks long, so they end in the middle of November. The English courses are free, but the other language courses cost £80. If you want to learn more than one language, you get a 20% discount, so your second course will cost you just £64.
 There are courses for beginners as well as for more advanced students. Most courses have lessons three times a week, but English courses have four lessons a week, so 24 lessons in total. You don't need to buy any books, but we suggest that all students should bring a notebook and a pen or pencil to classes. Now, any questions?

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

Part 3

Track 45

Now look at Part 3.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have twenty seconds.

Debbie: Hi Paul. How's your new job?
 Paul: Hi Debbie. Really good. My new colleagues are fun to work with.
 Debbie: Do you miss your old colleagues?
 Paul: Well, that was the problem with my old job. I almost never saw anyone else.
 Debbie: I expect it's a big change. What are you doing now?
 Paul: I'm in the office. When customers come in, I give them some documents to complete, check their driving licence, answer any questions, take their money, and give them the keys for the car they're renting.
 Debbie: Is it a difficult job?
 Paul: No, the job is simple. But when there are a lot of customers and people have to wait for their car, they can get angry.
 Debbie: How many people work there?
 Paul: There are six of us in the office. Then there are nine people who work outside, getting the cars ready, making sure they've got petrol, showing customers how things work, ...
 Debbie: It sounds better than your last job.
 Paul: It is. I don't make as much money now, but that's because I'm new. But soon I'll be earning more than I was.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Part 4

Track 46

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16 You will hear a woman talking about her day. Where did she go?

Woman: I had a lovely afternoon on my own. You know what it's like – on a weekday there's almost no one else there. I spent a long time just sitting and looking at one old painting. It was so quiet! I wrote my name in the visitors' book and said how much I enjoyed it.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a man talking. What has he lost?

Man: I can't believe it! I parked my car late last night in the rain and I didn't notice the name of the street. I couldn't find it today until I had looked for it for 30 minutes! Then my money and my keys were missing. My money was in my coat pocket, but I don't know about my keys.

Now listen again.

18 You will hear two friends talking. What will they do this afternoon?

Woman: Would you like to watch the football game?

Man: We could, but everyone knows who will win. What about a game of tennis?
 Woman: But it looks like rain! I'd like to watch the game.
 Man: Or we could watch that film we were talking about?
 Woman: If you agree to the football, we can watch the film another time.
 Man: OK, then.
Now listen again.

19 You will hear two friends talking. What will they have for dinner?

Man: Shall we get a pizza?
 Woman: Didn't we have one a few nights ago?
 Man: Or fish and chips?
 Woman: The fish and chip shop is closed on Tuesdays. We haven't had a curry for a long time.
 Man: I don't like hot food. We have pizza often because we like it.
 Woman: All right, but it's curry or fish and chips the next time!

Now listen again.

20 You will hear a man talking in a shop. What is he looking at?

Woman: Can I help you sir?
 Man: Yes, I'm interested in this. The sound is good, but do you have one with a bigger screen?
 Woman: The bigger ones are over here.
 Man: I like that one. That would be good for watching things on.
 Woman: Yes, it's a popular model. And it has more memory than the one here.

Dean: It's Sunday already! Let's plan our last week.
 Kylie: Well, we can go to the museum tomorrow.
 Dean: Yes, and on Tuesday we could do something for the children. They'd love to see all the baby animals, especially the elephants.
 Kylie: Good idea. And they want to visit Aqualand too.
 Dean: Let's keep that for Saturday.

Kylie: So what about looking around the old town on Wednesday? We can join a group and there will be someone to show us around and tell us about the history of the place.

Dean: Yeah, OK. And I really want to go shopping.

Kylie: OK, but let's look around before we buy anything.

Dean: Good idea. Well, on Thursday, we could go on a boat trip, or visit the palace or go to the fish market.

Kylie: We can't do all those things, but I'd love to look at all the seafood for sale.

Dean: Yes, that would be fun.

Kylie: And then on Friday we can buy gifts for the neighbours ... and I saw some lovely jewellery...

Dean: And the kids can go swimming on Saturday.

Kylie: Done!

Now listen again.

Examiner: Good morning.
 Can I have your mark sheets, please?
 I'm Jack Rider. And this is Linda Smith.
 Candidate A, what's your name, please?

Candidate A: My name's Chiara Bianchi.

Examiner: And Candidate B, what's your name, please?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Where do you live, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?

Candidate A: I'm a student.

Examiner: Where do you live?

Candidate A: I also live in Naples. In Soccavo, in the west of the city.

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about the weather. Candidate A, what is the weather like in the summer where you live?

Candidate A: It's really hot in Naples in the summer. It's often over 31 or 32 degrees, so you can't stay in the sun for a long time.

Examiner: What about the winter?
 Candidate A: It doesn't often get very cold, and it almost never snows.
 Examiner: Candidate B, what sort of weather do you like?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: What do you do when the weather is good, Candidate B?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me what sort of weather you don't like.
 Candidate A: I don't like it when it rains. I hate getting wet. It's worse when it's windy as well. Then you can't use an umbrella and everything gets wet. When my hair gets wet, it looks terrible!
 Examiner: Now, let's talk about school. Candidate B, what was your school like?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: What was your favourite subject, Candidate B?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Candidate A, what did you like about your school?
 Candidate A: We had a friendly head teacher. She helped everyone to do their best.
 Examiner: Was there anything you didn't like about your school?
 Candidate A: We always had a lot of homework and I didn't like doing it, especially at the weekend and in the evenings.
 Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about a good teacher that you can remember from school.
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Part 2

Track 49

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
 Here are some pictures that show different jobs.
 Do you like these different jobs? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
 Do you like these different jobs? Say why or why not.
 All right? Now, talk together.
 Candidate A: I think a teacher is a good job because you can help young children learn. This is very important. What do you think about being a teacher?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: What do you think about being a cook?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Candidate A: I agree. But I think a dentist is a good job and it's also useful. Everybody needs dentists.
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Candidate A: I'm not sure about a firefighter. What do you think about that?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Candidate A: The last job is a mechanic. I don't think I'd like to be one. It's a hard job and you get very dirty when you work with cars all day.
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Candidate A, do you think being a dentist is interesting?
 Candidate A: Yes, I do.
 Examiner: Why?
 Candidate A: You meet different people. Also, everybody's teeth are different, so you see something different every day. It's never boring.
 Examiner: Candidate B, do you think being a cook is interesting?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these jobs do you like the best?
 Candidate A: I think being a dentist is the best job.
 Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these jobs do you like the best?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Thank you.
 Examiner: Now, Candidate B, which job do you think is better, a mechanic or a firefighter?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
 [PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
 Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Which job do you think is better, a cook or a firefighter?
 Candidate A: I think a cook is a better job than a firefighter. A cook can sometimes prepare new dishes. When you are a firefighter, you have to be ready to go to work at any time because a fire can start in the middle of the night.
 Examiner: Which job do you think is the worst job, Candidate A?
 Candidate A: Being a mechanic.
 Examiner: Why?
 Candidate A: I don't think it's interesting and you get very dirty.

