Sivka-Burka

Listen, point to the pictures, and say the words.

contest

brave build tower

ring

princess

Listen and read the story.

This is the Tsar. He lives in a big, beautiful palace and he is very rich. He's got a beautiful daughter, Ana, but he hasn't got any sons. The Tsar is looking for a husband for Ana and someone to be the next Tsar. He decides to have a contest to find a good, brave man for his daughter. He tells his men to build a very tall tower. He tells Ana to go to the top of the tower and sit at the open window. Then he invites all the young men in the land to the palace.

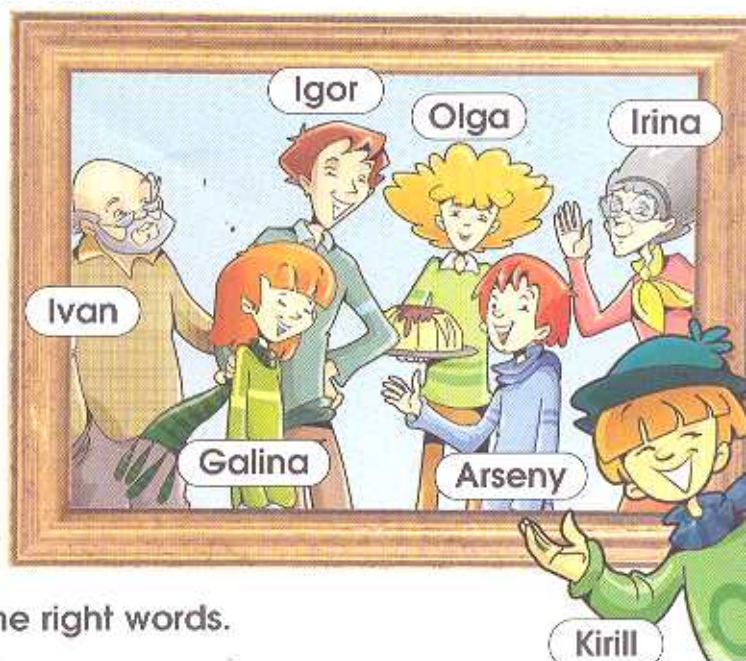

"The man who can jump up with his horse and take the princess' ring can be her husband!" says the Tsar. "This clever man can live here as my son and be the next Tsar!" Ana waits by the window. "Where is my husband?" she asks herself. "Who is the man that can take off my ring?"

1 Look at the picture and complete the sentences.

This is Kirill and his family.

- 1 Igor is Kirill's father.
- 2 ..... is Igor's wife.
- 3 ..... is Igor's daughter.
- 4 ..... is Kirill's grandmother.
- 5 ..... is Galina's grandfather.
- 6 ..... is Kirill's brother.

2 Read the story again and choose the right words.

- 1 The Tsar lives in a big castle/palace.
- 2 He's got a beautiful son/daughter.
- 3 He's looking for a brave man/woman.
- 4 His daughter is in a high tower/tree.
- 5 The Tsar's daughter is wearing a gold watch/ring.

3 Let's sing!

Up in the tower,
The tower so tall,
Ana is waiting,
Can you hear Ana call?

Where is my husband?
Where's the next king?
Who can jump up here
And take off my ring?

★ Read the words/sentences first to yourself, then aloud.

/ŋ/ bring, ring, king, sing, thing;

Bring

Bring me

Bring me my rings

Bring me my rings and sing

"Bring me my rings and sing," says the king.

/aʊ/ wow, now, how, bow, brown, tower, flower, shower;

Wow! A brown flower on a brown tower. How can a brown flower be on top of a brown tower? Bow to the brown flower on top of the brown tower!

/tʃ/ chair, cheer, chess, champion, Charlie, Cherry, rich, touch;

Charlie is not rich. But he is a chess champion! Cherry likes Charlie. Cherry wants to be a chess champion, just like Charlie. Don't touch that chair, Cherry! That's Charlie's chair!

★ Fix the letters to spell the words. Read them to your friend.

1 grni .....

2 cshse .....

3 obrnw .....

4 isgn .....

5 crih .....

6 tewor .....

★ Sing.

The rich king
Now in the tower
Is a champion at chess
And sings in the shower!
Bow to the king,
Cheer for the champion,
Bow to the king
Cheer for the champion!

1 What's in the bedroom? Look and put a tick (✓) or a cross (X).

Sivka-Burka

Listen, point to the pictures, and say the words.

comb

put on wave

loud shout

Listen and read the story.

The brothers hear about the contest and they decide to go. "Let us go and try our luck," says Andrei. "Brothers, take me with you to try my luck, too," says Ivanushka. "Stay here, silly boy!" says Sergei. "You can't come with us."

The brothers comb their hair and put on their best clothes. They wave their hats in the air, give a loud shout and ride off on their horses. And so the two brothers go to the contest and leave Ivanushka with his father. Ivanushka goes into the wheat field. "Sivka-Burka, come!" he cries three times. There is a sound of thunder and, in a second, Sivka-Burka is standing next to Ivanushka.

