Let Us Review

- How many seasons are there in a year? What are they? Are they different in Russia and in Great Britain?
- When does summer (winter) begin in Russia and in Great Britain?
- 3 Read and guess what season it is:
 - a) The season between spring and autumn, when the sun is hot.
 - b) The season between winter and summer, when birds come back from hot countries.
 - c) The season between autumn and spring, when it is cold and there is a lot of snow.
- What poems and songs about "Seasons and Nature" do you remember? Act out the one you like best.

5) Think about spring and autumn and make up five sentences from the chart1 below.

It	is isn't	often always usually sometimes	very terribly	cold warm hot fine dry bright nice	in	spring. autumn. March. April. September. October.

LOOK, READ, REMEMBER!

to rain, to snow

It often rains/snows in autumn. It is raining/snowing now. It never rains/snows there. It doesn't rain/snow in June.

It isn't raining/snowing.

Does it often rain/snow there? Is it raining/snowing?

It often rained/snowed last winter. It didn't rain/snow last month. Did it rain/snow in March?

(7) Read and find out what Misha and Kate think of winter.

Misha: Winter is my favourite season. I like it very much because it's so beautiful in winter. The sun is so bright. The streets and houses,3 the trees are white and the snow looks so beautiful in the sun.

You can ski, skate and sledge a lot. We usually play snowballs and make snowmen in winter. We play a lot in the forest and have winter holidays too. We celebrate Christmas in December and New Year in January. Santa Claus (we call him Father Frost) gives us presents.

² the wind was blowing ['bləvɪŋ] — дул ветер

³ houses ['haʊzɪz] — дома

Kate: I dislike winter. I can't ski or skate and I am always cold in winter. The days are short and the nights are long. It is dark at 5 o'clock in the evening and my mother asks me to come home early. So I am always at home in the evening. You know, I like different colours: yellow, red, green, brown and blue, but I can only see white this time of the year. Winter is always white.

Let Us Talk

- (8) Tell your friend about any season and say why you like or dislike it. (Exercise 7 can help you.)
- 9 Complete the dialogue and act it out.

Fred: Hi, Al!

..... How are you? Al:

Fred: Let's go for a walk.

Where to? Al:

Fred:

That's a good idea! What about the weather? Al:

Fred: Let's meet at 12 o'clock.

- 5 What poems and songs about "Clothes" do you remember? Act out the one you like best.

Let Us Read

6 Read the text and find in it how we choose the right dress.

Read these sentences aloud.

EVERYTHING IS GOOD IN ITS SEASON

There are four seasons in the year. Each of them brings different weather and different clothes. When it is hot people wear T-shirts and shorts, sports shoes, socks and sandals. Women wear light blouses and skirts. In summer people dress like this in Africa, Russia, Canada, Ireland, Great Britain and America.

In cold weather people usually put on warm clothes: jeans and trousers, sweaters and jackets, overcoats and caps. In winter they wear fur¹ coats and fur caps, high boots and mittens or gloves. The proverb says: "There is no bad weather, there are bad clothes."

Another proverb says: "Everything is good in its season." Do you understand it? When you think what to wear, choose the right dress. Think what is good on the sports ground and what is good at the party and why a long dress looks beautiful on a woman but is funny on a little girl.

When you buy clothes, try them on. Make sure that they are your size, that they suit you and that you like their colour.

Let Us Talk

- Say what are the right clothes and what are not for the follow-
- a race; / _ in florid agest and an ampage much and area area.
- a birthday party;
- a rainy summer (autumn) day;
 a cold winter day.

I wear (choose) shorts when I run a race. People don't wear (put on) raincoats on a cold winter day.

- (8) Say what you are wearing at the moment and why.
- 9 Discuss in the groups the following:
 - what clothes you would like to buy;
 - what your parents usually wear;

- what your favourite colours are;
- what you know about this year's fashions.1

10 a) Read the dialogue.

Jane: Excuse me.

Shop assistant: Yes. Can I help you? Jane: I'd like a pair of jeans, please.

Shop assistant: What size do you wear?

Jane: Thirty-six.

Shop assistant: What colour would you like?

Jane: Light blue.

Shop assistant: Here's a nice pair.

Jane: Can I try them on?

Shop assistant: Of course you can.

Jane: Do they suit me all right?

Shop assistant: You look great. And the colour suits you.

Jane: Thank you. I'll take them. How much are they?

b) Now you are in a shop. Act out the dialogue. Buy the things you want. The words can help you:

a pair of gloves a pair of shoes a pair of trousers a pair of trainers a blouse a jacket a sweater

Let Us Write_

- 4 Say what Alice's relatives are and what they do.

(5) Give Joan's answers to Monica's questions and act out the dialogue.

(It's a hot summer day. The weather is fine. Monica's family is at the seaside. Monica sees a new girl. She doesn't know her but wants to become her friend.)

Monica: Hello. I'm Monica. What's your name?

Joan: Glad to meet you.

Monica: How old are you?

Joan: And what about you?

Monica: Do you like it here?

Joan: Are you here with your family?

Monica: Yes, I am. But ... is not here. ... is still in London.

Joan: I'm here with my father. Oh! Look! He is calling me. Bye, Monica. It was nice meeting you.

Monica: See you later.

6 What poems and songs about "Family" do you remember? Act out the one you like best.

Let Us Read

- Read the text about Robert and his family. Say how many relatives Bob has and what relationships they are to him.
- Hello! My name is Robert Bucket, but my friends call me Bob for short. I am nine and come from London. I live near Hyde Park. My hobby ['hpbi] is taking photos.² I think it is interesting to take photos.

Look at my family pictures.

— Oh, this is a lovely photo. This is David and Frank and me. David is on the right. He is my uncle. Frank is on the left. He is my cousin.

² take photos ['fəʊtəʊz] — фотографировать

- This photo is very nice too, I think. This is my grandmother. She works a lot. Her name is May. It's a lovely name, isn't it? My granny is not old. She is 48. She likes bright colours and bright ideas and her pupils like her.
- Oh, and this one is my baby ['beɪbɪ] brother. His name's Jack. I don't see a lot of him now as he lives with my mother and my other granny Pamela out in the country near London.