Examiner: What do you think is the worst job,
Candidate B?
[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]
Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Man: We always have fruit. What about something nice, like cake?

Woman: Cake! We had cake yesterday. I can't eat more cake.

Man: OK, OK, you're right. Sandwiches will fill me up. If I just have fruit, I'll be hungry later.

Woman: All right.

Now listen again.

3 What will they take to hospital for Jemima?

Woman: We must take something when we visit Jemima in hospital.

Man: People usually take flowers.

Woman: They're boring. Why not get her a book? Then she could do some reading.

Man: But she'll have her own book. What about some chocolates?

Woman: I don't think she can eat much. Let's go with your first idea. They'll look pretty in her room.

Now listen again.

4 Where does Alex live?

Woman: How do we get to your house, Alex?

Alex: Go up the High Street, past the post office. Take the first turning on your left. My house is on the right-hand side of the road. You can't miss it.

Woman: I get my left and right mixed up! Turn right after the post office?

Alex: Left after the post office. Then cross the road to get to my house.

Now listen again.

5 How much will Nicola pay for her hotel room?

Nicola: Can I book a room for two for Friday and Saturday night, please?

Man: We have one with a king-size bed for £350.

Nicola: That's rather expensive.

Man: Or with a queen-size bed for £315. Or a room with two single beds for £279.

Nicola: Two single beds for £279?

Man: Yes.

Nicola: I'll take the one with the queen-size bed, please.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 1.

Part 2

Track 51

Now look at Part 2.

For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time. Look at questions 6-10 now.

You have ten seconds.

You will hear a speaker giving information at the start of a coach trip to London.

Woman: Good morning, everyone. My name's Michaela and I'm going to give you some information about our trip today.

It takes two hours to get to London, so that means that you will have from ten fifteen until quarter to five to look around the city. We have to leave at that time as the traffic gets very bad after five o'clock.

I know some of you want to go shopping, and the new Kings and Queens shopping centre on Bristol Street is now open. You can get a 15% discount in the shops there. I know it's not as good as the 20% we got last year, but I think you'll agree it's better than nothing. The staff there just need to see your coach ticket and they'll give you your discount.

Please be careful with your wallets and purses! The streets and shops are crowded on Saturdays, and that's a chance for pickpockets to steal things.

If you have any problems, my mobile number is 0777-5819-236. That's 0777-5819-236.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 2.

Part 3

Track 52

Now look at Part 3.

For each question, choose the correct answer. Look at questions 11–15 now. You have twenty seconds.

You will hear Vivien and Tom talking about their meals last night.

- Vivien: Hi Tom.
 Tom: Hi Vivien. How was your meal last night?
 Vivien: Actually, it didn't go too well. Firstly, we couldn't get around the table. We'd booked for six people, but eight came.
 Tom: Oh dear!
 Vivien: Then they didn't have anything for Monica to eat.
 Tom: She doesn't eat meat or fish, does she?
 Vivien: That's right. She's a vegetarian. She wasn't happy! Then they brought Mark the wrong dish. He ordered steak but they brought him chicken, so he sent it back, and then he had to wait again for his steak. What about your meal?
 Tom: The food was delicious, especially the dessert. Everything was perfect – until the bill arrived.
 Vivien: Was it expensive?
 Tom: Well, it was quite expensive, but we knew that from before. The problem was they gave us the bill for a different table. It took half an hour for them to fix the problem! In the end, they gave us a discount because of all the problems with the bill.
 Vivien: Well, that's something at least.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 3.

Part 4

Track 53

Now look at Part 4.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

16 You will hear two friends talking. Why can't the man play football this afternoon?

- Woman: So, are you playing football this afternoon?
 Man: I can't.
 Woman: Don't tell me. It's your foot again, isn't it?
 Man: It's true I had problems with my foot, but it's fine now. And my boss said I could leave work early to play. The trouble is I've got really bad toothache, so I'm going to see the dentist about that.

Now listen again.

17 You will hear a man talking. What animal did he see at the zoo?

- Man: It was just so beautiful. I watched it while it was eating. Those big teeth! I wouldn't like to be near it if it was hungry! That golden fur with the black stripes is fantastic. It must be really difficult to see it in the forest. And those yellow eyes! Just ... beautiful!

Now listen again.

18 You will hear two friends talking. Where have they been?

- Woman: I can't believe it! They didn't have anything we wanted!
 Man: I know! I was sure they'd have some of the things on our list.
 Woman: Maybe we can find them online.
 Man: Maybe, but I hate reading on a screen all the time.
 Woman: Me too. Let's try the big one in the city centre tomorrow.

Now listen again.

19 You will hear a woman talking. Where does her friend live?

- Woman: I had a lovely time with Aneka. She's got a lovely place. You wouldn't know that you were in the middle of a city, it's so quiet. Her street has a village feel to it – everyone knows everyone. Then we went off to the seaside on Saturday. It took a while to get there, but it was great fun.

Now listen again.

20 You will hear two friends talking about cooking dinner. What will the man do?

- Woman: You have to help me!
 Man: I always do!
 Woman: Not just the easy things. The hard work is washing and cutting the vegetables. Cooking them is easy.
 Man: But I'm good at cooking.
 Woman: Well, I'm not cutting them this time.
 Man: OK, I'll do that. You do the rest.
 Woman: Fine.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 4.

Part 5

Track 54

Now look at Part 5.

For each question, choose the correct answer.

Look at Questions 21 to 25 now.

You have 15 seconds.

You will hear two people talking about their families. What activities do their children like?

- Woman: So, what kind of things do your children like doing?
 Man: George loves books. He reads anything.

Woman: I wish Henry did! Henry spends all his time in front of a computer screen. I keep telling him to go outside, but he doesn't listen.

