Family and friends

Reading Part 4

- 1 Read the article about three young people and their families. For each question choose A, B or C.

Henri

I'm fifteen years old and I live in France. I think it's important to talk to your family. If you don't tell them what you think or how you feel, how can they know? I've got three brothers and they're great. They're all clever and fun to be with. Sometimes, of course, they annoy me and then we shout at each other. That's usually because they want to watch sport on TV and I don't!

Tam

I'm fourteen and I'm from Thailand. I don't have any brothers or sisters, so I spend a lot of time with my parents. I suppose my life at home is quite serious because of that. We get on well and they always listen to me and give me advice. I'm not lonely because I've got lots of friends too. I go to their houses all the time. I like them because they make me laugh.

Oscar

I'm thirteen and I'm English. I've got one brother – James. He's a lot older than me, but it isn't a problem because we have a lot in common. We both love basketball and we go to matches together. James is funny and tells me and my Mum and Dad great jokes. But he's not always like that. I can tell him stuff about school and arguments with friends and he always listens to me.

- 1 Who sometimes argues with his family?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 2 Who is an only child?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 3 Who is one of four children?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 4 Who enjoys sport?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 5 Who talks to his parents about his problems?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 6 Who often visits people?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar
- 7 Who laughs a lot with his family?
A Henri B Tam C Oscar

- 1 Read the text about living in Rio de Janeiro. Choose the correct answer A, B or C.

Living in Rio

My name's Paulo and I'm fifteen years old. I live in Rio de Janeiro and I'm a student. My family moved here when I was thirteen. Here in Rio, my dad works as a teacher and my mum has a job in a local hospital. I have a brother and a sister and we're all students. We live in a flat in the city. There are three bedrooms in our flat, so I share a room with my brother. We also have a kitchen, a living room and a bathroom. When I want to be on my own I go out. We live opposite a park. I often meet my friends there and we play football. Football is very important here. We have the Maracana stadium. It's famous around the world. It's not in my part of the city, but

I go there to watch football of course and also to concerts. Rio is a very exciting city. It's also very busy. There are lots of shops and cafés. Every year there's a carnival. It's a huge street party with lots of music and dancing and it's very famous. I love the carnival, but my favourite thing about Rio is Copacabana beach. Everybody knows it!

The Young Scientist Award

Are you good at science? Are you planning to study science at university? If the answer is 'yes' to both these questions, then one day you may want to enter a science competition and win a lot of money.

There are a number of different competitions you can enter. The Young Scientist Award is one of these. This competition takes place every year in Washington in the United States. People from all around the world can take part, but they must be students studying science.

To enter the competition, you can write about any scientific topic. Last year, entrants had to write at least three thousand words. This year they've made it harder. You must write between four and five thousand words. The best and most interesting entry will win! There are a number of prizes which include day-courses at some of the top universities around the world. The two top prizes are $2,000 and $5,000.

Last year's top winner was Rosa Alvares. Rosa is from Brazil, but is in her first year at Leeds University. At eighteen years old, she's the youngest person ever to win the top prize. The second top prize winner was another young woman: Lian Wang from China. At the time Lian was finishing her course at university. She now works as a scientist in the US. Both winners wrote about climate change.

- Jake Hi Megan, Yes, I am, thanks. I'm doing lots of sport.
- Megan My cousin Tina has just joined the new sports centre in town. Is that where you go too?
- Jake Actually, I prefer the park. They've got a really good skateboarding place there.
- Megan My brother, Ben, likes the park too, but he's spending all his time at the stadium at the moment.
- Jake I hear it's got a great café.
- Megan Oh, he doesn't go there – he's too busy at the football club.
- Jake What about your other brother?
- Megan James? Now he does spend all his time at the café.
- Jake That's new too isn't it?
- Megan Yes, that's right – it's next to the cinema.
- Jake What's it like? Have you been?
- Megan Not yet, but I might go after swimming one day.
- Jake Do you go to the indoor or the outdoor pool?
- Megan The outdoor one. It's near the museum.

- Woman Yes, of course. We open at ten and close at half past six, but we sell our last tickets at half past five. There's no entry after that.
- Ben And what does it cost?
- Woman It's £15 for adults and £8 for people under sixteen.
- Ben I'm sixteen, but I'm a student.
- Woman That will be £10 then.
- Ben Do you have any special events tomorrow?
- Woman Yes, there's a talk on dolphins. There's one at ten o'clock, one at half past eleven and then again at two.

- Ben That sounds good. Is there a pizza restaurant at the aquarium?
- Woman I'm afraid it's closed at the moment. But you can get sandwiches at the café.
- Ben No hot food, like burgers or chips then?
- Woman I'm afraid not.
- Ben OK. And the aquarium is opposite the park, is that right?

- Woman And what size are you? We have small, medium or large.