— These are two pictures of my father. Here he is alone and here we are together in the mountains where we usually go skiing. This is our favourite place. Now I've got new skis. They were a birthday present from my parents.

- 8 Find and read the sentences to illustrate the pictures (see Exercise 7).
- 9 Look at the pictures of Bob Bucket's family (see Exercise 7) and say what clothes his family are wearing and why.

Let Us Talk

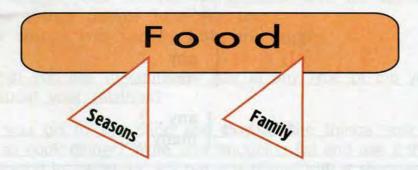

- 10 Talk about your family.
- Bring to the classroom any picture you like. Say if the people in the picture are a family. Give them names, say a few words about their professions, places they work, their age¹ and family relationships. Say what the people are wearing.

Let Us Write

- (12) Get ready to ask questions about your friend's family. Write them down.
- (13) Complete the dialogue (see Exercise 5) in writing.

Lesson 4

Brush up your vocabulary and grammar.

- 2 Name:
 - 1 three things babies always have for breakfast;
 - 2 two things British people often have for breakfast;
 - 3 five things your relatives sometimes have for dinner;
 - 4 three things people have for tea;
 - 5 four things you usually have for supper.
- 3 Say what you like to eat every day at any time of the year. And what about your relatives?
- 4 Could you go to the shop and buy all the things your mother needs to cook dinner? Write your shopping list and ask if they have these things in the shop. Act out a dialogue with a shop assistant.

Example

- Do you have any brown bread?Yes, we do. (No, we don't.)

What poems and songs about "Food" do you remember? Act out the one you like best.

Let Us Read and Learn

6 Enjoy your English and sing the song "I Like Food", 2, part I.1

I LIKE FOOD

I. I like food,
I like eating lots and lots of food. (2 times)
Bread and jam, and meat, and fish,
Cakes and biscuits too,
Beans² and mustard,³ eggs and chips,⁴
Mutton⁵ steaks,⁶ potatoes, peas,⁷
And salted mushrooms too.

Let Us Read

Read the text and say what difference there is between "full English breakfast" and "continental [,kvntr'nentl] breakfast".

In England you may have what they call "full English breakfast". First they bring you cereal⁸ and fruit juice, then you get bacon,⁹ eggs and tomatoes. Then comes toast and marmalade.¹⁰ You finish your breakfast with a cup of coffee or tea usually with milk.

If you want to sing the whole song listen 2 up to the end. The teacher can help you with the words.

²beans [bi:nz] — бобы

³mustard ['mʌstəd] — горчица

⁴chips [tʃɪps] — чипсы, жареный хрустящий картофель

⁵mutton ['mʌtn] — баранина

⁶steak [steik] — бифштекс

⁷ peas [pi:z] — ropox

⁸ cereal ['siəriəl] — хлопья

⁹ bacon ['beikən] — бекон

¹⁰ marmalade ['mɑ:məleɪd] — джем

In fact English people don't often have "full English breakfast". They have just bread or toast with marmalade with a cup of tea or coffee. Sometimes they call it "continental breakfast".

Let Us Talk

- 8 What do you usually have for breakfast? Is it different from the "full English breakfast" or the "continental breakfast"?
- 9 Read the dialogues, make up your own and act them out.

IN THE SHOP

Billy: Do you have any sweets?

Shop assistant: Sorry, I don't. I have some biscuits and cakes. Would you like some?

Billy: Yes, please. Could I have this cake? Shop assistant: Of course. Anything else?

Billy: No, that's all, thanks.

COOKING SALAD

Mother: I'd like to cook some salad for supper. Ann, could you have a look and see if there are any vegetables in the fridge?

Ann: Yes, we've got some but not many and there are no

tomatoes.

Mother: That's a pity. Is there any salt, dear?

Ann: Yes, lots.

Mother: Will you go to the shops and buy potatoes, carrots and tomatoes? I can't make salad without them.

Ann: OK, Mum. I will go. Where is the money?

Mother: Here it is, dear.

Let Us Write

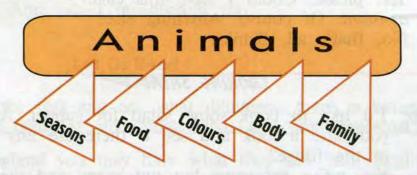

- 10 Put some or any into the following:
 - 1. There is ... money in my pocket.
 - 2. There isn't ... tea in the cup.
 - 3. There are ... potatoes for dinner.

- 4. There are ... vegetables for supper.
- 5. Is there ... jam on the table?
- 6. There is ... meat here.
- 7. Are there ... carrots in the bag?
- Write what you like (dislike) to have for dinner in summer and in winter (Exercise 6 can help you).
- Write 5 questions beginning with: Is there ...? Are there ...? to find out what food your friend has got.

Lesson 5

Brush up your vocabulary and grammar.

- (n) animal, bear, bird, parrot, cat, kitten, cow, mouse (mice), crocodile, dog, duck, elephant, fox, hamster, hare, horse, lion, pig, puppy, sheep (sheep), tiger, tortoise, monkey, giraffe, duck, wolf (wolves), pet, body, neck, tail, hair, head, hand, arm, leg, foot (feet), eye, mouth, ear, nose, shoulder, finger, toe, face, tooth (teeth), hundred
- (v) look, teach (taught), must, open, visit, live, grow (grew), try, give (gave)
- (adj) big, long, short, clever, domestic, wild, favourite, beautiful, happy, slow, quick
- (adv) slowly, quickly

Happy birthday! Happy New Year!

big — bigger — the biggest nice - nicer - the nicest beautiful — more beautiful — the most beautiful bad — worse — the worst

good — better — the best

Let Us Review

- 1 some domestic animals and birds;
- 2 animals and birds that can be wild and domestic;
- 3 animals that live only in hot countries;
- 4 animals that eat only grass, leaves from the trees, vegetables and fruit;
- some animals that are quicker than the tortoise;
- 6 some animals that are bigger than the cat;
- some animals that can have different colours or change them:
- 8 the most beautiful animal.