Man: Edward was like that, but he's changed. He's on the school chess team now!

Woman: That's great!

Man: Yes, he loves games like chess, but he doesn't do much exercise.

Woman: And Annabel?

Man: She's the musician of the family. She plays in a band with some friends. They make a terrible noise! Luckily, they don't practise at our house.

Woman: She sounds very different to my Sophie.

Man: Is she the dancer?

Woman: You're getting Ellie and Sophie mixed up. Sophie is the one who loves painting. She loves going to see shows with the very modern stuff, and she draws quite well herself. Ellie is the one who's always practising in her bedroom. I can hear her jumping around, and she sometimes bumps into the furniture!

Man: We can't get any of them to do things with us.

Woman: Same here! Not even Henry.

Now listen again.

That is the end of Part 5. You now have six minutes to write your answers on the answer sheet.

That is the end of the test.

TEST 8 SPEAKING

Part 1

Track 55

Examiner: Good afternoon.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?
I'm Anita Hill. And this is Mark Flock.
Candidate A, what's your name, please?

Candidate A: My name's Emir Yilmaz.

Examiner: And Candidate B, what's your name, please?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And where do you live, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?

Candidate A: I'm a student.

Examiner: Where do you live?

Candidate A: I live in Goztepe, too. It is an area next to Kadikoy.

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about music.
Candidate A, are you a musical person?

Candidate A: I'm not sure! I think I'm musical, but my family say I've got a terrible voice! However, I love listening to pop music on the radio.

Examiner: Do you like music from your country?

Candidate A: To be honest, traditional Turkish music is not my favourite. I like it, but I like Western pop music more.

Examiner: Candidate B, what sort of music do you like?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: When do you listen to music, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me about a musical instrument you play or you would like to play.

Candidate A: I'd like to play the guitar. My friend has one and he plays it well. It sounds really good and I wish I could play it too.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about studying.
Candidate B, where do you usually study?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Do you always study on your own, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, do you study a lot online?

Candidate A: Yes, I do. I find articles to read online and I like writing online because I can save my work easily.

Examiner: Are there any disadvantages to studying online?

Candidate A: Yes, if you aren't careful, you start to do other things instead of studying. For example, talking to your friends on social media.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me how you feel about going to class with other students and listening to a teacher. Do you think that is a good way to study and to learn things?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Part 2

Track 56

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different ways of getting the news.

Do you like these different ways of getting the news? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different ways of getting the news? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I think a newspaper is an old-fashioned way of reading the news. What do you think?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: What do you think about watching the news on television?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: I agree. You can also read about the news on your phone. A lot of people get news on their phone through apps, but I don't think it's easy to read stories on a small screen.

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: What do you think about reading the news on a laptop?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Candidate A: Finally, the radio. I never listen to the news on the radio. What about you?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Candidate A, do you think newspapers are interesting?

Candidate A: No, I don't.

Examiner: Why not?

Candidate A: It isn't up to date because the news in it is from the day before. It takes a long time to get the newspaper to the shop and for someone to buy it. So when you read it, it's already old.

Examiner: Candidate B, do you think the news on the radio is interesting?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these ways of getting the news do you like the best?

Candidate A: I think using a mobile phone is the best way. The screen is small, but you always have your phone with you, so you can look at it when you want.

Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these ways do you like the best?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, Candidate B, can you compare getting the news on the television with getting the news on the radio?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Can you compare getting the news on a phone with getting the news on a laptop?

Candidate A: I think these are similar ways of getting the news. The difference is that you can carry your phone and look at it when you want, so you can get the news all the time, for example, when you're sitting on the bus.

Examiner: Which of these ways of getting the news is least useful to you?

Candidate A: Reading a newspaper.

Examiner: Why?

Candidate A: As I said before, the news is old. You have to read it, so it's harder than listening or watching.

Examiner: What do you think is the least useful way to get the news, Candidate B?

[PAUSE FOR YOU TO ANSWER]

Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

- Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me something about one person in your family.

Candidate B, how much sport do you play?
- Candidate B: I play a lot of sport and I really enjoy football, basketball and tennis.
- Examiner: Who do you play sport with, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I play football with my friends and I'm in the local basketball team. I also play tennis with my brother when we have free time.
- Examiner: Candidate A, what sports are you good at?
- Candidate A: I'm not very good at them, but I like badminton.

Model answers: Speaking

- Examiner: When do you play sport?
Candidate A: I don't play it very often, but when we go to the beach, I play badminton with my sister.
Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about your favourite sport.
Candidate B: My favourite is football. I think it's the most exciting sport in the world. I play it twice a week and I also support my team, AEK Athens. I go to watch them play regularly.
Examiner: Thank you.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different ways of travelling.
Do you like these different ways of travelling? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different ways of travelling? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I think driving a car is a good way to travel. You can leave when you want to and go exactly where you want to. What do you think?
- Candidate B: Yes, I think you're right. If you have a car, your journey is very easy. You can get in your car at home and drive to where you want to go.
- Candidate A: What do you think about travelling by train?
- Candidate B: I think it's good to travel by train when you have to go on a long journey. If you want to go from one city to another, then a train is the best way to travel.
- Candidate A: I use the bus a lot in Athens. It's easy to catch the bus. I have a travel card so I don't have to pay every time.
- Candidate B: I don't think buses are very comfortable. They're usually very crowded and it can be difficult to find a seat.
- Candidate A: I don't think cycling is a very good idea in a big city. It can be dangerous when there's a lot of traffic. What do you think?
- Candidate B: I cycle to places near my home. But I agree with you. I don't like cycling on busy roads.
- Candidate A: Walking is a good way to travel if you don't have a long way to go. If the weather is fine, it can be nice. How do you feel about walking?
- Candidate B: I like walking. It's free, and it's good exercise, but it isn't very nice if the weather is bad.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think cars are a cheap way to travel?
- Candidate A: No, I don't.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: You have to buy a car, and a good car is expensive. You have to put petrol in it and petrol isn't cheap. You also need to repair it sometimes.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think cycling is fun?
- Candidate B: Yes. I like cycling. I have a bike and I use it a lot when I visit my friends and my grandparents.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these ways of travelling do you like the most?
- Candidate A: I like travelling by car the most.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these ways of travelling do you like the least?
- Candidate B: I like buses the least.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, would you prefer to walk or cycle, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'd prefer to cycle.
- Examiner: Why, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: It takes a long time to walk somewhere. Cycling is much quicker than walking.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer to travel by bus or by train?
- Candidate A: If I am going a long way, I prefer to travel by train. I think a train is more comfortable and you have more room on a train.
- Examiner: Do you think cars are safe, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.