- Boy Large may be too big, so I'd better take a medium.
- Woman Of course.
- Boy How much is that?
- Woman The shirts are usually £10.50 but we have a sale on at the moment so that's £8.50. Is that all right?
- Boy Yes, that's fine. How long will it take to arrive?
- Woman It usually takes three days for delivery. Today's the 31st March, so you can expect your shirt on 3rd April. Can I take your address?

- Tom Hello, Ellie. How was your trip to the countryside? Did you have a good time?
- Ellie Well ... not really. We all said we would take something, but some people forgot, including me.
- Tom Oh dear. What did you forget?
- Ellie I forgot to take my new phone, and it would have been really useful. But most of the others forgot something – Will brought the barbecue and he said he had three tents, but he only brought two.
- Tom Oh, what about Eric? Did he forget anything?
- Ellie Yes, he did. He came with lots of bottles of water, but he didn't bring anything to eat.
- Tom And what about Katie?
- Ellie Well, we got lost when we went for a walk because we didn't bring the map she promised – we could have used my phone if I hadn't forgotten it!
- Tom That must have been annoying.
- Ellie Yes, it was. And then there was Joe ... he left the matches behind, so we couldn't cook anything on the barbecue.
- Tom This camping trip doesn't sound like fun. What about Alice?
- Ellie Well, she had a lovely warm tent to sleep in, but she didn't remember to bring a hat, so she was really cold when we went out!

Welcome to Sports Express everyone. Before you start your summer jobs, I'd like to give you some information. As you know we have two floors. Here on the ground floor we have all our sports clothes. On the first floor you can find the sports equipment. The staffroom and toilets are on the first floor too. Now ... breaks and lunch. You have a fifteen-minute break in the morning, forty-five minutes for lunch and another fifteen-minute break in the afternoon. You must take lunch between twelve and half past one. The shop closes at 8 p.m. every weekday and on Saturdays, and at 4 p.m. on Sundays. I think you all have a timetable of your hours. Most of our staff work 35 hours a week, but the twelve of you will only do 25. If you have any other questions you can ask me or my manager Mr Jordan. That's J-O-R-D-A-N if you want to email. Good luck! And I hope you enjoy working for Sports Express.

- Bruce Hi Marta. How was the cruise?
- Marta It was brilliant. There was loads for teenagers to do. There was a gym, an ice-rink and a cinema.
- Bruce What was the gym like?
- Marta It was too small and crowded. I spent all my time watching films and skating.
- Bruce What about food?
- Marta One of the cafés was called Flick but you had to be over 18 to go in. But there was another café for children and anyone under 18.
- Bruce Did you book it online?
- Marta No, we went to the travel agent's.
- Bruce What, on King's Street or Old Street?
- Marta Neither – the new one on Broad Street.
- Bruce How long ago did you book it?
- Marta There was a special offer until last Friday, so we did it on Wednesday and got our passports on Thursday.
- Bruce And how much did it cost?
- Marta Well, the offer was for 10% off if you spent over £500, so we paid £810 instead of £900.
- Bruce It sounds excellent!

Hello everybody and welcome to LoneWood Studios and our one-day film course. My name is Owen and I'm your teacher for the day. First, I'd like to talk a little bit about what you can expect from the day. This morning, from 9:30–11:00, we're going to work in small groups. There will be four groups with five of you in each group. Each group will write a short, fifteen-minute film. We will have a short break at 11:00. There will be drinks and biscuits served in your rooms. At 11.15, we'll meet at the Seaview Studio for a tour. That's the Seaview Studio, S-E-A-V-I-E-W. Lunch is in the café at 1 p.m. and will last for an hour. After lunch, you will have a go at filming your script. We aim to finish filming at 5 o'clock. We can then watch your films and leave at around 6 p.m. I hope you enjoy your day. Thank you.

Do you enjoy meeting new people? Do you have a spare room in your house? We are looking for families with teenagers to rent out rooms to foreign students. You must live near Browne university, that's B-R-O-W-N-E, so the students can walk there. You must give them breakfast before they leave in the morning. They will have lunch at the university, but they will need dinner in the evening. Our youngest students are aged fourteen and our oldest students are aged eighteen. They are all here to study English, and they've all been learning it for at least five years. The students are coming in August, so please send us an email before the 1st July. You can then complete a form and we will visit you at home.

Jess That sounds healthy! Your sister's sporty, isn't she? Did she go with you?

- Ben Katie? No, she says we go too early in the morning! She prefers swimming.
Jess Well that's good exercise. Do your parents go with her?
Ben No, my Mum goes to the sports centre. She used to do a yoga class, but now she prefers tennis.
Jess What about your Dad?
Ben He doesn't do much exercise and he never walks anywhere, but he's really careful what he eats. He has lots of fruit and vegetables and never eats red meat.
Jess And what about your older brother?
Ben Simon got a new bike last year so he's always on that. He goes on really long rides every weekend.