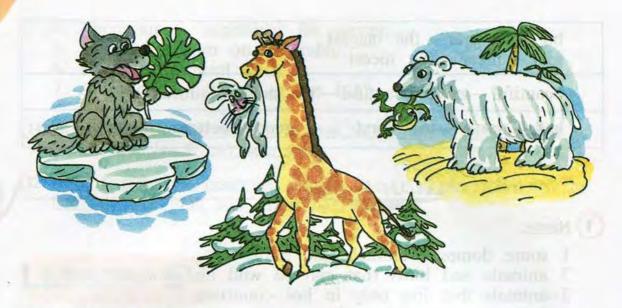

2 Think and give your opinion on the following:

- 1. Which is cleverer, the dog or the hare?
- 2. Which is shorter, the crocodile or the fish?
- 3. Which is more beautiful, the horse or the pig?
- 4. Which is bigger, the bear or the elephant?
- 5. Which is funnier, the monkey or the fox?
- 6. Which is angrier, the tiger or the kitten?
- 7. Which is the most beautiful animal?
- 8. Which is the best food for lions?
- 9. Which is the worst food for dogs?

3 Look at the picture on p. 26 and find what is wrong.

The giraffe can't live in cold countries where there is a lot of snow because it only eats Example grass, leaves from the trees and fruit. In cold countries in winter it can't find the things which don't grow at that time of the year.

- 4 Listen 3 and answer the questions:
 - 1. What animals are usually the most favourite pets?
 - 2. Do people sometimes keep wild animals as pets? Why?
- Guessing game: ask your friend questions about his/her favourite animal and guess what it is. Find out what its colour is, what things it likes (dislikes) to do, what it likes to eat and drink and also what its body looks like and where it lives.
- 6 What poems and songs about "Animals" do you remember? Act out the one you like best.

Let Us Read

Read and say why birds and animals move from one country to another.

A lot of birds and animals move from country to country and from continent ['kɒntɪnənt] to continent during the year. Some move when summer is over and it becomes colder and some when there is no food to eat. Many birds can't find food under the snow, so they fly to Africa and other warmer countries. When winter comes some birds can fly more than 7000 kilometres ['kɪlə,mi:təz] in 3 days. They come back in spring and never see winter.

8 Read the text. Match the pictures and paragraphs ['pærəgra:fs].

Do you know that ...

- 1. ... Zoos in many countries are changing. Cities are closing the big zoos with large animals in small cages. They are opening Safari [sə'fɑ:rɪ] Parks. In these parks animals live in the open. There are fences, not cages there.
- 2. At Windsor ['winzə] there was a Safari Park. Windsor is near London, in the South of England. The Park opened from 10 o'clock to 7 o'clock. Visitors went through the Safari Park in cars or Park buses.³ There were three important things for visitors to remember: they must drive⁴ slowly, never open the car window and never get out of the car in the places where monkeys, lions, tigers, zebras, giraffes and other wild animals lived free.⁵
- 3. ...In the Safari Park there was a Seaworld section ['seksn], which had dolphins ['dolfinz], sea lions, fish and other sea animals. There were two sections for birds and animals from hot countries. In the Birdworld section there were hundreds of different birds from lots of different countries.

moon. But Americans love old things too. They like to visit historic [hɪ'stɒrɪk] houses and museums [mju:'zi:əmz], they like old traditions [trə'dɪ[nz], remember the days of the "Wild West".1

The people of the United States are in fact people from many different countries. In one city you can find people whose parents, grandparents or great-grandparents came from Africa, South America and Europe ['jvərəp]. These people brought to their new home their traditions. The Germans brought the Christmas tree and the Scots brought Halloween.

There are new American festivals ['festivlz] and traditions too. Only Americans celebrate Thanksgiving and Memorial Day.² People celebrate Memorial Day on the last Monday of May. This day is for people to remember those who died³ in wars,⁴ their dead⁵ friends and relatives.

6 Enjoy your English and sing the song "The Bear Went over the Mountain", 5.

THE BEAR WENT OVER THE MOUNTAIN

The bear went over the mountain, The bear went over the mountain, The bear went over the mountain To see what he could see!

And all that he could see
Was the other side of the mountain,
The other side of the mountain,
The other side of the mountain
Was all that he could see.

Read the tale and think about the moral ['mprəl].

THE GRASSHOPPER AND THE ANT'

A Grasshopper lived in a field near a big forest. He liked to sing and dance very much. And he sang and danced all day long. He had a lot of fun playing in the green grass near the river in the daytime and at night he liked to look at the stars and the moon.

Sometimes he went to the mountains. He looked at the distant² ocean and the faraway³ beautiful hills.

One day he saw an Ant. He looked very tired⁴ and hot as he was very busy working.

"Why are you working on such a lovely day?" asked the Grasshopper.

"I'm collecting⁵ food for winter," said the Ant and went on working.

But the Grasshopper sang another song and danced another dance.

When winter came and there was a lot of snow, the Grasshopper had nothing to eat. He was very hungry, so he went to visit the Ant and asked him to give him some food.

² distant ['distənt] — отдаленный, дальний

³ faraway [,fa:rə'wei] — далекий

⁴ tired ['taɪəd] — усталый

⁵ collect [kə'lekt] — собирать

"I worked all summer to collect my food," said the Ant. "What did you do?"

"I was very busy singing and dancing," answered the Grasshopper.

"Well, if you sing and dance all summer and do not work, then you must starve1 in winter," answered the Ant.

- 8 Choose the best moral for the tale "The Grasshopper and the Ant".
 - 1. People who always plan [plæn] their lives are often bad friends.
 - 2. If you have problems ['problemz], nobody can help you.

Friday - TV day.

Saturday - visiting day.

Sunday - play day.

a) It is a page either from Mary's or Susan's diary. Read it first to yourself and say whose page it is. Give reasons for your opinion (Exercise 10 can help you). Then read the text aloud. Find in the text the sentences to prove your opinion.

WHOSE DIARY IS IT?

October 20th, Wednesday.

On Monday it was cold and on Tuesday it was raining, but it is a nice day today. The weather is warm and sunny.

