That is such a good idea!

Lucy West likes being a secretary, but when it's hot and sunny she looks out of the window at the view and dreams of holidays in the countryside. Last Thursday morning, the weather was wonderful. But there was so much work to do. Lucy turned on her computer and started answering lots of important emails.

At twelve o'clock she said to Sue, the other secretary in the room, 'We need a holiday! But we can't leave the office. What shall we do?'

'Let's have a holiday here in our lunch break!' Sue said. 'Turn off the computers!'

The two women moved their desks and computers and put a blanket from the office cupboard in the middle of the floor. Sue fetched two glasses and a cold bottle of lemonade from the office kitchen and put a box of cookies from her bag on a big white plate. Sue played a CD of wild birds singing and the warm light from the sun came through the open office window.

The women sat on the blanket, had their picnic, closed their eyes and dreamed of being in the countryside. It was difficult to start work again that afternoon! When Lucy got home her husband asked, 'Did you have a busy day?' 'Yes! I wrote 148 emails,' she laughed. 'But I went on holiday too!'

Mary was too excited to eat her dinner. She suddenly jumped up from the table and said, 'I'm going to phone Grandma before I go on my school trip!'

Mary's grandmother was surprised to hear her granddaughter on the phone. 'It's quite late, Mary.' 'I know, but I'm so excited,' Mary answered. 'I'm going to go on a school camping holiday. My friends and I are going to have lots of fun!' 'Wow!' her grandmother said.

'We have to take pens and write about birds we see,' Mary said. 'But my friend and I are going to look for a big, dark cave with wild bats and furry mountain monsters inside! We don't get frightened by things like that!'

'I know. You're very brave,' Grandma laughed. 'What else?' 'Well, we have to take things for washing,' Mary answered. 'But my friend and I are going to wash outside.

'Who's this naughty friend of yours, Mary?' Grandma asked. 'I'm not going to tell you that, Grandma,' Mary answered. 'It's a secret!'

The wrong suitcase!

Lucy and her parents, Mr and Mrs Field, put their summer clothes and swimming and sailing things in their big, brown suitcase and drove to the airport. Lucy was excited because she was going on a sports holiday. When they got to the airport, Lucy's dad showed their tickets and then the family hurried to the bookshop to choose some magazines.

After that, they went to get on the plane. Lucy's seat was by the window! During the journey, Lucy's mum read about a famous ice hockey team, her dad talked to another passenger about a golf match and Lucy watched an adventure film about mountain climbing. When they got off the plane, they took a taxi to the hotel. 'Wow!' said Lucy when they arrived. 'Look at all the sailing boats! And, look! You can play table tennis by the pool. Oh! Can we go swimming? I can't wait until tomorrow!'

'Not yet, Lucy,' her mother said. 'We have to take our things up to our room first.' When Lucy's father picked up the suitcase, he said, 'That's strange. This feels much heavier than it did before!'

Mrs Field laughed. 'You think that because you're tired after our long journey! Come on! I've got our key. Look! Our room number is 501. It's on the fifth floor.' They went up in the lift, found their room and went inside. Then Lucy's dad opened the suitcase to take out their swimming things. 'Oh no!' he said. 'Whose ski hat is this? Why are there three pairs of gloves and all these warm socks in the suitcase?'

What a terrible mistake! The family had the wrong suitcase!

Last December, it snowed a lot. One Saturday, when John and a group of friends were playing with a sledge on a hill near their homes, John suddenly fell and broke his leg. It hurt a lot! His friends were really worried and one of them ran quickly to tell John's parents. An ambulance soon arrived to take John to hospital.

Poor John had to stay in hospital. The nurses and the other children there were friendly and kind so, at first, John didn't mind. He didn't have to go to school or do lots of homework and exams like his friends did! He just listened to music, played chess and other games on his phone and watched his favourite football team scoring lots of goals on TV. But when the Christmas holidays started, John began to feel quite bored and a little unhappy.

But then Peter Windows, a member of John's favourite football team came into his hospital room! He was carrying a Christmas tree and a bag that was full of exciting presents. And he wasn't alone! John's best friends followed Peter into the room.

John began to feel much happier and very lucky! He was really surprised when his headteacher arrived, too! He also brought John a wonderful present – some Maths and Art homework! 'Make sure you do it all before you come back to school, John!' he laughed.