1 Read the story again and write who says the sentences.

- 1 Let us go and try our luck. ....
- 2 Brothers, take me with you to try my luck, too. ....
- 3 Stay here, silly boy! , .....
- 4 Sivka-Burka, come! .....

2 Let's sing!

Sivka-Burka!
Call for Sivka-Burka!
Call for Sivka-Burka!
Call for Sivka-Burka now!

Sivka-Burka!
Come here Sivka-Burka!
Come here Sivka-Burka!
Sivka-Burka, please come here!

1 Read the words/sentences first to yourself, then aloud.

/ʃ/ shirt, shine, shake, shelf, shocked, sharpener,
Sheila, mushroom, wish;

Sheila wishes to sell mushrooms when the sun shines.

/dʒ/ jam, job, jumper, orange, magic, magician, juggle;
Jenny has got orange hair. She has got orange clothes, too. What's Jenny's job? Jenny is a magician!

/ɔɪ/ noise, join, point, enjoy, toy, boy, Troy, Roy;
Roy is in his room. He's got a friend. His name is Troy. Troy is an elf boy. Troy likes to dance. "Come on, Roy!" says Troy. "Join the dance!" Listen! Who's that? That's Roy's mum. "Oh no! Hide, Troy!" "Roy; what's that noise?" Roy's mum asks. "It's OK,
Mum," says Roy. "It's just a toy."

2 Say the words. Find the word that is different.

Sivka-Burka

Listen, point to the pictures and say the words.

handsome finger

clap cheer

Listen and read the story.

Ivanushka climbs into the horse's right ear, then climbs out of the left ear. Now he looks very handsome and he is wearing beautiful clothes! Then, together, the young man and the horse go to the contest. There are a lot of young men there and one by one they begin to jump. But the window is very high and no one can jump up to it. Ivanushka's brothers try too, but they can't jump very high. At last it is Ivanushka's turn. "Come on, friend!" says Ivanushka. "I know you can do it." Sivka-Burka jumps really high and Ivanushka takes the ring from the princess' finger! All the people clap and cheer, but Ivanushka and Sivka-Burka turn around and ride back home very fast.

"Who is that handsome young man?" Sergei asks. "Where is he from?" Ivanushka goes into the wheat field, climbs into the horse's left ear and out of its right, and turns back into a poor farmer's son. Sivka-Burka goes away and Ivanushka goes back home, collecting mushrooms on the way.

Listen and read the story.

The two brothers come back from the contest. Ivanushka is waiting for them. They are very excited. They tell Ivanushka about the handsome man and the beautiful horse.

"Such a brave and handsome man," says Andrei. "And what a fantastic horse! I want a horse like that!"

"The Tsar is looking all over the land for this man," says Sergei. "I wonder who he is!" Then, they see a bandage on Ivanushka's hand.

"What is wrong with your hand?" asks Andrei. "Why is there a bandage on it?" asks Sergei. Ivanushka laughs. "Oh, it's nothing," he says. "It's just a small cut!" "Collecting mushrooms again, eh?" says Andrei. "Silly boy!" says Sergei. But Ivanushka just smiles and carries on with his work.

Listen and read the story.

The next day, there is a letter from the palace. The Tsar is inviting everyone in the land, rich and poor, to a big feast. "A feast! We must go!" says the old man. "Me, too?" asks Ivanushka. "Come on, silly boy!" says Andrei. "But don't get in everyone's way!" says Sergei.

So the old farmer and his three sons go to the palace. It is a wonderful feast. They eat from gold plates and drink from mugs. There is delicious food, and music and dancing. Everyone is very happy! At the end of the feast, the princess starts to serve a honey drink to all the guests. She serves Ivanushka and sees the bandage on his hand. She looks at the poor farmer's son. He is wearing old clothes but he has got an honest face and a warm smile. "What is wrong with your hand, young man?" she asks. "Please, let me look at it."

1 Read and complete the sentences. Use: inviting, delicious, honest, warm, serve.

We're dancing ro-o-o-ound!