We didn't have our English class today as Mrs Larson was ill. So I came home earlier than usual and had a lot of time before swimming. My mum asked me to go shopping with her. I don't like to do the shopping but it's great to go to the shops with mum. I can't say I often help mum with the shopping, but I always help her about the house. I often help mum on Thursday which is my helping about the house day.

 $^{^1}$ It is a page either ['aɪðə] from ... or ... — Это страница либо из ... , либо

So we went to our favourite shop and bought a lot of tasty things for my brother's birthday party on Friday afternoon.

I know that all his friends will come to us at midday. They all like ice cream, fruit salad, hamburgers, cakes, biscuits and sweets. So we bought sweets, fruit, ice cream, butter, sugar, eggs and milk for the biscuits. I know that mum will also make a birthday cake for the party.

It's always a problem ['problem] to buy a present for my brother. I never know what to give him as a birthday present. He likes animals a lot. But we've got a dog, a hamster and a small kitten in the house. What shall I buy then?

b) Help the girl to choose a present for her brother. What's your choice?² Now, do you want to know what Susan bought for her brother? You'll never guess.

She took him to the zoo where he could see all his favourite animals: monkeys, bears, giraffes, crocodiles, foxes, horses and elephants.

WE MET ON SUNDAY

II. We danced on Thursday, the fifth of July.

On Sunday we met and on Monday we talked.

On Tuesday we smiled and on Wednesday we laughed.

On Thursday we danced, on the fifth of July. We cried on Friday, the sixth of July.

On Sunday we met and on Monday we talked.

On Tuesday we smiled and on Wednesday we laughed.

On Thursday we danced and on Friday we cried,

On the sixth of July.

We parted on Saturday, the seventh of July.

On Sunday we met and on Monday we talked.

On Tuesday we smiled and on Wednesday we laughed.

On Thursday we danced and on Friday we cried.

But on Saturday we parted

And we said: "Goodbye."

"Goodbye."

Now you know the whole song. Answer the following questions:

1. When did they meet (talk, smile, laugh, dance, cry, part and say goodbye)?

2. What did they do on Sunday (Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday)?

3. Did you like the song?

SANTI GOES TO SCHOOL

Santi is a little boy who is eight. He lives in Central ['sentral] Africa and goes to school there. School starts at seven o'clock in the morning, but he goes to school at half past six. Why? Well, he wants to get a desk near the teacher's table. In Santi's class there are fifty-two pupils.

The pupils play in the playground before classes. Some of them wear their school uniform: a white blouse or a shirt and a blue skirt or trousers. When they come into the classroom, many of the girls take off their blouses and skirts. They usually put on T-shirts and shorts. They do this because they are not comfortable in uniform as it is very hot in the room and because they don't want to get their uniforms dirty.

Before classes they sing one or two songs. The pupils have classes five days a week. Every day they have five lessons. They study English, Maths, Geography, P. E., History, Music and Art. They have swimming, games and computer studies too.

Have a look at Santi's timetable:

Day Time	7.00	8.00	9.00		11.00	12.00
MONDAY	Art	Geography	Maths	L	English	History
TUESDAY	Maths	English	Swimming	и	Maths	Geography
WEDNESDAY	English	Nature Study	Computing	n	Games	Games
THURSDAY	Music	History	English	c	Nature Study	Maths
FRIDAY	English	Computing	Maths	h	Art	Art

After classes Santi plays football and then goes home. When he comes home, he has something to eat. He usually watches cartoons¹ on TV before he does his homework.

Read Alice's letter to Betty. Does her classroom differ from yours?

What's the difference?

73, High Street Dover Kent 10th September

Dear Betty,

Thank you for your letter. It was interesting to know about your school and your uniform.

I would like to tell you some things about my school. You know in England schools have names not numbers. Well, I go to Cedar Grove School. It's not very big. Pupils from 5 to 11 years old go to our school. We have ten classrooms and there is a big beautiful hall [ho:l] in it. We have many trees and flowers near our school and so, when it is warm and the weather is fine we are often outdoors.

My classroom is comfortable and always clean. There are twenty desks in it. The teacher's table is near the window. There are three windows in our classroom which are white as is the door. The blackboard is green and the floor is brown. There are nice pictures on the walls. Near the blackboard you can see a big, yellow bookcase. There are many books in it and some of them are very interesting. We often read books in class and sometimes our teacher reads them to us. Yesterday she read a very beautiful fairy tale about Snow White. I liked it a lot.

What can you write and tell me about your classroom? Do you read English books in your Reading class? What books did you read last week? Write soon.

Lots of love,
Alice.

13 Read the text and say when English children begin school.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND

I

In Great Britain school begins at the age of four or five. Many boys and girls usually leave school at the age of sixteen.

In England the school year begins in September, but not always on the first day of the month, as school rarely² begins on Monday. The English think that Monday is not a good day to start [sta:t] school. So pupils usually begin their school year on the first Tuesday of September (not always on the 1st of September as we do). The weather is usually fine. It is warm. The sky is often blue and the sun is bright. Little children going to school with their parents on their first school day look so clean and nice. They don't have any bags or books with them, as there is no need for these things on their first day at school. Pupils will get them later. They will get exercise books, pencils, pens, rulers and rubbers too.

Classes usually begin at nine. Pupils have a break at 10.30 and may have a drink of milk or of orange juice. At half past twelve or at one o'clock they usually have lunch — meat, pudding, juice, an apple or a cake. Their classes are not always formal ['fɔ:məl]. They often sit at their desks but they also often sit on the carpet on the floor and listen to their teacher. They draw or play games. They often look at the animals they have at school — hamsters, rabbits or hares. Sometimes there are birds or fish in their classrooms.

After lessons teachers usually read fairy tales and stories to them or sometimes they tell them something of interest.

English pupils often play outdoors.

Steve: Hello, Fred! What about your new school? Do you like it?

Fred: Oh, yes, I do. It's very interesting to go to this school, but it isn't easy.

Steve: How many subjects are there on your timetable?

Fred: Nine. We have English four times a week, Maths five times a week and we have P. E. and Handicraft twice a week.

Steve: And what about Music and Art?

Fred: I've got Music on Monday once a week, and Art twice a week on Wednesday and Friday.