Hello, my name's Tom and I live in a busy city, but last June I went camping in the countryside for the first time. I went with Grandpa Pat and my two cousins who are three years older than I am. It was exciting because we didn't arrive until midnight. It was very quiet and we couldn't see very much because it was so dark. Putting up our tent was quite difficult!

When I woke up early the next morning, there were so many unusual sounds outside. I could hear birds that were singing all kinds of different songs. I could also hear some water outside, but it sounded much noisier than a river. I opened up the tent quietly because I didn't want to wake my grandfather and cousins and stood up slowly to see where we were. 'This is the most beautiful place that I've ever seen!' I thought. 'I can't wait to walk up those hills and through those woods.'

Then, between some high trees, I saw the lovely waterfall and all the rocks below it. It was only a little way away from our tent. 'What a beautiful view and that's such a wonderful sound,' I whispered to myself. 'I wish I could see and hear this every morning!'

Naughty Daisy

Last Sunday, our family wanted to go to the zoo, but the weather was very cold and windy so it wasn't a good day to be outside. We decided to stay at home.

After lunch, my little sister Daisy was really bored. She came into my bedroom and asked, 'Tony, play this board game with me!' 'Sorry, Daisy,' I said, 'I can't. I have to study for my Science exam. I'll play with you a bit later.'

Daisy went into the living room. 'Will you play with me, Dad?' she asked. 'Yes, but I'm busy now,' he explained. 'I'll play with you in 20 minutes. I must finish reading this important information on your school's website first.'

Mum was talking on the phone in the hall. Daisy began asking her to come and play, but Mum said, 'Not now, Daisy. I'm explaining something to Aunt Sarah.'

'No-one wants to play with me,' thought Daisy. She was really angry. She didn't like playing all alone so she went upstairs to fetch her favourite doll.

When Dad finished his work, he called Daisy's name. Then Mum finished speaking to Aunt Sarah and called Daisy's name, too. But Daisy didn't answer. I stopped writing and ran downstairs really quickly. I could hear her laughing loudly. 'She's in the kitchen by herself,' I thought. 'What's she doing in there ...?'

E Read Sam's email to Peter Sun and answer questions.

Hi Peter,

I went to the World Zoo today. Someone told me about the new dolphin trainer who works there. Her name's Alex Sugar. She's not famous like other people on your programme, but she's very interesting and funny and so are the dolphins at the zoo! But there's a problem. Alex Sugar can come to the film studio, but the dolphins can't. So we'll have to take all our cameras and lights to the zoo and film her, the dolphins and the programme there. Do you agree with that? Sam

Harry and the difficult questions

Harry Doors loved learning. He had hundreds of books in his room at home and liked using his computer to find out about jungles, clouds, kangaroos or anything else that he found interesting.

One day Harry's teacher said, 'Would you like to be on a TV programme, Harry? It's a competition on Channel 7 for the cleverest children in the country. You'll have to answer several difficult questions!' Harry said, 'Yes! Of course!'

The next day, a man called Mr Silver came to Harry's school to give him some advice and important information about the competition. 'Before we can film you, Harry,' he said, 'I have three questions. Ready?' 'Yes!' Harry whispered. He was suddenly feeling a bit frightened! 'Good! Where's the River Thames?' 'In London,' Harry said quietly.

'Well done! What's 27 times 5?' '135!' Harry answered quickly.

'Great! Which is the highest mountain in the world?' 'Mount Everest and it's 8,848 metres high!' Harry answered with a big smile on his face. He knew that all his answers were right.

'Excellent!' the man said. 'You're clever enough for the competition. Next Tuesday a taxi will bring you and your parents to Television House at six o'clock! Now, I just need to know your age. When's your birthday, Harry?' Harry was so excited he couldn't speak. 'Sorry!' he said. 'I've forgotten!'

- 2 The bank is opposite the station. Its entrance is in South Street.
- 3 The post office is in High Street, across the street from Pat's supermarket.
- There's a small sports shop on River Road behind the newspaper shop in High Street. Their hockey shirts are cheap and look great!
- 5 If you need to buy some medicine, don't worry. There's a chemist on the corner of River Road and High Street. It's next to a fruit shop.
- The bookshop is in the second building in South Street. It's got a very unusual green roof! The town centre bus stops are really near it.
- 7 Next to the post office, there's a restaurant called The Food Village. There's a path from its back door that goes down to the river.
- 8 You can go online in the Internet Café, on the corner of High Street and South Street.