- Examiner: Why?
 Candidate A: If you are a careful driver, then a car is safe.
 Examiner: Do you think cars are safe, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: Not very safe. You can have an accident in a car. I think buses and trains are safer than cars.
 Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 2

Speaking Part 1

- Examiner: Good afternoon.
 Can I have your mark sheets, please?
 I'm Hannah Jones. And this is Keith Mantell.
- Candidate A: What's your name, Candidate A?
 Examiner: My name's Andrea Chiti.
 Examiner: And what's your name, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: My name's Lucinda Fernandez.
 Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
 Candidate B: I'm a student.
 Examiner: Where do you come from, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: I'm from Barcelona in Spain.
 Examiner: Thank you.
 Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
 Candidate A: I'm a student, too.
 Examiner: Where do you come from?
 Candidate A: I come from Rome in Italy.
 Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about jobs.
 Candidate A, what job would you like to have?
 Candidate A: I'm studying medicine at university, and one day I want to work as a doctor in a big hospital.
 Examiner: Why do you want to be a doctor?
 Candidate A: Because I think medicine is the most interesting subject to study, and I also want to help people.
 Examiner: Candidate B, what kinds of jobs do you think young people want to do?
 Candidate B: I think most young people want to do an interesting job. They would like to earn a good salary. I don't mean they want to become millionaires, but enough money to live well.
 Examiner: Would you like to work in an office, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: I'm not sure. But if the job is interesting and if the people are nice, why not?
- Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me something about a job that you wouldn't like to do.
 Candidate A: I wouldn't like to have a job in an office or a factory. I think it would be very boring, and a job in a factory is also very hard.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about friends.
 Candidate B, how often do you see your friends?
 Candidate B: I see my friends every day during the break at college and usually every Saturday.
 Examiner: And Candidate B, what do you like doing with your friends?
 Candidate B: We're really into photography, so we enjoy walking around the city taking photos of people and buildings.
 Examiner: Candidate A, where do your friends live?

Model answers: Speaking

- Candidate A: Most of my friends live in the same part of Rome as me and a few live in the countryside outside the city.
- Examiner: When do you see your friends?
- Candidate A: I usually don't get a chance to see my friends during the week, so I usually see them on Saturday or Sunday.
- Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me something about one of your friends.
- Candidate B: My best friend is Jordi. He's a student, like me, and he enjoys making videos about his hobby, which is doing graffiti, and uploading them to his blog.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different places to live.
Do you like these different places to live? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different places to live? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I think it's nice to live in the apartment building and the house. How about you?
- Candidate B: I like the apartment building, too, but I also like the houseboat.
- Candidate A: Why do you like houseboats?
- Candidate B: I think it would be really fun to live in a boat rather than a house. I live in a house now and it's not very exciting. If you live in a houseboat, you can travel to different places and still have all your own things with you. Why do you like the apartment building?
- Candidate A: Well, I couldn't live on a farm or in a quiet village. In an apartment building, if you live at the top, you have great views!
- Examiner: Candidate A, why do you think living in a house is nice?
- Candidate A: Because houses usually have a garden and it's nice to have some outside space where you live.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think living on a farm is fun?
- Candidate B: No, I don't. I think it's really hard work to look after the animals, if you have them, and you have lots of things you need to take care of every day.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these places to live do you like best?
- Candidate A: Well, if I have to choose between an apartment building and a house, I will choose the apartment building because they are usually in the centre of a town or city, so there are lots of shops, restaurants and interesting places to visit nearby.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these places to live do you like best?
- Candidate B: I like houseboats the best. I think it would be fun in an apartment building in a city, but I think I would miss the open space outside. On a houseboat, you can enjoy being outdoors and you can also live in a really interesting home.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, do you prefer living in a big home or a small home, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I prefer living in a small home.
- Examiner: Why, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Because it's easier to look after a small home and you don't have many rooms to clean. In a small home, you just have a few important pieces of furniture. I don't like places with a lot of things in them.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Do you prefer living in a big or small home?
- Candidate A: I prefer a big home.
- Examiner: Do you prefer living in cities or in the countryside, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: I prefer living in cities because you have all the facilities you need, like shops, cafes, cinemas and parks.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Do you prefer living in cities or in the countryside?
- Candidate B: I prefer living in the countryside.

Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: I like to be active and do lots of sports and outdoor activities like walking and cycling. I also prefer to live somewhere with fresh air and beautiful nature.
 Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 3

Examiner: Good morning.
 Can I have your mark sheets, please?
 I'm Keith Mantell. And this is Hannah Jones.

Candidate A, what's your name, please?
 Candidate A: My name's Jakub Nowak.
 Examiner: And Candidate B, what's your name, please?
 Candidate B: My name's Yuki Takahashi.
 Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
 Candidate B: I work.
 Examiner: Where do you live, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: I'm from Tokyo, the capital city of Japan.
 Examiner: Thank you.
 Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
 Candidate A: I'm a student.
 Examiner: Where do you come from?
 Candidate A: I come from Poznan, in Poland
 Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about holidays.
 Candidate A, how often do you go on holiday?
 Candidate A: I usually go on holiday once a year. We have a family holiday in the summer.
 Examiner: Where do you go on holiday?
 Candidate A: We often go to visit my grandparents. They live by the sea.
 Examiner: Candidate B, what kind of holidays do you like?
 Candidate B: I like beach holidays. I like swimming in the sea.
 Examiner: When do you take your holiday, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: Usually at the end of April, when most people take their holiday in Japan.

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me about a dream holiday you would like to take.
 Candidate A: I'd love to visit Florida for a holiday and see the Everglades. I'd also like to spend some time in Miami. I think it's an exciting place to visit. And of course, I'd also go to Disney World.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about television.
 Candidate B, how often do you watch television?
 Candidate B: I don't watch it often because I'm very busy at work, so I don't have much free time.
 Examiner: What type of television programmes do you like, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: I like watching the news because I want to know what's going on in the world. I also enjoy watching quiz shows.
 Examiner: Candidate A, when do you watch television?
 Candidate A: I usually watch television in the evening when I want to relax. I like watching football, so if there's a big game on then I'll definitely watch television.
 Examiner: Who do you watch television with?
 Candidate A: If I watch late at night to relax, I watch it on my own, but when I watch football matches, I watch it with my friends.

- Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about the sort of television programmes that you don't like.
- Candidate B: I don't like soap operas or reality shows. I think they're boring, so when they're on, I change the channel and watch something else. I also don't like watching sport.
- Examiner: Thank you.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different pets.
Do you like these different pets? Say why or why not.
I'll say that again.
Do you like these different pets? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I think that a dog is a very good pet. What do you think?
- Candidate B: I agree. You can play with a dog and take it for walks. Also, a dog can be your friend.
- Candidate A: What do you think about having a cat?
- Candidate B: I think cats are good pets, too. They're friendly, they sit with you and they keep you company. But sometimes they go out by themselves, so you might not see your cat for a long time.
- Candidate A: I think fish are beautiful, especially colourful tropical fish, and watching them is relaxing.
- Candidate B: I don't think they're good pets. They're boring because they just swim round and round.
- Candidate A: I'm scared of snakes, so I don't think a snake is a good pet.
- Candidate B: I don't like them, either, and I don't think you can play with them. They aren't friendly and some snakes are dangerous.
- Candidate A: I don't think a bird is a good pet, either. I think it's cruel to keep birds in a cage. Do you like birds as pets?
- Candidate B: Not really, but some birds like parrots are very clever and they can learn to talk. So maybe they're good pets for old people.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think having a dog is fun?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: You can take a dog anywhere with you. For example, you can play with it in the park or on the beach. You can throw things for it, like a ball, and you can have a lot of fun playing games with it.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think cats are fun?
- Candidate B: They're fun when they're young kittens and they're very cute. But they're not so much fun when they're older.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these pets do you like the best?
- Candidate A: I like dogs the best.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these pets do you like the best?
- Candidate B: I like cats.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, would you prefer a fish or a bird as a pet, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'd prefer a bird.
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Because birds are more interesting than fish. Some birds sing beautifully and some can sit on your hand. I think a bird can get to know you, but a fish can't.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer a fish or a bird as a pet?
- Candidate A: I'm not sure. I think I'd prefer a fish. Some fish are beautiful, and you can spend hours watching them. And I think they are easier to look after than birds.
- Examiner: Do you think pets are good for children, Candidate A?

- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
 Examiner: Why?
 Candidate A: Children can learn a lot from pets. They learn to look after them and they learn to be responsible.
 Examiner: Do you think pets are good for children, Candidate B?
 Candidate B: Yes, I agree with Candidate A. Most children like playing with pets. Also, I think it's good for them to learn about animals, how to feed them and make sure they are happy and healthy.
 Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 4

Speaking Part 1

- Examiner: Good morning.
 Can I have your mark sheets, please?
- I'm Lucy Clarke. And this is Richard Norton.
 What's your name, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: My name's Ling Li.
 Examiner: And what's your name, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: My name's Carlos Silva.
 Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate B: I'm a student.
 Examiner: Where do you come from, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'm from São Paulo in Brazil.
 Examiner: Thank you.
 Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate A: I'm a student.

 Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about health and exercise.
 Candidate A, what do you do to stay healthy?
- Candidate A: I play badminton with my friends once a week and I also walk my dog in the park every morning. I try to eat lots of healthy food, like fruit and vegetables.
 Examiner: Do you get sick often?
- Candidate A: No, I don't get sick very often, usually a couple of times a year.
 Examiner: Candidate B, how often do you exercise?
- Candidate B: I exercise every day for about half an hour to an hour. I go for a run in the morning before college and I sometimes go swimming at my local swimming pool.
 Examiner: When was the last time you had to go to the doctor, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I was there last month because I was feeling ill. I had a high temperature, a headache and a bad cough.
- Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me what you usually do when you don't feel well.
 Candidate A: I usually stay at home and rest. I either stay in bed or lie on the sofa and watch TV. I try to drink lots of water and my mum makes me soup.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about technology.
 Candidate B, what types of technology do you use every day?
- Candidate B: I use my laptop every day. I take it with me in my backpack when I go to college so I can use it while I'm studying in the library.

Model answers: Speaking

- Examiner: What other technology is important to you in your everyday life, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Well, my mobile phone is really important to me. I send a lot of messages to my friends or call them. I couldn't live without it.
- Examiner: Candidate A, is there a type of technology you couldn't live without?
- Candidate A: Yes, my digital camera. I study photography at college, so I take my camera with me everywhere. I have a camera on my mobile phone, too, of course, but I don't use it for my photography work.
- Examiner: How do you prefer to search for information when you are studying?
- Candidate A: I use the internet if I want to find something quickly, but I also go to the library and look for old photographs in books, magazines and journals.
- Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me if there is a time when you prefer not to use technology.
- Candidate B: In the evening, I switch off my phone an hour before I go to bed. I prefer to read a book to relax. Then I can sleep more easily.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different types of entertainment.
Do you like these different types of entertainment? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different types of entertainment? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I like going to the cinema to watch the latest films. How about you?
- Candidate B: I enjoy playing video games at home.
- Candidate A: Why do you like that?
- Candidate B: I like video games because they're really fun and a great way to relax. I usually play football or action games with my friends at the weekend. Also, if I'm feeling bored or have some free time I don't need to go out, I can just play some games. I'm really good at them, too. Why do you enjoy going to the cinema?
- Candidate A: I like watching films because it's a good way to forget about your everyday life and worries for a few hours. Sometimes when I'm studying, I need a break, so I go to the cinema with my friends and it helps me relax for a while.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think going to an art exhibition is fun?
- Candidate A: Yes, I think it is. It's also interesting to see different types of art. Painting is one of my hobbies, and I sometimes go to art galleries to get ideas for my own work.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think going to the theatre is a pleasant way to spend an evening?
- Candidate B: Yes, I do, but it depends which theatre you go to. Some theatres have wonderful shows, like musicals, but the tickets are expensive, so I can't go often. But there are some small theatres, where you can watch really interesting plays – and the tickets are cheaper!
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these types of entertainment do you like the least?
- Candidate A: Well, I don't really like playing video games. I think they're boring and it isn't good for you to sit in front of a screen for many hours and not get any exercise.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these types of entertainment do you like the least?
- Candidate B: I don't like going to music festivals because there are always too many people there. You can't get near the stage to see your favourite band. If you camp there, it's noisy at night, and if it rains, the grass gets very wet.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, do you prefer spending time with your friends and family or on your own, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I like spending time with my friends and family, but sometimes I like to do things on my own.
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?