Steve: Oh, we have a different timetable in our school.

Think of your own timetable, make up a dialogue about it and act it out with a partner.

PRIMARY SCHOOLS IN ENGLAND

H

English children have classes five days a week. They have classes on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. Classes are usually over at about four o'clock (3.30) and then the pupils go home. They rarely have classes on Saturday and never on Sunday. Saturdays and Sundays are their days off.

Schools in England have names, not numbers. They often get named after the place where they are (Green Hill School, Cedar Grove School) or after some famous or important people (St Mary's School).

At the age of four or five, primary school children go to infant schools¹ or infant classes where they spend three years till they are seven. In infant schools they spend much time outdoors.

They play different games, run and jump. They sing songs, act and play a lot. Infant pupils learn how to use money in their classroom shop. They look at the pictures in interesting books, draw pictures in pencil and colour ['kʌlə] them. They learn how to get on with other children. Their classes are quite² informal [ɪn'fɔ:məl], but they begin to learn how to read, count and write a little too.

When children are seven they go to junior schools,³ where they spend four years till they are eleven. So in England children spend seven years in primary school. When pupils are eleven or a little older primary school is over.

¹ infant ['Infant] school — школа для малышей (первая ступень английской начальной школы для детей в возрасте от 4/5 до 7 лет)

² quite [kwait] — довольно

³ junior ['dʒu:nɪə] school — собственно начальная школа (для детей от 7 до 11 лет)

Junior schools are real¹ schools. The atmosphere ['ætməsfiə] is more formal ['fɔ:məl] in junior classes than in infant classes. Pupils sit in rows² and follow a regular ['regjʊlə] timetable.³ Their subjects are: English, Maths, History, Nature Study, Geography, Art, Music. In junior schools Swimming, P.E. and Religion [rɪ'lɪʤən] are on the timetable too.

But children spend a lot of time outdoors. They visit different museums and other famous and interesting places. Sometimes their teachers take them to London and other big cities. They walk and play a lot. In many primary schools children wear uniforms but in some primary schools they don't.

PETE'S BIRTHDAY PARTY

(Pages from a diary)

JANUARY 16, 1993

I had a very interesting week. Monday was my hardest¹ school day. I had Maths, Handicraft, Nature Study, English, Music and Swimming. I like to study but it is not easy to have so many subjects on the timetable.

I came home late after classes, had dinner, did my homework at my desk, then sat down on the carpet and called Mike. We wanted to go to the museum. "Shall we go now?" I asked. "Where will you meet me?"

We met near the History Museum at half past four and spent some time there. On the way home I thought it was great to have a birthday party. As we do not have classes on Saturday and Sunday I planned it for Saturday. I wrote some invitation cards for my friends. As I didn't want my friends to be late for the party I wrote down the time. By the way, I put the plastic ['plæstik] bag with my cards into the bookcase as I wanted to take them to the post office² later.

² post office ['pəʊst ,pfis] — почта

On Tuesday we had four lessons and my favourite subjects — Art and Music. We learnt to sing a new song in class. We drew pictures in our Art class and then put them on the walls and on the blackboard of our classroom. At 2 o'clock after dinner, my mother and I went to the shop to buy some pens, pencils, exercise books, rulers and rubbers. I didn't have a good school bag yet, so we bought one. We left the shop at half past 4 and I spent an evening outdoors.

On Thursday I had some extra Maths exercises to do. Friday was my cleaning day. I did my room¹ and even² washed the floors. My room looked nice.

On Saturday evening at 5 o'clock I was ready to open the doors, but nobody came. "Why don't you call your friends?" my mother asked.

I did. Nobody knew anything about my party. I could hardly believe my ears.³ So, I asked them to come at 7. "We shall have a party then. Better late than never," I said.

I couldn't understand it. Then I had an idea. I opened the bookcase. And what did I see there? Oh, no! There was a plastic bag with the invitation cards to my party. My mother laughed, "When you are eleven years of age you should remember such4 things."

That was my "famous" party!

14 Read and say why and when the family left for Moscow.

Hello! My name is Alec.

Last year we lived in a small house in the country. There were two rooms in it. The rooms were not very large. We had a small kitchen, a bathroom and a toilet too. Our house was not very comfortable, it was rather old and not very clean.

There were many fruit trees behind the house and there were a lot of flowers in front of it.

We liked our house but we wanted to live in town in a comfortable flat¹ and so in May we left for Moscow.

Our flat is not very large, in fact it's rather small, but I like it. There are 3 rooms and a kitchen, a bathroom and a toilet in our new flat. Our flat is clean and comfortable.

My room is large and there is a desk and a bookcase in it. I've got a lot of interesting books in it. The walls in my room are yellow and there are beautiful pictures on them. I have a nice brown carpet on the floor, which makes the room comfortable.

I've got a colour TV in my big room too.

THE KEYS

Last summer we went to visit our granny. She's got a nice, little house in the country. It is very comfortable. There's a living room, two bedrooms, a kitchen, a bathroom, a hall and a toilet in it. There are many different flowers in front of the house and behind it. There are a lot of fruit trees too. We like to visit our granny but we don't often go there, as we are very busy.

That summer day our granny was out but we had the keys with us. I wanted to have a nice day in the country. We, my little brother John and I (my name is Judy, by the way), went to the country by car. When we came and got out of the car, John shouted, "I want to watch TV."

I opened the door, put my bag on a little table in the hall and went back to take the food out of the car. At this moment my favourite dog Rex closed the door and I didn't know what to do. John was in the house. The front door was locked as was the back door. The windows were closed and I couldn't get in as the keys were in my bag which was in the hall. I shouted: "John, please, come here! Open the door!"

John couldn't do it because he was only five. "OK, John, then give me the keys through1 the letterbox."2

He did, but they were the car keys and not the house keys. "John," I shouted. "They are not the house keys. They are the car keys. Give me the house keys, please."

John heard and took the house keys out of the bag. He gave them to me through the letterbox. Then I could open the door. I thanked my brother, gave him the keys and went to the car to get the food. While³ I was at the car John locked the door from the outside and put the keys into the house through the letterbox.

