Grammar

- 1 Simon's parents went away for a week and he stayed at home. They are coming home tomorrow and Simon has some problems. Read the email he sent to his sister, Beth.

Dear Beth

Mum and Dad are coming home tomorrow morning and I need to be ready for them. I drove the car into the front fence last week and I broke a headlight. I also used all the petrol. On Monday I played basketball in the dining room and I broke a lamp. On Tuesday I practised my electric guitar and the neighbours complained. On Wednesday I invited ten friends over for a meal and they ate all the food in the freezer. Then yesterday I had a party but everything was OK after that. Please reply soon.

Simon

Beth writes an email back to Simon. Write the advice she gives him using should, shouldn't, had better or Why don't you. Use some of the ideas in the list below.

repair the fence
ask the neighbours to help
take the car to the garage
buy some more petrol
buy a new lamp
play basketball in the garden next time apologise to the neighbours for the noise buy some more food
tell Mum and Dad about the party stay in the house alone again
have another party

Dear Simon

This is what you should do:
You should repair the fence. Why don't you ask the neighbours to help?

Love,
Beth

Reading Part 4

Read the text and answer the questions below.

For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D.

Last Saturday I came to your shop to buy some jazz CDs. I came away with none of them. The last time I came to your shop was two years ago and you sold every kind of music. Now you sell exactly the same as all the other shops – only pop music. Why don't you sell jazz? There is nowhere in this town you can buy a jazz CD. The sales assistants are pleasant and helpful and I asked them why you sell just pop music and DVDs. They didn't know. The shop was nearly empty, so maybe you should ask the customers what they want to buy.

- What is the writer trying to do?
A complain about something
B apologise about something
C advertise something
D sell something
- Why is the writer angry?
A The sales assistants were rude.
B He could not buy what he wanted.
C The shop sold only CDs.
D He went to the wrong shop.
- How is the shop different from two years ago?
A It is busier.
B It doesn't have enough staff.
C It is smaller.
D It doesn't sell jazz CDs.

Reading Part 2

The people below (1–5) all want to see a film.

Below are eight film reviews.

Decide which film (A–H) would be the most suitable for the following people.

Mark the correct letter (A–H).

- 1 Eleni enjoys comedies with a happy ending.
- 2 Sofia likes adventure films which are exciting from beginning to end.
- 3 Matteo would like to see a historical film which has a good story.
- 4 Robert likes watching science fiction films. He likes both cartoons and films with real actors.
- 5 Julia would like to see a love story with some famous actors. She enjoys films which contain singing and dancing.

A

The Girl in Black is a story about something that happened 400 years ago. Two young people meet and fall in love but the young man has to go away to fight in a war. The story starts well but then nothing really happens.

E

The Blue Country is an action film with a difference because it is also funny (until the end when everyone dies). Most of the action actually comes at the end and I did find the first half a little boring.

B

The Circle of Life is a film everyone should see if they want to go home feeling cheerful. I couldn't stop laughing. There is one sad part in the middle but everything is all right in the end. Jules Verity, the star, normally sings and dances in films so this is a change for him.

F

I hadn't heard of any of the actors in The Lost Journey but I'm sure we'll see them again. The film takes place on a small planet in the future. It is rather difficult to believe but it has a good story and is well acted. I loved the ending, which I hadn't expected.

C

The Last Time stars Jennifer Nolan and Peter O'Bride. We follow their lives separately for the first half of the film until they meet and fall in love. I hadn't realised that it was a musical – this is the first time these well-known actors have appeared in one.

G

The Tree is a cartoon film which contains some wonderful songs. Most of the voices are done by very famous actors and I enjoyed trying to decide who they were. The action takes place in a forest and small children might be frightened by this.

D

The clothes the actors wear in Cramer Place are lovely. It is a true story which takes place in the nineteenth century in an old house. It is actually difficult to believe this really happened and I found it impossible to guess the ending – you just have to wait and see. The acting is wonderful.

H

The Path to Nowhere is the latest in a series of films starring Des Riley and Tom Carver. It starts with a car chase, there is plenty of action in the middle and it finishes with a helicopter following the two men as they try to escape in a boat. I couldn't wait to discover what happened.