- Candidate B: My friends like doing the same activities as me, so we have fun together. I also love my family and I can talk to my parents and brother about anything. However, sometimes I like to relax and think by myself.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Do you prefer spending time with your friends and family or on your own?
- Candidate A: Sometimes it's nice to do things with other people because it's more fun to do things together. And they can help you if you have any problems. But sometimes I also like to be by myself and read books or paint.
- Examiner: Do you prefer indoor entertainment or having fun outdoors, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: I prefer indoor entertainment, like going to the cinema, but I also enjoy going out and meeting new people. I meet lots of people like me when I go to art galleries.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Do you prefer entertainment inside or having fun outdoors?
- Candidate B: I prefer having fun indoors, at home.
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Well, if I'm not playing video games, then I enjoying chatting to my friends online or watching TV. I'm not a very active person.
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I think a bicycle is a very good present. It's healthy for young people to go out on their bike. What do you think?
- Candidate B: Yes, I agree with you. It's fun to use and you can go to different places with your friends. What do you think about a laptop?
- Candidate A: I think a laptop is a really good idea for a present for a teenager. I think a teenager would be very happy to get one. Do you agree?
- Candidate B: Yes, I do. The good thing about a laptop is that you can do lots of different things. You can study, you can play games and you can watch films.
- Candidate A: A mobile phone is a good present for an older teenager, but for a younger one, it might not be a good idea.
- Candidate B: But young teenagers love mobile phones. They want to talk to their friends all the time. But I think young children shouldn't spend too much time on a mobile.
- Candidate A: Now books, ... Hmm. I think a young teenager might think it's boring to get books.
- Candidate B: Yes, I think that's true for some people. But there are teenagers who really enjoy reading, and books are a good present for them.
- Candidate A: You're right. Now, a guitar. I think learning a musical instrument is a fun thing to do, so a guitar is a good idea for a present.
- Candidate B: Yes, I think so too. You can play music with other people if you learn to play the guitar, and maybe you can sing at the same time.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think a bicycle might be a dangerous present?
- Candidate A: Not really. If you are careful, then a bike is OK, but I think you should have lessons on how to cycle safely.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think some people might think a laptop is not a good present?
- Candidate B: Maybe. There are some bad things on the internet for young people, and sometimes people write horrible things on social media.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these presents do you think is the best for a teenager?
- Candidate A: I think a bicycle is the best present.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these presents do you think is the best?
- Candidate B: In my opinion a guitar is the best present.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, would you prefer a laptop or a mobile phone as a present, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'd prefer a phone.

- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'm very busy. I spend a lot of time away from my house. I walk a lot, I sit on the bus for a long time and I spend time at university. So I use a phone more than a laptop.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Would you prefer books or a guitar for a present?
- Candidate A: I'd prefer a guitar. I can get books from the library, but I've never played a musical instrument, and I'd like to try.
- Examiner: Do you like cycling, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: It's quick and easy to get somewhere. But it's not good if it's raining.
- Examiner: Do you like reading, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Not really. For me, reading is like work. I have to read a lot when I study, so I want to do something different when I relax.
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 6

Speaking Part 1

- Examiner: Good evening.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?
I'm Valerie Walker. And this is James Liddell.
- Candidate A: What's your name, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: My name's Vittoria Conti.
- Examiner: And what's your name, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: My name's Rasmus Tamm.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate B: I work.
- Examiner: Where do you come from, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I'm from Tallinn in Estonia.
- Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate A: I'm a student.
- Examiner: Where do you come from?
- Candidate A: I come from Lugano in Switzerland.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about hobbies.
Candidate A, what hobbies do you do during the week?
- Candidate A: One of my hobbies is music. I play the guitar in a band, and I usually practise every evening after college.
- Examiner: What activities did you do last weekend?
- Candidate A: I went camping with some friends at the weekend. We stayed in tents at a campsite in the forest. We often go camping there because we hike in the mountains.
- Examiner: Candidate B, what hobbies do you have?
- Candidate B: I'm very interested in art, especially modern art, and I enjoy going to museums and art galleries with my friends.
- Examiner: How often are you able to do this, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: In the week, I am very busy at work, so I can't go to museums. I usually go at the weekend.
- Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me something about what activities you like to do with your family.

Model answers: Speaking

- Candidate A: At the weekend I like to go cycling with my brother. My family and I also enjoy having barbecues on a Saturday afternoon if the weather is nice.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about clothes.
Candidate B, what clothes do you wear every day?
- Candidate B: I wear trousers, a jacket, a shirt and tie to work. If it's cold, I also wear a jumper or a coat.
- Examiner: And Candidate B what colours do you like for clothes?
- Candidate B: I like wearing blue or black in the winter, but in the summer, I wear lighter colours. And I like wearing colourful shirts.
- Examiner: Candidate A, what clothes do you wear when you go to a party?
- Candidate A: I usually wear a dress, a jacket and smart shoes. I also sometimes wear trousers with a blouse.
- Examiner: How often do you buy clothes?
- Candidate A: I usually buy clothes once a month when I go shopping with my friends. If I need something, I'll buy it sooner. I try not to buy clothes very often.
- Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me something about the clothes you like to buy.
- Candidate B: I like fashion, so I often buy clothes that I see in magazines and online. I like buying jeans, T-shirts and trainers.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different outdoor activities.
Do you like these different outdoor activities? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different outdoor activities? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I like a few of these. I like to be active and go outside with my friends so I've done many of these activities. How about you?
- Candidate B: I'm not a fan of most of these types of activities because I'm not very good at sport. I've never tried skateboarding and I don't like golf or swimming in lakes. I sometimes go swimming at the sports centre because the pool is inside and it's warmer.
- Candidate A: Do you ever have picnics in the park?
- Candidate B: Sometimes, at the beach in summer, but I don't live near any nice parks, so I don't have picnics in parks. How about you?
- Candidate A: I really enjoy having picnics and eating outside with my family or friends. We usually take food with us in a basket when we go walking in the countryside. When we find a nice place, we sit and eat our food.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think skateboarding is difficult?
- Candidate A: Yes, I think it is. I tried skateboarding when I was younger, but I kept falling off. I think that if you don't wear safety clothes, you could hurt yourself.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think swimming in a lake is dangerous?
- Candidate B: Yes, I think it can be because a lake is big and if you swim out too far, it might be difficult to swim back again.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, what do you think of music festivals?
- Candidate A: I don't like them. They're noisy and there are too many people. I prefer going to concerts indoors.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, do you think going to music festivals is fun?
- Candidate B: Yes, I do. I enjoy watching my favourite bands and singers on stage and listening to live music. I enjoy singing along with everyone else in the audience, too.
- Examiner: Candidate A, which of these activities do you like best?
- Candidate A: I think swimming in the lake is the best outdoor activity because it's good exercise. I enjoy swimming and I love to be close to nature.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these activities do you like best?