13 Read the text to know what traditional English homes are like.

ENGLISH HOMES

Many English families live in flats, but a lot of people have got their own² houses. There are two floors³ in the traditional [trə'dɪʃnəl] English house; the ground floor and the first floor. The bedrooms and a bathroom (or bathrooms) are upstairs on the first floor. The sitting room, the dining room, the kitchen and a hall are downstairs on the ground floor.

² own [əʊn] — собственный

³ floor [flɔ:] — этаж

The sitting room is usually the largest room in the house. There is always a sofa, some chairs and armchairs in it. There is often a carpet on the floor. It makes the room comfortable. English people usually have a fireplace in the sitting room. They often spend evenings in armchairs near the fire. They read books, watch television, listen to music or sit around and talk. People in England like their homes and often say, "There is no place like home" and "East or West, home is best."

14 Answer the questions:

- 1. Do all English people live in flats?
- 2. How many floors are there in the traditional English house?
- 3. What rooms are usually upstairs/downstairs?
- 4. What is the largest room in the traditional English house?

HOLIDAYS IN BRIGHTON

Last summer my father and I went to Brighton ['brarton]. Brighton is a lovely place in the South of England. There are a lot of hotels [həʊ'telz] in Brighton. We lived in a small hotel at 41 High Street, on the fourth floor in a "double". A double is a room with two beds. Our room in the hotel was comfortable and rather large. There was not much furniture in our room. We had a small table, two beds, two chairs and an armchair, a sofa and a TV set in the corner of the room. The table was in the middle of the room. My father's bed was on the left and my bed was on the right by the window.

There was a mirror and two lovely pictures of Brighton on the wall. The curtains on the windows were yellow and they made the room bright and nice indeed. It was rather quiet in the room as it was at the back of the hotel.

² double ['dʌbl] — двухместный номер в гостинице

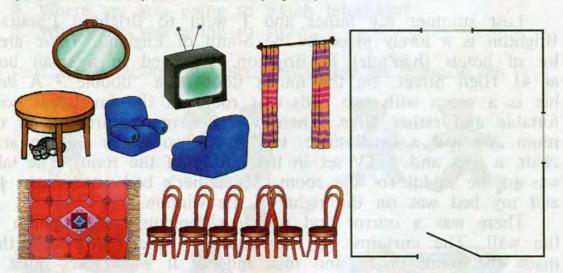

The bathroom was small. There we had a bath, a toilet and a wash basin.1 We could take a shower in the bathroom, and I usually had one in the afternoon after my swim in the sea.

The hotel was on the hill and the view² was lovely. There were a lot of green trees and beautiful flowers behind the hotel and the sea was in front of it. We came to Brighton by car and spent two wonderful weeks there. We are going to spend our next summer there again.

Dear Bob,

Thank you for your letter. You ask me to describe my house. Well, I think it's very different from yours. It is a big house, made of stone. It has four floors in it and my bedroom is at the top. It's the only room on that floor. I don't have much furniture in it but I like it. There is a small wardrobe in the corner of my room where I keep my clothes. Next to the wardrobe there is a standard lamp and an armchair. I like to sit in the armchair reading books.

Under my room there is my parents' bedroom which is next to the living room. We have dinner, supper and tea in the living room and we usually spend a lot of time there. Below1 there is another floor which has a kitchen and the hall with the front door. On the left as you come into the hall there are some stairs2 which go up to the living room. Below the hall and the kitchen we keep our animals: a horse, a cow and some sheep. My uncle and aunt's bedroom is next to the living room on the third floor.

There is a small garden behind our house and we've got two big trees in front of the house. There is a large field opposite our house. Come and see me and my family some day.

A BURGLARI IN THE HOUSE

It happened last Thursday. Anna Crook who lives at 37 Park Avenue just opposite our house was in her flat. She lives on the second floor in a big block of flats and she can see what goes on in our rooms when the windows are open. That day she was busy in her study writing something when suddenly she looked at our kitchen window and couldn't believe her eyes. There was a man in our kitchen. He opened the fridge, then he opened the cupboard. He took some food out of the fridge and out of the cupboard and put it in the bag. But the man was not my father, or my elder brother Jim. Mrs Crook thought that the man was a burglar. She called the police [pə'li:s] and she called my father too.

Here is Anna Crook's talk with the police officer.

Anna: Hello, hello, is this the police? Officer: Yes, madam. What's the matter? Anna: There is a burglar in the house.

Officer: Which house? In your house? What's your address, madam? And your name, please.

Anna: Listen, officer. My name is Anna Crook and I don't live in a house. I live in a block of flats at 37 Park Avenue. There is a burglar in the house which is opposite my flat. It is John Copley's house. And the burglar is in the kitchen.

Officer: What is he doing?

Anna: He is taking some food out of the fridge and out of the cupboard and putting something into his bag.

9 Read the text "A Strange1 'Burglar' in Big Mountains". The story has no end. Who is the burglar?

A STRANGE 'BURGLAR' IN BIG MOUNTAINS

At the end of November the Jackson family went to Big Mountains by car. Mr and Mrs Jackson and their children Larry and George wanted to spend Thanksgiving there. Soon Father stopped the car. "Here we are!" he said.

There was a large house in front of them with a big chimney² at the back. Behind the house on the left, there was a small apple garden and on the right there were big trees. It was so quiet everywhere!

When Father gave the children the keys they jumped out of the car, ran to the house to open the door and went in. There was a large sitting room and a kitchen downstairs. The sitting room was lovely. There was a big fireplace in the corner of the room and next to it on the left a large sofa with a standard lamp near it. On the right there was an armchair. There was a beautiful carpet in the middle of the room. The orange curtains made the sitting room look comfortable.

The kitchen was small but nice with a fridge and a cupboard at the left wall and a sink and a cooker opposite them. There was a table and four chairs in the kitchen too.

The parents began to put the food in the fridge. The boys ran upstairs to the first floor. There were two small bedrooms with beds and wardrobes, a bathroom and a toilet there. Then everyone helped to bring different things from the car. That wasn't too difficult and soon everything was as they wanted it to be.

Then Father said: "It's such a lovely day. Would you like to go for a long walk into the forest?" "That sounds good," said everybody and half an hour later they left the house.