Grammar

1 Match the two halves of these sentences.

- 1 I'm feeling better, so I hope h
 2 It was cold and dark, so I decided
 3 I enjoy dancing, so I would like
 4 We're going swimming, so you need
 5 I haven't seen the film, so I don't mind

- a learning new languages.
 b waiting for the bus.
 c to learn the samba.
 d coming with you.
 e to catch the train home.
 f to seeing you again.
 g to bring a towel.
 h to come to school tomorrow.

2 Choose make or let and put the verb in its correct form.

- a My mum makes me tidy my bedroom on Saturday afternoons.
 b My cousin is an actor and sometimes he me go backstage to meet the other actors.
 c Because I was late for work on Friday, my boss me work an extra half-hour at the end of the day.
 d The week before the last match, the football manager the team practise for six hours every day and he (not) them go out in the evenings.
 e I (never) you borrow my CDs again because you don't take care of them.
 f When I was ten years old, my father me go to bed at 8.30 on a weekday but he me stay up later at the weekend.
 g My friend me use her phone yesterday because I'd left mine at home.
 h The policeman stopped me but luckily he (not) me pay a fine.

Reading Part 3

Read this text and decide if the sentences 1–6 are correct or incorrect.

If a sentence is correct, write A.

If it is incorrect, write B.

- 1 Stella has three sisters. B
- 2 Stella's mother was a photographer.
- 3 Stella met Naomi Campbell and Kate Moss for the first time at her fashion show in 1995.
- 4 Everyone was surprised when Stella McCartney was on the front page of the newspapers.
- 5 Stella had jobs in fashion before she left college.
- 6 Stella thinks about the kinds of clothes famous models like to wear when she is designing.

Stella McCartney was born in 1972, the daughter of pop star Sir Paul McCartney. She is the youngest of three sisters. One sister is a potter and the other sister does the same job as their mother used to do – she works as a photographer. Stella's brother, James, is a musician. Stella first hit the newspaper headlines in 1995 when she graduated in fashion design from art college. At her final show, her clothes were modelled by her friends, Naomi Campbell and Kate Moss, both well-known models. Unsurprisingly, the student show became front-page news around the world. Stella hadn't been in the news before as a fashion designer but she had spent time working in the fashion world since she was fifteen. In March 1997, Stella went to work for the fashion house Chloe. People said the famous fashion house had given her the job because of her surname and her famous parents but Stella soon showed how good she was. She designs clothes which she would like to wear herself, although she's not a model, and many famous models and actors choose to wear them. In 2001 Stella started her own fashion house and has since opened stores around the world and won many prizes.

Exam skills

Reading Part 4

Read the text and questions below.

For each question, mark the correct letter A, B, C or D.

A new celebrity magazine called Their Lives has just come into our shops. There is, of course, already a wide range of these on the shelves of our newsagents and supermarkets, telling us everything we want to know – and usually things we don't want to know – about people who are famous, and also not so famous.

When I pick up and read a celebrity magazine, I rarely get to the end, as I often don't even know who some of the celebrities are. They have probably been on TV or in a football team for a few weeks but, for me, that doesn't mean everybody wants to know what they eat and where they live. But Their Lives kept my attention to the last page. It has about the same number of pages and costs about the same as other celebrity magazines, but it has fewer photographs because it has interviews and reviews as well as the usual kinds of article and pictures. It wasn't until I opened it that I realised that, because it wasn't clear from the cover. Those of you who buy it won't be disappointed, but will it succeed against all those other celebrity magazines out there in the shops? We'll have to wait and see.

- 1 What is the writer trying to do?
A complain about the design of a new magazine
B suggest how a new magazine could be improved
C persuade people to buy a new magazine
D tell people why a new magazine will succeed
- 2 What does the writer say about most celebrity magazines?
A They usually show the same people on their pages.
B The celebrities they show aren't very famous.
C They concentrate on famous footballers.
D The information they give is often untrue.
- 3 What surprised the writer about the new magazine?
A its cover
B its price
C its length
D its contents

- 8 You can register for swimming lessons at the Leisure Centre.
- 9 You must buy a ticket for the Kerrow Hills bus at the Tourist Information Office.
- 10 The train stops near the top of Kerrow Mountain.

