The birthday party

My friend Sam's birthday was last Saturday. He was twelve. We had a party for him, but we didn't tell him we were going to have the party. On Saturday morning, Sam's parents took him to breakfast at a restaurant. His cousin William has a key to his house, so we all went to the house to prepare everything.

First, everyone put the presents that they brought for Sam on the table in the dining room. Then, we moved all the sofas and chairs in the living room so we would have enough space to dance. We wrote 'Happy Birthday Sam!' on a big piece of paper and we coloured it gold. We put the paper on the wall. One of Sam's friends brought some games for everyone to play and we put them in the living room, too.

Next, we needed to make a cake for Sam. The kitchen was very hot when the cooker was on, so we opened the window. The cake smelled very good and we wanted Sam to come home so we could eat it. We also made pizza for lunch and some of Sam's friends brought milk and juice to drink.

Soon we heard a car outside the house. We turned off the lights and hid behind the sofas and chairs. But when Sam came in, he laughed. 'I know you're here,' he said. We all jumped up. 'Why aren't you surprised?' we asked. 'Because the window is open and I could smell the cake from outside,' he told us. 'Thanks, everyone. Let's eat!'

The children find water in the desert

One day Lucy and William decided to go for a walk in the desert near their house. It was summer and the day was hot and sunny. The children wore shorts and T-shirts and they had hats because they didn't want to be too hot. They wanted to have a picnic, so Lucy brought cheese and tomato sandwiches, and William brought biscuits and a big bottle of water.

They walked for a long time. Then Lucy said, 'I'm tired and my feet hurt. Let's stop behind these big rocks and eat our picnic.' After they ate their food, they saw an orange and green lizard which was running round the rocks. 'What a beautiful lizard! Where is it going? Let's follow it!' William said.

They followed the lizard, but it ran very quickly over the sand and rocks and soon they couldn't find it. The children looked round. 'Where are we now?' Lucy asked. They were in a new place. They didn't know where they were! 'I'm thirsty,' said William. 'And we drank all our water!'

Lucy said, 'Well, I remember that hill. We're about two kilometres away from it.' 'OK,' said William. 'Look. There was a river here before, but now there is no water. But there might still be water below us.' They started kicking the sand and moving it with their hands. Soon they found some water and drank it. When their bottle was full again, they went home.

The rabbits at the picnic

One day Jack's family decided to have a picnic by the lake. It was a beautiful lake in the countryside full of fish and frogs. Jack's mother made lots of food and Jack's father put the children's kites and some towels in the car. Jack and his sister were excited about the picnic.

The family's big red car was very old, so they drove slowly over the mountains to the lake. First the children wanted to swim in the lake. Jack jumped off the rocks and tried to catch frogs. His sister was very good at swimming and she swam quickly round the lake. The water was cold, so soon the children got out of the lake and got their towels. When the family sat down to eat their picnic, they saw some rabbits watching them.

'Look!' Jack's sister said. 'Mum, can we give them some cheese?' But Jack's mum said that they mustn't give a rabbit cheese. She said that the children could give the rabbits some fruit. Jack held out half a pear to one of the rabbits, but the rabbit was afraid and hopped away.

But one of the other rabbits was braver. It hopped close to Jack. Suddenly, it jumped up, took the pear, and hopped back. Jack's sister laughed. 'What a funny rabbit,' she said. 'Dad, can we bring one home?' Her dad told her that these were not pet rabbits. 'OK!' she said. 'Let's fly our kites then.' The rabbits hopped away into the forest and the children flew their kites.

Vicky finds a secret room!

Vicky likes to play in the basement when the weather isn't nice. She also likes to read in the basement, and there is a bookcase with her favourite books there.

One day, it was very cold and foggy, so Vicky didn't want to play outside. She went to the basement and looked at the books, but she couldn't decide which one to read. Then she saw a book which wasn't hers. The book was blue and it said 'The Queen's Cave' in gold letters. Vicky tried to pull the book off the shelf, but it was very heavy. Suddenly, the book fell out and the bookcase started to move!

The bookcase moved to the left. Vicky saw an empty space in the wall behind it. She looked inside, but it was too dark to see. She ran upstairs to find her torch. When she looked inside again, she could see a little room. Carefully, she climbed into the room. 'Wow,' she whispered. 'I didn't know there was a queen's cave in my basement.' She looked round the room. It was full of treasure.