The family came back much later and Larry shouted, "Our front door is open."

"I saw you close the door, but you didn't lock it, did you?"
Mother said to Father "No. I didn't." the father answered

Mother said to Father. "No, I didn't," the father answered.

They came in and went into the kitchen. "The fridge is open," shouted George.

"Oh, yes, it is," Mother said. "And look there is no fish or fruit in the fridge and there is milk and some eggs on the floor."

"I know what happened. While we were out we had a burglar in the house," said Mr Jackson. "I'm going to call the police."

Suddenly George shouted, "Look, there are some footprints1 outdoors under the window."

Soon the police officer came. He looked at the footprints, looked everywhere in the house and in the garden. He looked under the house too. Then he looked up at the chimney.

"Start a fire2 in your fireplace," said the policeman. "Then come out into the garden and watch your chimney."

Mr Jackson started a fire in the fireplace and everyone went outdoors to watch the chimney.

- [av] now, town [tavn], a town—towns, in town, out of town. There are a lot of small towns in the South of England. My grandmother left town three years ago and now she lives in the country. My grandfather doesn't live in town. We always spend weekends out of town.
- [1] sit, city ['siti], a city—cities, one of the biggest cities in the world, the city of London. There are many big cities in England.— Is Moscow a big city?—It certainly is.
- [eə] bear, square [skweə], a square squares, Red Square, a small square, a quiet square. There are two squares in our town. Are there any squares in your city? Oh, yes, a lot. We live in Moscow near Red Square.
- [ei] rain, main [mein], the main idea, the main street of a town. This is the main thing to remember. What is the main square in your city? What's the main idea of the book?
- [1] big, cinema ['sɪnəmə], a cinema cinemas, at the cinema, to be on at the cinema. A cinema is a place where people can watch films. I usually go to the cinema once or twice a month. What is on at the "Mir" today? I don't know. The "Mir" cinema is far from my house.
- [19] near, theatre ['θιətə], a theatre theatres, to go to the theatre. Is there a theatre near here? Do you live far from the theatre? Do you know the Moscow theatres well? How often do you go to the theatre? Only once in two months.
- [3:] sir, church [tʃ3:tʃ], a church churches, in the church, near the church. There were many people in the church when we came. Is there a church in your town? Yes, there is.

It is in Main Square. The old church was very beautiful. There are many old churches in this city.

- [əv] coat, road [rəvd], a road roads, a road in the country, a quiet road, to live in Main Road. - Are the roads in your town very good? - I don't think so. Where is the road to Boston?
- Say where your friend lives using the words:

in the country near the main square in a small town not far from the cinema in a big city opposite the church far from the theatre in front of the market¹ interesting things about London Bridge. She has never been to London but she already knows a lot about it. Here are some facts from London's history.

THE ROMANS1

The Romans went to England many, many years ago. They built a town on the River Thames [temz]. The name of the town was Londinium [lʌn'di:nɪəm]. The Romans built Londinium near the river. The place for the town was very good. Soon the Romans built a bridge over the River Thames.

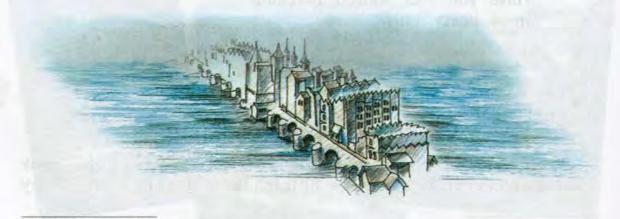

Londinium got bigger and bigger. The Romans built a lot of roads from Londinium to other parts of Britain.

By the year 400, there were fifty thousand people in Londinium. Soon after 400, the Romans left Britain. We do not know very much about Londinium between the years 400 and 1000.

The River Thames has always been part of London's history. In Roman times Londinium was a small town with the Thames in its centre ['sentə]. Now London is a very large city ['sɪtɪ] but the River Thames is still in the centre of London.

Until 1749, there was only one bridge over the river: London Bridge. The old London Bridge looked very strange. There were houses and shops on the bridge. In the nineteenth century² there were already a lot of new bridges in London. Now there are more than twenty bridges over the Thames.

Have you ever been in pain?²
Have you ever been in love?
Would you like to do it all again?

Read the text and name the parts. Here are some more facts about the history of London. Jane has read about them in her book.

I

At the beginning of the 11th century England was already a great country and London was a very important city. In 1066 William the Conqueror³ and his people went to England from Normandy ['nɔ:məndɪ] in France [frɑ:ns].

William the Conqueror became King⁴ of England. The King lived in London. Many of his people lived in London too. But William was afraid of the English, of the people of London and he built the White Tower⁵ to live in it. Now it is one of the most important and beautiful buildings of the Tower of London. As it is very famous, a lot of people visit it every year.

All Kings and Queens of England have lived in London. It became the biggest city in England. By 1600 there were more than two hundred thousand (200 000) people in London.

² pain [pein] — боль

³ conqueror ['knŋkərə] — завоеватель; William the Conqueror — Вильгельм Завоеватель

⁴ king [kɪŋ] — король

⁵ tower ['tavə] — башня

In those days people usually built houses of wood, and they often were near one another. Sometimes there were fires in the city, but they were usually very small. Then came 1666, the year of the Great Fire of London.

On Saturday, 2nd September 1666 there was a strong wind from the river and a big fire began. It started in the house of the king's baker, 1 near London Bridge.

The baker's wife woke up in the middle of the night because the house was on fire. Soon the next house started burning and then the next and the next... The fire burnt until Thursday. Many houses in London were burnt. The fire burnt for four days and destroyed² 80% of the city. More than 250 thousand people didn't have home any more.

