Come to Covent Garden!

Home Hotels Shopping Entertainment

Covent Garden is a popular place for tourists. It's got an interesting history. It was the first public square in London. The architect, Inigo Jones, took the idea from Italian cities, and called it the Piazza.

In the 1750s a market started there. It sold fruit and vegetables to shops all over the city. In 1830 there was one market building, but a century later there were more and more, because the market was big and important. There were also theatres, cafés and restaurants in the area.

In 1973 the market moved to an area of London with good transport and car parks. Planners wanted to build a conference centre, hotels and roads in Covent Garden, but the people of London wanted the beautiful square and historic buildings to stay. In the end, Londoners got what they wanted.

Now the first market building is an unusual shopping centre. It's got a lot of small shops. They sell artistic things – it's great for tourists! There are still theatres, including the Royal Opera House, and there's a Theatre Museum and a Transport Museum.

In the Piazza there are street musicians and circus performers. It's a wonderful place to visit when you come to London!

Hi Stefan,

I'm in a place called Osseja, a village in the French Pyrenees. There's a big sports centre, so there's a lot to do. There are tennis courts, a skate park and there's also a swimming pool. And there are a lot of mountains too! Yesterday we went for a long bike ride. It took four hours and I was tired when we got home. The village has also got a cinema (but all the films are in French!) and a café with wi-fi. You can also play pool there. In August they have a music festival. It's jazz really, but there are pop groups for young people too.

Where are you? Write and tell me!

Bye for now,

Theo

Hi Roger

Thanks for your email. I love the photos because it's nice to see your family. Did I tell you about my school trip? I'm going to Bogotá and the Andes for a week next Friday! It'll be fantastic! We're leaving at 5 am (!) because we're going to visit the city on the first day. We're going to stay in a youth hostel. All my friends are going and we're going to sleep in a room together. I can't wait!

After three days in Bogotá, we're travelling to San Gil because we're going to go rafting and hiking every morning and afternoon, then in the evening, there are activities like karaoke and a disco. What do you think? Does it sound like fun?

What about you? Has your school got a trip like ours? Are you going?

- we form questions with be before the subject.
✓ Are you going to stay in a cabin?*
✗ ~~You are~~ going to stay in a cabin?

1 Put the words in the correct order to make sentences and questions. Add the correct form of be.

- going to / hotel / in / a / stay / we / luxury
- going to / you / when / come / my / house / to?
- going to / Sarah and I / France / go / to / this summer
- going to / film / a / tonight / watch / not / I

- At this time tomorrow, John will be arrive in England!
- I hope you will enjoyed your holiday.
- It will be sunny in New Zealand in December.
- It's sunny today. I think I'll going to the beach.
- Do you think the weather will too cold in September?
- I will be send you a postcard from Colombia.

Spell it right! Seasons and months

Remember that:

- we only write the names of seasons with a capital letter if they begin a sentence
✓ My favourite season is winter.
✓ Winter is my favourite season.*
✗ My favourite season is Winter.
- we always write the names of months with a capital letter
✗ Maria's favourite month is February.
✗ Maria's favourite month is february.

3 Find and correct six more mistakes.

My cousin, Sarah, lives in New Zealand and I live in England. Our lives are very different. When I have ^S~~S~~ Summer holidays, in July and August, it's Winter in New Zealand. So, when I go to the beach, Sarah goes skiing. In Winter, when it's rainy or snowy in England, it's Summer in New Zealand. Sarah's family usually go to the beach in december for a whole month, because it's their summer holidays! And in february and march when it's the beginning of Spring for me, it's the beginning of autumn for Sarah. It's very strange!

Future with will/won't

Remember that:

- we use will + the infinitive without to to make predictions about the future.
✓ I hope I will see you in the summer
✗ I hope I will ~~seeing~~ you in the summer
✗ I hope I will ~~saw~~ you in the summer.
- we use will be to describe something in the future. Remember to use be!
✓ I think you will be very happy.
✗ I think you ~~will~~ very happy.
- we use will + be or will + another verb. We don't use will + be + another verb
✓ Maybe I will see you tomorrow.
✗ Maybe I will ~~be see~~ you tomorrow.

Corpus

Development of this publication has made use of the Cambridge English Corpus (CEC). The CEC is a computer database of contemporary spoken and written English, which currently stands at over one billion words. It includes British English, American English and other varieties of English. It also includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, developed in collaboration with the University of Cambridge ESOL Examinations. Cambridge University Press has built up the CEC to provide evidence about language use that helps to produce better language teaching materials.