WELCOME TO STEVENING

The town offers excellent accommodation at all prices. You can stay in a simple but comfortable family home or small guesthouse, or try the international dining room and beautiful rooms at the Grand Hotel. You can book a room by phoning or emailing the owner. You can get a list from the Tourist Information Office in St Hugh's Square, which is open between 9 and 5 on weekdays. For a small fee, the staff can make reservations while you wait.

There is also a campsite near the town. Space is usually available for small tents, but large groups should contact the manager in advance to check that there will be room for them.

Stevening has two main shopping areas, the new Stevening Mall and the traditional market area, which includes St Hugh's Square and several attractive narrow streets around it. Please note that motor vehicles are only allowed into St Hugh's Square between 7 pm and 9 am. The Mall has over forty shops, including a department store, clothes shops for all ages, sports shops, a chemist and a supermarket.

For sport, visit the Stevening Leisure Centre, which offers indoor tennis, volleyball and a fitness centre. You can pay for a half day, or join the Sports Club, which allows you to use the facilities all day for no charge and at a special discount in the evenings.

The swimming pool is open from May to September. Classes are held in the pool between 3 and 5 every afternoon except Sundays. Details of courses are available at the Leisure Centre but it is only possible to book a course at the pool office.

From Stevening, it is easy to visit a number of places of interest. The peace of the Kerrow Hills is a short free bus ride from the town centre. Maps can be obtained from the Tourist Information Office. Keen walkers may climb up Kerrow Mountain, but less active visitors can also enjoy the wonderful views by taking the little train which stops just below the top of the mountain and walking the last few metres.

A strange event

When I was six my parents took my little sister, Agnes, and me to the seaside one afternoon. My father was looking round the town while my mother was watching Agnes and me on the beach. After a few minutes, my mother realised that Agnes wasn't with us. We looked around and we saw her. She was walking towards a busy road. It was very dangerous. Suddenly she stopped and walked back to us. 'Where's Daddy?' she asked. When my father arrived a few minutes later, Agnes asked him, 'Did you call me?' 'No,' said my father and Agnes looked surprised. 'Well, who did? Because that's why I didn't cross the road,' she said.

Dear Sam

It was good to hear from you. I work every Saturday in a supermarket and I earn about £40 a day. I spend it on clothes and going to the cinema with my friends. I think it's important to have a job because you learn about money and you can decide how to spend it. If you get a job, you will have to work very hard in the evenings on your school work. If you don't get a job, you won't be able to do things with your friends at weekends and in the holidays. So I think you should get a job.

I look forward to hearing from you again soon.

Objective PET Second edition is a lively course designed to guide students towards success at the Cambridge English: Preliminary (PET).

Its unique approach combines solid language development with systematic exam preparation and practice, while its short units cover a wide variety of motivating topics.

The second edition has been revised and updated to include a range of new features including Grammar and Corpus Spots, a Grammar Folder for reference, a CD-ROM and accompanying website.

Key features of Objective PET:

- 30 short units integrate language skills and exam training.
- 30 Exam Folders cover each exam task in depth and provide practical advice.
- 15 Writing Folders develop writing skills and give practice in exam tasks.
- 5 revision units reinforce what has been learned.
- Fun activities help to make learning enjoyable.
- Grammar Spots focus on key grammar points.
- Corpus Spots use examples from the Cambridge Learner Corpus to target areas that cause difficulties for PET candidates.
- A free CD-ROM includes further practice activities for vocabulary, grammar, pronunciation, reading, listening and writing. It also includes a complete photocopiable PET test (with audio) for self-study or classroom use. A printable wordlist includes key vocabulary from the Student's Book units and teaching tips on how to exploit these wordlists.
- An additional free photocopiable PET test with audio is available on the accompanying website at www.cambridge.org/elt/objectivepet

CAMBRIDGE ENGLISH CORPUS

The Cambridge English Corpus is a multi-billion word collection of written and spoken English. It includes the Cambridge Learner Corpus, a unique bank of exam candidate papers.

Our authors study the Corpus to see how English is really used, and to identify typical learner mistakes. This means that Cambridge materials help students to avoid mistakes, and you can be confident the language taught is useful, natural and fully up to date.