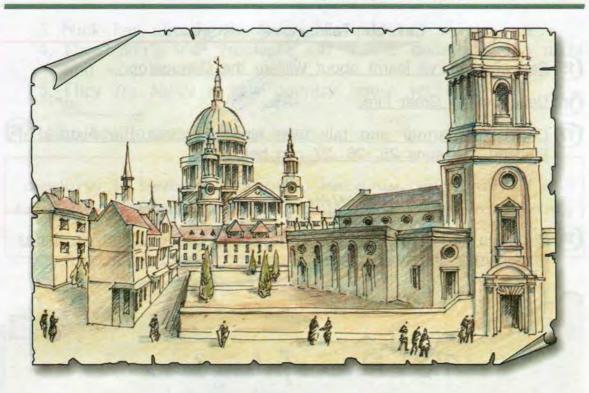

After the Great Fire people built a new city. The city became larger and larger. By 1830 there were more than one and a half million ['mɪljən] people in London. The railways3 came and London became richer and richer, but it didn't become nicer. The city became dark and dirty and people lived in bad houses.

There are still some poor people in London today, but life is better now as there are many new houses and flats. The city is also much cleaner.

The Fire of London

In October 1796 there was a fire in the old city of London. The fire started in a house on London Bridge. The weather was fine that day, there were few houses on London Bridge, and that's why only 4 houses were burnt. The fire started on Thursday and was over on Friday. The people of London built a new city after the Fire.

THE PLACES TO VISIT

London is the capital of England. It is its political [pə'lıtıkl] and business ['biznis] centre. The heart of London is the City. It is the oldest part of London. Many people work in the City but very few live there. There are a lot of banks [bænks] and other offices there too. You can visit some interesting places in the City or near it. One of them is the Tower of London. The Tower of London was a fortress,3 a palace,4 a prison⁵ and the King's Zoo.

Now it is a museum. You can see a lot of interesting things in the rooms of the White Tower. Its square walls are white and very tall.

William the Conqueror built it in the eleventh century. There are always black ravens⁶ in the Tower of London. People keep them in the Tower of London and look after them very well as they believe that London will be rich while ravens live there.

One of the greatest English churches, St Paul's Cathedral, is not far from the Tower of London. The famous English architect ['a:kitekt] Sir Christopher Wren ['s3: 'kristəfə 'ren] built it in the 17th century after the Great Fire. It took Sir Christopher Wren 35 years.\(^1\) It is a beautiful building with many columns ['kpləmz] and towers. In one of its towers there is one of the largest bells in the world.

Trafalgar Square is in the centre of London. Some people say it is the most beautiful place in London. In the middle of the square stands a tall column. It is a monument to Admiral ['ædmərəl] Nelson. Four bronze [bronz] lions look at the square

Read the text and say what Westminster is and what places of interest you can find there.

WESTMINSTER

The political centre of London is Westminster. It is that part of London where there are a lot of offices ['pfisiz]. If you go down Whitehall from Trafalgar Square on the right you will see a small street where the British Prime Minister [,praim 'ministə] lives. He lives at number 10 Downing ['davnin] Street. Whitehall is a wide street leading to Parliament ['pa:ləmənt] Square. This square is very large. On the left you can see a long grey building with towers which is the Houses of Parliament.

The large clock in one of the towers is Big Ben. Big Ben is the name of the clock and the bell in the clock tower of the Houses of Parliament. You can hear the sound of Big Ben every hour in London. The clock and the bell got their names after Sir Benjamin ['bendəmɪn] Hall. He was a tall man, whose nickname¹ was Big Ben. So people know the clock as Big Ben.

The Thames [temz] is behind the Houses of Parliament and the bridge across it is Westminster Bridge.

On the other side¹ of Parliament Square is Westminster Abbey.² It is one of the most famous and beautiful churches in London. It is very old too. It is more than nine hundred years old. There are so many monuments and statues ['stætju:z] there. Many English kings and queens are buried³ there. Westminster Abbey is famous for its Poets' Corner too. Many great writers are buried there: for example Charles Dickens and Rudyard Kipling. The Abbey with its two tall towers is really wonderful.

The Queen of England lives in Buckingham Palace. It is a wonderful building with a monument in front of it which is the Queen Victoria Memorial [mə'mɔ:rɪəl]. It takes people ten to twenty minutes to get from Buckingham Palace to Trafalgar Square, in the centre of London.

TRUE MAGICIAN

Once upon a time there lived a King and a Queen. They had a beautiful daughter, called Rosie. The King and the Queen lived in a wonderful palace in the main square of the city.

There was a tall square tower not far the palace where Rosie's from rooms were. The Tower was next to Tower Bridge. A wide road led from it to the palace. Rosie often went to the Tower. She opened a small door at the back of the Tower with the gold key and went in. She liked to spend evenings there. There in the corner of the dark hall a fire always burnt and above it there was a large bell. There was little furniture there. Rosie was never afraid to come to the hall and listen to the sound of the bell.

But the Queen didn't like it and always described the tower as old and dirty. The Queen didn't like the fire, the bell or the hall, but she could do nothing about it. Rosie spent many quiet hours there.

When Rosie became 18 it was time for her to have a husband and family. With red-gold hair and sea-green eyes Rosie was the most beautiful girl in the country. "We have never seen anyone so beautiful. She has become a real rose," people said.

The Queen knew it was not easy to marry her daughter. It so happened that the Queen's daughter could marry only a magician. That was the rule. "It's the most terrible thing I have ever heard of," said Rosie.

One night sitting in her room in the tower hall Rosie looked in the mirror and saw a lovely young face in it. It was a young man's face. "I have never met this man," thought Rosie, "yet I think I know him."

On the last day of the last month of the year many magicians came to the palace. They wanted to become Rosie's husband, but Rosie didn't like any of them.

Suddenly a young man came in. Rosie looked at him and couldn't believe her eyes. He was the very young man from the mirror. As their eyes met Rosie understood that she loved the man and her heart was his. Looking at the man the Queen asked, "You are not a magician, are you?"

"No, I'm not. But I love your daughter. Let me speak of my love."

As he spoke, people in the palace could see flowers and stars, they could hear sweet music too. Rosie got up from her throne $[\theta r \ni \sigma n]$.

"This is my future husband," she said.

"No, he is not," said the Queen.

"Go to the Tower and stay there," the Queen commanded.

"And you leave us!" she shouted to the young man.

Both Rosie and the young man left the palace. But Rosie didn't go to the Tower. She went to Tower Bridge where she met the young man and they both left the country, the palace and the Tower. They took the road leading to their happiness.