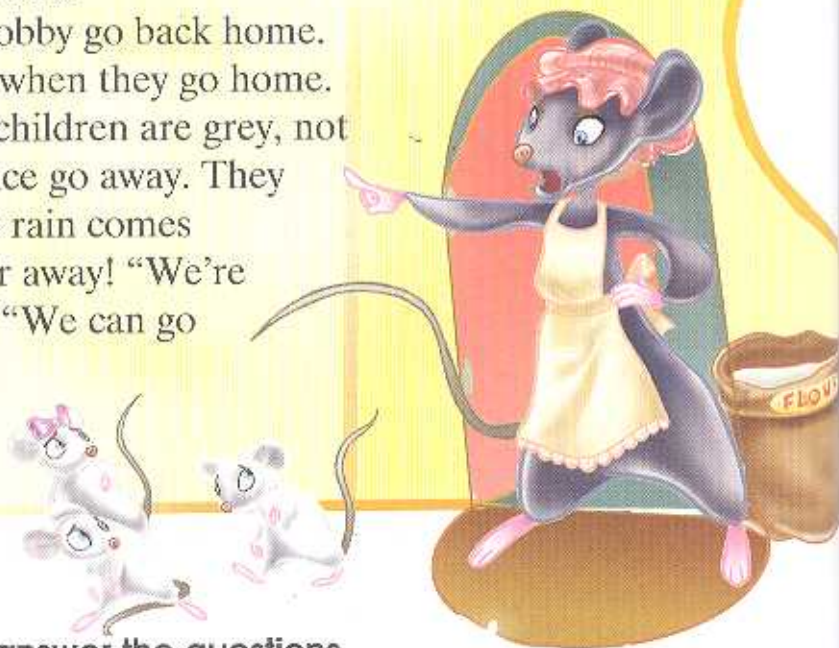

- 1 Read the story first to yourself, then to your friend.

Mrs Mouse has got three children, Billy, Becky and Bobby. One day, Mrs Mouse tells her children to go out and play.

"Go now, children. But be careful. Do not go near the field. Old Black Cat lives there!"

But Billy, Becky and Bobby go to the field and play there. Suddenly, Billy stands up and say, "I can hear something. Old Black Cat is coming!" So Billy, Becky and Bobby run away very fast. "Quickly! In here!" says Becky. And the three little mice go into a big bag of flour. Old Black Cat goes away. The three little mice come out of the bag. There is flour in their ears and in their mouths!

At last Billy, Becky and Bobby go back home. "Shoo!" says Mrs Mouse, when they go home. "You don't live here. My children are grey, not white!" The three little mice go away. They are very sad. Just then the rain comes down and washes the flour away! "We're all grey again!" says Billy. "We can go home now," says Becky. "Hurrah!" says Bobby.

- 2 Read the story again and answer the questions.

- How many children has Mrs Mouse got? What are their names?
- Who lives in the field?
- What is there in the bag?
- What colour are the mice now?
- What washes the flour away?

are swimming in the sea. The water is clear and warm. "Can I swim around, Mum?" Faye asks her mum. "Yes, of course," Mrs Fish answers. So Faye swims on and on until she meets a seal. Faye thinks that the seal is fat and ugly. "Hello, Fat!" Faye says to the seal. "Hello, Little!" says the seal. Faye is very sad. She starts to cry and goes back to her mother. "Oh, Mother!" she says. "That fat and ugly seal is not kind at all. He says I'm little, of all things! I'm not little, right? Look! I have got a tail!" "That's strange," Mrs Fish says. "Let's go and ask the seal." So Mrs Fish and her daughter go to the seal. "Good morning, Mr Seal," says Mrs Fish. "Good morning, Mrs Fish," says Mr Seal. "Tell me Mr Seal, why do you call my daughter little?" "She calls me fat, so I call her little. We should be kind to people, so that people are kind to us!"

Неопределённые местоимения some/any/no

- Мы используем неопределённое местоимение some в утвердительных предложениях с исчисляемыми существительными во множественном числе some pens (apples, books) и с неисчисляемыми существительными some ice cream (sugar, rice).
There are some books on my desk.
There is some rice in the cupboard.
- Мы используем неопределённое местоимение any в отрицательных предложениях и вопросах с исчисляемыми существительными во множественном числе и с неисчисляемыми существительными.
Are there any children in the park?
Is there any ice cream in the fridge?
I don't want any help.
- Мы используем no в отрицательных предложениях вместо not ... any.
There is no milk in the fridge. (There isn't any milk in the fridge.)
There are no buses today. (There aren't any buses today.)
- Мы используем some в вопросах, выражающих просьбу или предложение:
Would you like some milk?
Can I have some tea, please?

Somebody – Something

- Мы используем somebody, anybody, nobody, когда говорим о людях.
- Мы используем somebody в утвердительных предложениях.
There is somebody here to talk to you.
- Мы используем anybody в вопросах и отрицаниях.

Is there anybody in the class?

There isn't anybody there.

- Мы также используем nobody в отрицательных предложениях, при этом глагол употребляется в утвердительной форме.

Сравни:

There isn't anybody in the kitchen.

There is nobody in the kitchen.

- Мы используем something, anything, nothing, когда говорим о вещах.
- Мы используем something в утвердительных предложениях.

Module 10

Present simple (настоящее простое время)

| Утверждение | Вопрос         |
|-------------|----------------|
| I read      | Do I read?     |
| You read    | Do you read?   |
| He reads    | Does he read?  |
| She reads   | Does she read? |
| It reads    | Does it read?  |
| We read     | Do we read?    |
| You read    | Do you read?   |
| They read   | Do they read?  |

- Утвердительное предложение образуется по формуле: имя существительное или личное местоимение (I, you, he, she, it и т. д.) + смысловый глагол.
- В третьем лице единственного числа (he, she, it), к глаголу прибавляется -s.
- Отрицание образуется по формуле: имя

существительное или личное местоимение (I, you, he, she, it и т. д.) + do not (don't) + начальная форма смыслового глагола.