- Candidate B: I think going to music festivals is the best outdoor activity because you can listen to your favourite music and dance with your friends.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, do you prefer being by the sea or in the mountains, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I like being by the sea.
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Because it's relaxing. You can sit on the beach and read a book in the warm sun. It's usually quiet on the beach near my house, so I can listen to the birds, smell the sea air and forget about any problems.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Do you prefer being by the sea or in the mountains?
- Candidate A: I prefer being in the mountains because there is lots of fresh air. I enjoy hiking and exploring the forests and looking at wildlife.
- Examiner: Is it better to do sports alone or with other people, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: I think it's better to do sports with other people. I like playing team sports because it's more fun to work together to win. I think it's important to spend time with other people.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B? Is it better to do sports alone or with other people?
- Candidate B: I don't often play sports because I'm not very good at them. When I go to the gym, I prefer to exercise alone. I don't like big exercise classes.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate B: When I exercise, I have time to think. I think about my job and the future. I don't like to exercise and chat at the same time.
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 7

Speaking Part 1

- Examiner: Good morning.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?
I'm Jack Rider. And this is Linda Smith.
- Candidate A, what's your name, please?
- Candidate A: My name's Chiara Bianchi.
- Examiner: And Candidate B, what's your name, please?
- Candidate B: I'm Matteo Romano.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate B: I'm a student.
- Examiner: Where do you live, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I live in Naples.
- Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate A: I'm a student.
- Examiner: Where do you live?
- Candidate A: I also live in Naples. In Soccavo, in the west of the city.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about the weather.
Candidate A, what is the weather like in the summer where you live?
- Candidate A: It's really hot in Naples in the summer. It's often over 31 or 32 degrees, so you can't stay in the sun for a long time.
- Examiner: What about the winter?
- Candidate A: It doesn't often get very cold, and it almost never snows.

Model answers: Speaking

- Examiner: Candidate B, what sort of weather do you like?
Candidate B: I like it when it's not too hot and not too cold, so I like the spring and the autumn. It's nice when it's sunny and you can go out and do activities outside.
Examiner: What do you do when the weather is good, Candidate B?
Candidate B: I play football with my friends. If it's a Sunday, then my family and I have lunch on the balcony, or we have a picnic, or eat outside at a restaurant.
- Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me what sort of weather you don't like.
Candidate A: I don't like it when it rains. I hate getting wet. It's worse when it's windy as well. Then you can't use an umbrella and everything gets wet. When my hair gets wet, it looks terrible!
- Examiner: Now, let's talk about school.
Candidate B, what was your school like?
Candidate B: It was very good. It was a big, modern school, the teachers were excellent, and I had lots of friends.
Examiner: What was your favourite subject, Candidate B?
Candidate B: I liked my English classes because we did lots of interesting activities in class.
Examiner: Candidate A, what did you like about your school?
Candidate A: We had a friendly head teacher. She helped everyone to do their best.
Examiner: Was there anything you didn't like about your school?
Candidate A: We always had a lot of homework and I didn't like doing it, especially at the weekend and in the evenings.
- Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me about a good teacher that you can remember from school.
Candidate B: I can remember my maths teacher. His name was Signor Ricci. He was very patient with us. He never got angry and he always explained things carefully. Everybody liked him and learned from him.

Speaking Part 2

- Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.
Here are some pictures that show different jobs.
Do you like these different jobs? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.
Do you like these different jobs? Say why or why not.
All right? Now, talk together.
- Candidate A: I think a teacher is a good job because you can help young children learn. This is very important. What do you think about being a teacher?
Candidate B: I think teaching is a good job too. It's important because you guide young people and help them understand difficult subjects.
Candidate A: What do you think about being a cook?
Candidate B: I think being a cook is hard work. Cooks work long hours, and it's very hot in the kitchen. There's a lot of work to do, so I don't think I'd like to be a cook.
Candidate A: I agree. But I think a dentist is a good job and it's also useful. Everybody needs dentists.
Candidate B: I agree with you. And I think dentists can earn a lot of money so that's another reason why it's a good job.
Candidate A: I'm not sure about a firefighter. What do you think about that?
Candidate B: I think a firefighter could be a dangerous job. But it's another very useful job and we need people to fight fires.
Candidate A: The last job is a mechanic. I don't think I'd like to be one. It's a hard job and you get very dirty when you work with cars all day.

- Candidate B: I think if you have your own business it could be very good. But it might not be so good if you work for somebody else.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think being a dentist is interesting?
- Candidate A: Yes, I do.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: You meet different people. Also, everybody's teeth are different, so you see something different every day. It's never boring.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think being a cook is interesting?
- Candidate B: No, I don't think it's very interesting. You have to be in a kitchen all the time and you have to cook the same food from the menu.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these jobs do you like the best?
- Candidate A: I think being a dentist is the best job.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these jobs do you like the best?
- Candidate B: I think a teacher is the best job.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, Candidate B, which job do you think is better, a mechanic or a firefighter?
- Candidate B: I think a firefighter is a better job.
- Examiner: Why is that, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: Because you go to different places to fight fires. A mechanic has to go to work in the same place every day and he – or she – works on cars all the time.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Which job do you think is better, a cook or a firefighter?
- Candidate A: I think a cook is a better job than a firefighter. A cook can sometimes prepare new dishes. When you are a firefighter, you have to be ready to go to work at any time because a fire can start in the middle of the night.
- Examiner: Which job do you think is the worst job, Candidate A?
- Candidate A: Being a mechanic.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: I don't think it's interesting and you get very dirty.
- Examiner: What do you think is the worst job, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: For me, being a cook is the worst because I'm a terrible cook and I don't like cooking. I'm not patient enough. I like eating, not cooking.
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Test 8

Speaking Part 1

- Examiner: Good afternoon.
Can I have your mark sheets, please?
I'm Anita Hill. And this is Mark Flock.
- Candidate A, what's your name, please?
- Candidate A: My name's Emir Yilmaz.
- Examiner: And Candidate B, what's your name, please?
- Candidate B: My name's Zeynep Ozturk.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate B: I'm a student.
- Examiner: And where do you live, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: I live in Goztepe.
- Examiner: Thank you.
Candidate A, do you work or are you a student?
- Candidate A: I'm a student.
- Examiner: Where do you live?