There were boxes of gold and silver, old paintings, rings and beautiful dresses and skirts. Vicky laughed. 'I'm rich!' she shouted. She put on one of the dresses, which was a lovely purple colour, and put on a few rings too. She danced round the room. Then she picked up the book that said 'Queen's Cave' and started to read. It was a story about a queen who had to hide her things and run away from a monster, but one day the right person found everything again. Vicky smiled. 'I always wanted to be a queen!'

The children's news programme

Last Wednesday Sally's mum and dad were watching the news on TV. Sally wanted to watch a programme about animals in the jungle, but her parents said the news was more important. Sally was sad.

Sally went downstairs to the flat where her friend Mary lived. 'Mary,' she said, 'let's use your video camera and make a news programme!' Together, the girls went round the flats, asking people what they were doing. The artist on the fifth floor was painting a picture of a beautiful beach. The mechanic who lived next to Mary had a new car.

The girls made a great programme. Mary made two videos. She had one and Sally had the other one. That night Sally went home and put the video in the player. Sally was thinking about it during dinner. Her mother asked her why she wasn't eating her chicken and rice. 'Oh,' said Sally, 'it's nothing.'

After dinner, Sally turned on the player. 'Mum! Dad! The news is starting!' she shouted. Her parents came into the living room and sat on the sofa. But they were very surprised when they saw Mary and Sally and not Mr Rainbow, the TV news man. They watched the programme. 'Look,' said her dad, 'I didn't know Mr West can play the guitar.' A message in a bottle

One day I decided to go fishing with my friends, Richard and David, because it was a lovely sunny day.

Usually we went to a big lake not far from my home. But that day we thought it would be more fun to go to the beach and go fishing in the sea. My friend, Richard, brought some food with him and we put the food in our rucksacks before we left home.

We had a lovely morning fishing, but we didn't catch any fish. In the afternoon, David said to me 'I'm bored, Peter. Let's go home!' Richard agreed with him but I still wanted to walk. I told them to go home and that I would come later.

They said goodbye and then they left for home. After an hour, I also began to get bored and decided to leave the beach. But when I was walking back from the beach I saw a bottle in the sand. There was a piece of paper in it. 'How exciting', I thought. 'It might be a message from pirates or someone who is living on an island!'

I picked up the bottle. Then I took the message out of the bottle and began to read it. It said: 'See you at home, Peter. Your friends, Richard and David!'

Treasure!

My name is David. One day I decided to go with my friends Fred and Tom to the beach. Fred and I went for a swim and then we had lunch on the sand. After lunch we began to play football but we soon got bored.

'What shall we do now?' asked Fred, who was the youngest. 'I know!' I said. 'Let's play pirates!' We all agreed it was a very good idea. 'I will be Long John Silver!' shouted Tom. 'And we will be the pirates who find the treasure!' I shouted.

There were many small caves on the beach and Fred and I ran into the biggest. At first, I was afraid because it was very dark and we couldn't see anything. Fred then told me he had a torch. 'That's good!' I said. 'Now we can see where the treasure is!' Then I began to look for gold and silver in the sand. Suddenly, Fred began to shout 'I've found gold!' I laughed and told him it was just a game. Fred looked angry and then started to cry. 'No, this is the treasure!'

Because Fred was unhappy, I went to say 'sorry' to him. But when I saw what he had in his hand, I got very excited. 'I don't believe it, Fred! You are right! It is treasure! We must go and tell the grown-ups!'

My name's Emma and I have a younger sister called Katy. Yesterday, we went to the park to meet my friends, David, Robert and William.

Katy was very excited because she had a new ball and she wanted to play in the park. So Mum made us a snack and we met the boys at the park.

David had his dog, Hugo, with him. Katy is afraid of dogs and started to cry. 'He can't play with my ball', she shouted.

Hugo didn't mind because there were lots of things for him to smell in the park, and he loved running around.

We played ball by the lake. Robert kicked the ball high and we jumped to try to catch it. But it flew over our heads and went into the water.

Katy started to cry. 'My beautiful ball! I lost my ball!' The ball moved away and went under a small bridge. Suddenly, Hugo arrived and jumped into the water. He swam fast and got the ball, pushing it out with his nose.

'Oh! Thank you, Hugo, you lovely dog!' Katy said. Then she gave him her snack. 'I like Hugo. He is the best dog in the world' she said.

We all laughed!