Model answers: Speaking

Candidate A: I live in Goztepe, too. It is an area next to Kadikoy.
Examiner: Thank you.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about music.

Candidate A, are you a musical person?

Candidate A: I'm not sure! I think I'm musical, but my family say I've got a terrible voice!
However, I love listening to pop music on the radio.

Examiner: Do you like music from your country?

Candidate A: To be honest, traditional Turkish music is not my favourite. I like it, but I like Western pop music more.

Examiner: Candidate B, what sort of music do you like?

Candidate B: I like lots of different types of music. I like singing traditional Turkish songs. But I like modern singers too.

Examiner: When do you listen to music, Candidate B?

Candidate B: I listen to music every day. I download music on my phone and I listen to it when I am travelling to university. I also listen to music at home.

Examiner: Now Candidate A, please tell me about a musical instrument you play or you would like to play.

Candidate A: I'd like to play the guitar. My friend has one and he plays it well. It sounds really good and I wish I could play it too.

Examiner: Now, let's talk about studying.

Candidate B, where do you usually study?

Candidate B: I usually go to the library at university to study. It's very quiet. I can stay there for hours and no one bothers me.

Examiner: Do you always study on your own, Candidate B?

Candidate B: Yes, I do. I don't like studying with other people because they often talk about other things and waste time.

Examiner: Candidate A, do you study a lot online?

Candidate A: Yes, I do. I find articles to read online and I like writing online because I can save my work easily.

Examiner: Are there any disadvantages to studying online?

Candidate A: Yes, if you aren't careful, you start to do other things instead of studying. For example, talking to your friends on social media.

Examiner: Now Candidate B, please tell me how you feel about going to class with other students and listening to a teacher. Do you think that is a good way to study and to learn things?

Candidate B: I think it can be a good way to learn, but it depends on the teacher. If the teacher is boring, the students don't pay attention and they don't learn, but if the teacher is good, then I think it's the best way to learn.

Speaking Part 2

Examiner: Now, in this part of the test you are going to talk together.

Here are some pictures that show different ways of getting the news.

Do you like these different ways of getting the news? Say why or why not. I'll say that again.

Do you like these different ways of getting the news? Say why or why not.

All right? Now, talk together.

Candidate A: I think a newspaper is an old-fashioned way of reading the news. What do you think?

Candidate B: Yes, I agree with you. I think it's for older people who have a lot of time because there's a lot to read in a newspaper.

Candidate A: What do you think about watching the news on television?

- Candidate B: I think it's a good way to get the news. The news on television is good quality, and you know that the stories are true.
- Candidate A: I agree. You can also read about the news on your phone. A lot of people get news on their phone through apps, but I don't think it's easy to read stories on a small screen.
- Candidate B: Yes, that's right, and some of the news may not be very good quality. I think there's a lot of fake news on the internet.
- Candidate A: What do you think about reading the news on a laptop?
- Candidate B: I think it's a good way. It's up to date and you can read longer articles more easily because the screen is bigger than a phone screen. You can play videos too.
- Candidate A: Finally, the radio. I never listen to the news on the radio. What about you?
- Candidate B: Not really. I use it to listen to music and football, but I don't use it to hear the news.
- Examiner: Candidate A, do you think newspapers are interesting?
- Candidate A: No, I don't.
- Examiner: Why not?
- Candidate A: It isn't up to date because the news in it is from the day before. It takes a long time to get the newspaper to the shop and for someone to buy it. So when you read it, it's already old.
- Examiner: Candidate B, do you think the news on the radio is interesting?
- Candidate B: No, I don't. I think it's boring because you can only listen to it and you can't see any pictures or videos.
- Examiner: So Candidate A, which of these ways of getting the news do you like the best?
- Candidate A: I think using a mobile phone is the best way. The screen is small, but you always have your phone with you, so you can look at it when you want.
- Examiner: And you, Candidate B, which of these ways do you like the best?
- Candidate B: I think a laptop is the best way to find out what is going on in the news.
- Examiner: Thank you.
- Examiner: Now, Candidate B, can you compare getting the news on the television with getting the news on the radio?
- Candidate B: I think they're similar ways. You have to wait for the news programme to start, so they're different from other ways of getting the news. You can read a newspaper or get the news online whenever you want.
- Examiner: And what about you, Candidate A? Can you compare getting the news on a phone with getting the news on a laptop?
- Candidate A: I think these are similar ways of getting the news. The difference is that you can carry your phone and look at it when you want, so you can get the news all the time, for example, when you're sitting on the bus.
- Examiner: Which of these ways of getting the news is least useful to you?
- Candidate A: Reading a newspaper.
- Examiner: Why?
- Candidate A: As I said before, the news is old. You have to read it, so it's harder than listening or watching.
- Examiner: What do you think is the least useful way to get the news, Candidate B?
- Candidate B: For me, the radio is the least useful. If I have time I might read a newspaper, but I never listen to the radio. I prefer to follow the news on my laptop so I can choose the stories that I'm interested in.
- Examiner: Thank you. That is the end of the test.

Speaking: Additional practice by topic

This section will give you extra practice in the sorts of questions the examiner may ask you in Part 1 of the Speaking test. Listen to the audio and practise answering the questions. Some of the questions are similar but the words used in the question are different; this gives you more speaking practice and shows you how different questions are formed. Remember that the examiner will choose what questions to ask you and won't ask you lots of questions about the same topic.

When you are practising try to give a longer answer, even if you want to just say No. For example, you may not like doing sport, but if the question is Do you like playing tennis? and your real answer is No, you can say something like No, I don't like playing tennis because I didn't learn how to play it when I was at school.

Once you are feeling confident it would be a good idea not to look at the book – just listen to the audio and answer the questions. And keep practising!

The questions are grouped under different topic headings: books and films; clothes and accessories; communication and technology; education; family and friends; food; health and exercise; hobbies and interests; house and home; personal feelings and experiences; places in a town, a city and the countryside; shopping; sport; the natural world and weather; travel and transport; work and jobs.
